TROOPS IN THE COEUR D'ALENES

Ed. Boyce, his lieutenants and their sympathizers, want the troops taken out of the Coeur d'Alenes. Boyce has promised his followers that he will have every blue coat removed, and to bear out that promise is exerting all the influences suggested to his scheming brain.

The Spokesman-Review says: Boyce wants the troops removed because they are a guarantee of law, order and the sacred rights of American citizenship. Their presence interferes with his regime.

The tactics employed now by the dynamiters are the tactics they employed with success after the disastrous riots of 1892. Far-seeing people saw then that a permanent military post ought to be established in the Coeur d'Alenes, and General Carlin, who then commanded the military in that section, recommended a site for such post.

Kneebone was a brave man, but courage is a poor defense against murderers who hide behind masks and shoot honest men in the back.

Boyce and his followers want their murderous reign restored in the Coeur d'Alenes. To that end they desire the removal of the troops. And to that end they make false statements to law-abiding labor organizations and smooth threats to truckling politicians who are imagined to have "influence" with the war department.

TRIBUTE TO H. B. BORTHWICK.

Mr. Borthwick's death is a genuine loss to the lower Columbia river. He was a man of remarkable activity and his business enterprise knew no bounds. He came to Astoria with a branch of his mill and, in spite of the distance from his operating plant, soon had a practical monopoly of the retail trade.

mestic circle, than by the men who sustained the relation to his various business enterprises of humble daily wage earners.—Astorian.

DEWEY'S ADVICE.

As a result of the president's conference with Admiral Dewey, a considerable addition is to be made at once to our squadron in the Philippines, says the Globe-Democrat. Those who thought that the victor of Manila Bay had come home to advise any form of retreat, or any halt in the most vigorous prosecution of the war, may now dismiss their sickly fancies.

It is strange that any person familiar with the course pursued by Dewey in relation to the Philippines could imagine that he would weaken in the face of continued Tagal hostilities. He devoted more than a year of the most earnest effort at Manila Bay to secure the victory against all comers.

In the coming campaign the land force will number from 50,000 to 60,000 men, and the naval squadron will be the largest yet assembled in the Pacific. This means that the war will be pushed with all possible energy. Even if more men and more ships are necessary, the voice of the country is for supplying them promptly.

SHOULD ASSERT ITS RIGHTS.

Eastern Oregon has played second-fiddle to Western Oregon politically long enough, and the time has arrived for the Republicans of this part of the state to assert their rights and see to it that Eastern Oregon is given the next United States senator. The required ability is here and the Republicans of Eastern Oregon should get in line harmoniously and make a fight for recognition. The East Oregonian sensibly observes:

"The next United States senator from Oregon should come from Eastern Oregon. Western Oregon is not 'the whole thing' in Oregon and should not be allowed to monopolize all the representative offices as well as most of the others. An Eastern Oregon senator is a need that should be supplied. Eastern Oregon is entitled to be represented in congress, and by a senator, too. There is plenty of good Republican timber in Eastern Oregon with which to fill the office, and there should be no hesitancy on the part of Eastern Oregon Republicans to proclaim this fact from the housetops and the hill-tops of the Inland Empire."—Democrat.

Electric Doctor Writes a Letter.

MR. EDITOR:—A man who sells shoes for a living should be able to look at a customer's foot and determine without asking a question what sized shoe he wears—that is, if the shoe man knows his business. That is the reason why, when I first entered my profession, I came to the conclusion that a reliable means of ascertaining the true cause of sickness would be the great essential to success.

My stay in The Dalles on account of pressing appointments elsewhere, will be limited to ten days. I court investigation from all who are interested in my work.

Very truly,

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work."

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches.

For the Oregon Industrial Exposition to be held at Portland, Oregon Sept. 26 to Oct. 29, the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co. will make a round trip rate of $3.25, which will also include two admission coupons to the exposition.

Your Face.

Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, Pimples and Skin Eruptions. If you are feeling weak and worn out and do not have a healthy appearance you should try Acker's Blood Elixir.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a scientific compound having the endorsement of eminent physicians and the medical press. It "digests what you eat" and positively cures dyspepsia. M. A. Ketrin, Bloomingdale, Tenn., says it cured him of indigestion of ten years' standing. Butler Drug Co.

QUALITY AND NEWS

FAME AND EXCELLENCE ARE DETERMINING FACTORS IN SUCCESSFUL DEVELOPMENT.

One of the Important Functions of High-Class Newspapers.

In presenting interesting phases of scientific and economic problems, high-class newspapers frequently give information of great value in their advertising columns as in those devoted to the publication of the principal events of the day; and when the fame of a product is extended beyond its natural limits into foreign lands, and a large demand created throughout Great Britain and her colonies and the principal seaports and cities of Europe, Asia and Africa, it becomes a pleasant duty to note the fact and to tell of the points of excellence on which so great a success is based.

A SLIGHT ACCIDENT.

Passenger Train Delayed, But No One Was Injured.

All sorts of rumors were rife when business men came down to their offices this morning. No. 2, the east-bound passenger, which arrives at 11:45, did not make its appearance until 11 o'clock this morning.

When she pulled in at the Umatilla House it was discovered that nothing serious had occurred although the accident was of such a nature that the trains were necessarily delayed. When No. 1, the west-bound passenger, which left here about 5:30 last evening, reached a place a mile and a half this side of Cascades, a tire came off one of the wheels of her engine, which is No. 83, O. L. Barrett engineer.

The passengers on both trains must have had a merry time. No. 1 was crowded, it being the regular excursion day to the Portland exposition. No. 2 had orders to meet No. 1 at Viento and pulled in there about 9:30 and as it is not a telegraph station, waited in anything but blissful ignorance until 2 o'clock, when an engine came by on the way from Portland to assist the broken down train.

Accidents will happen on the best regulated railways, and delayed trains, mail, etc., are not to be considered when compared with the awful eastern wrecks where so many lives are lost.

Oliver P. Jackson Dead.

Tuesday morning at his home in Spokane, O. P. Jackson died of congestion of the lungs, his death being somewhat sudden. He was 62 years of age.

Most of our citizens will remember Mr. Jackson, who built, owned and managed the Jackson Hotel which occupied the lot adjoining Fitz Gerald's store over fifteen years ago. He had been in the hotel business in Oregon and Washington for about twenty years and there are few of the early residents of this part of the country with whom he did not claim acquaintance.

Mr. Jackson leaves a widow, a son and one daughter, the wife of Martin Maloney, of Spokane. The funeral took place from the family residence at 10 o'clock today and the services were under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, to which order Mr. Jackson had for years been a prominent member.

Millions of dollars, is the value placed by Mrs. Mary Bird, Harrisburg, Pa., on the life of her child, which she saved from croup by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. It cures all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. Butler Drug Co.
