WASHINGTON, July 20 .- Secretary Alger will turn the war department over to Assistant Secretary Meiglejohn on Monday next, having today received a telegram from the latter at New London, Wis, stating that he would arrive in Washington on Saturday night.

English Opinions.

LONDON, July 20 .- The Standard this morning, in an editorial article regarding the resignation of Secretary of War Alger, says: "President McKinley's prompt acceptance of Secretary Alger's resignation is equivalent to an admission that the department has been badly managed. It is significant that the resignation followed so quickly on the Manifa correspondents' "round robin." Which Remain to Be Answered by Those Algerism is the blot on McKinley's administration.
