Wholesale Slaughter of Deer.

The Eugene Guard has the following justifiable complaint to make against the Warm Spring Indians, which we feel sure would be immediately remedied were Agent Cowan notified of the existing circumstances. That paper says: Travelers in the Cascade mountains bring word of a genuine slaughter of deer by the Warm Spring Indians, who came across last week to pick hops and incidentally to hunt enroute. A portion of the tribe, coming across the McKenzie road, is reported to have killed 300 deer between the summit and Frank Mason's place, above Leaburg. At the latter place the Indians left their guns, great stacks of hides and enough dried venison to load many pack horses, while at other places along the river are to be found other lots of dried meat. The Indians coming down the Middle Fork killed 130 deer coming over in much the same manner. The Indians scatter over a section of the mountains for two or three miles and gradually close in toward the narrow opening of some canyon, where a number of their sharpshooters are stationed, in this manner killing everything in that section of the country. It is in this manner that game is exterminated, and steps should be taken at once to suppress such wholesale slaughter.

WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA

A Prominent Virginia Editor Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Read His Editorial. From the Times, Hillsville, Va. I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. Moore. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

For You to Read. "What puzzled me in the beginning was that I kept losing flesh without any cause for it that I could see. I had a little trouble with my stomach, too, and after a while began to grow weaker and to cough. The cough, I thought, would soon go away and cure itself, but it didn't. It grew worse, and then I began to spit up a peculiar looking substance. I never thought of consumption, but one day I had a hemorrhage, and then was frightened in earnest and did just what you would do. I rushed to the doctor. He was either too busy, or something else, for he didn't do me any good. I kept going on down hill, and the outlook was bad. Things took a different turn, however, when I heard of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, for I took it, and it not only cured my coughing and spitting, but also built up my whole system. I took on permanent flesh, and today am just as healthy a man as you can find in a week's travel. You may be sure I always keep Acker's English Remedy in the house, and it is a good thing I do so, for one night my youngest child was seized with croup. That hoarse, wheezy cough was the first signal, and I lost no time in giving the poor little sufferer proper doses of this grand medicine. In almost no time the disease was under control, and my child was saved. I advise every parent to have a bottle handy all the time. It serves the same purpose in keeping croup out of the house that a good lock and key serve to keep burglars out. It is both an expectorant and a tonic. It cured me of consumption and my child of croup, and I know what I am talking about." (Signed) Hon. M. HOGAN, picture frame manufacturer, 242 Center Street, New York.
