AMERICANS GOT IN ANOTHER TRAP

Official Report of the Death of Captain Guy Howard.

SKIRMISH AT SANTA ARITA

Six Insurgents Killed and Eight Captured and No American Losses—Rebels Scattered Near Calamba.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The war department today received the following from General Otis:

Manila, Oct. 23.—Captain Guy Howard, quartermaster of volunteers, was killed yesterday near Arayat while in a launch in the Rio Grande river, by concealed insurgents. His clerk, a civilian employe, and a native were wounded.

A scouting party of the Thirty-sixth volunteers encountered insurgents in southwest Santa Arita, scattering them, killing six and capturing eight, and ten rifles. No casualties.

General Lawton is operating at San Isidro. Forwarding of supplies to that point continues, attended with some difficulty on account of lack of transportation which will be supplied soon.

Insurgents in Southern Luzon attacked Calamba, but were driven off. No casualties.

This morning Kline, commanding at Calamba, vigorously attacked the insurgent force concentrating on the front, routed them from the trenches and pursued them three miles. His casualties were one private killed, one corporal and three privates wounded. Enemy's loss unknown.

Sterling silver mounted tooth and hair brushes, nail files, button hooks, shoe horns, paper knives, combs, brushes, mirrors, seals, and complete toilet and manicure sets of different designs are found in stock at H. C. Liebs' store in the Vogt block. 20 4t
