The Best Christmas Gift of All.

In choosing a Christmas gift for a friend what can afford more present or lasting pleasure than a subscription to THE YOUTH'S COMPANION? The delight with which it is welcomed on Christmas morning is renewed every week in the year. The charm of it is disclosed little by little as the months run their course. There is no household in which it will not prove an inspiration.

Those who wish to present a year's subscription to a friend may also have the beautiful new Companion Calender for 1900 sent with it. This Calendar is a reproduction in twelve color printings of three exquisite designs by a celebrated American artist, a member of the American Water-Color Society. In addition to this all the issues of THE COMPANION for the remaining weeks of 1899 are sent free from the time subscription is received for the new volume.

Illustrated Announcement Number containing a full prospectus of the volume for 1900 sent free to any address.

Joke on a Baker Physician.

Since smallpox made its appearance in our city one of the leading blacksmiths of town was unfortunate enough to get kicked by a horse, while in the act of shoeing it. Upon investigation it was found that the skin had been broken, and blood appeared on the face and arm of the smithy. In his attempt to stop the blood and relieve the pain, the injured parts had received more or less coal dust so that it did not look altogether like a fresh wound. By this time a crowd had gathered around the young man, who was rather pale and sitting down. Just then the doctor came by, and being attracted by the crowd stopped to see what was the excitement. After looking at the "unfortunate" man a moment, he said, "young man, you have varioloid, (smallpox,) you had better get home." Then turning to Tom, his partner, said, "take him away, take him away."—Republican.

Old Ocean on a Tear.

Advices from all along the Oregon coast tell of an unusually high sea last Wednesday morning. The Crescent City Record tells of the effect of the high tides there: "Wednesday morning the highest seas for several years, prevailed along this part of the coast. The waves ran mountain high, washing debris over the breakwater into the streets of Crescent City in many places. At the west end of Second street logs were piled high in the street by the force of the breakers. It was a grand sight to watch the waves break along the rock bound coast, throwing spray over the highest mainland points and rocks detached from the shore line. The most damage was done the bridge leading across Elk river in Elk valley. Logs were thrown onto the structure damaging it to such an extent as to make it impassible.

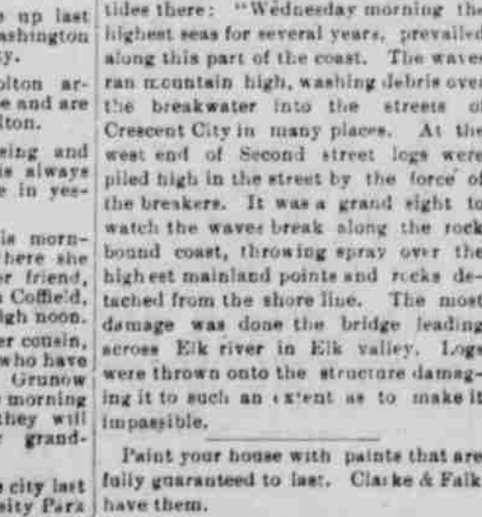
Read This, Consumptives

"From the way my wife coughed for six months, I knew she had consumption. She showed it in her face, too, and her body wasted away to a mere skeleton. After she got down in bed the doctors couldn't do any good. I called in both Dr. T. A. Shannon and Dr. N. L. Hawsen, each of whom is a first-class physician, but they had nothing that would reach the trouble in her lungs. My wife's father came to see her one day, when she got very low. He lives in Cedar Lake, Wis., while we live in Rice Lake, Wis. He said he knew what was needed, and made me get a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I went to Schmidt's, our local druggist, and got a bottle, and it helped her right away. She took eight 50c. bottles, and they put her back on her feet and made her as sound and well as any woman in town. She has taken on flesh again, she doesn't cough, and if any one who doesn't know the facts was to be told she was so near death with consumption, he wouldn't believe it. My wife does all her housework, and at night sleeps as soundly as you please. Her stomach no longer gives her any trouble at all. Maybe you doubt what I am telling. If so, I advise you to see J. N. Schmidt, the druggist who sold me Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. He'll tell you the same thing. He says Acker's English Remedy is wonderful in all throat and lung troubles; that it is sold on a guarantee to cure, or money returned, and he never yet had a bottle come back to his store, although he has sold hundreds of them. My name is Luther Bedell, Rice Lake, Wis."



Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure. 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle in United States and Canada. In England 1s. 1d., 2s. 3d., and 4s. 6d.

ANTI-BRYAN MOVEMENT

Maryland Democrats Are Anxious to Lead One—So Gorman Told Croker—New York Democrats Are Invited to Encourage It—Hunting For a Candidate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The Herald says: Maryland Democrats will lead in an anti-Bryan movement if any encouragement is offered them by the leaders in this state and other Eastern states. This fact was announced to Richard Croker by Ex-Senator Arthur P. Gorman and Governor-Elect John Walton Smith.

Senator Gorman is quoted as saying to a friend last evening that a sufficient number of anti-Bryan delegates would be sent to the next national convention to prevent the Nebraska leader from obtaining the two-thirds vote necessary for nomination. While in New York Senator Gorman and Governor-Elect Smith have been in close consultation concerning the Democratic policies which Maryland may develop during the next six months.

With them at the Waldorf Astors was Buchanan Schley, cousin of Admiral and surveyor of the port of Baltimore under the last Cleveland administration. Mr. Schley is a close friend of Senator Gorman and his presence started the rumor that Eastern Democrats would unite in presenting the name of Admiral Schley in the next convention.

It is said, however, that Admiral Schley has announced that he would have nothing to do with politics and would not accept the presidency as a gift. If Senator Gorman's plans reach their full fruition, Maryland will hold a very early state convention at which a delegation to the national convention will be named which will be solidly and openly opposed to Bryan.

Other Eastern states and some Southern states are expected to follow Maryland's example. No candidate has been settled upon, it is said, with whom to oppose Bryan.

Arrested for Robbery.

PENDLETON, Or., Nov.—Ike Ruddock was brought from his home in the Blue mountains today by Deputy Sheriff Taylor, and lodged in jail on the charge of holding up six people, who were robbed here October 31. On that evening, at 7 o'clock, at the west limits of the town, a masked man held up three teams and six people, robbing them of all the money they had. Ruddock has been watched since that time, and various devices have been resorted to to fasten guilt upon him. Bowman, one of those held up, made the complaint, and swears he recognizes the voice of Ruddock as that of the man who robbed him.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

A High License Passed.

SOUTH BEND, Wash., Nov. 21.—The city council tonight passed an ordinance raising the saloon license to $1000. The vote stood four in favor of the ordinance to two in favor of $500 licenses. The license has heretofore been $300.

High license will be an issue in the coming election, as the present ordinance does not affect the present licenses, none of which will expire until after the election of a new council. If the voters turn out, the prospects are in favor of the success of high license.

World's Fair Director is Dying.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—At 2:30 this morning, Colonel George R. Davis, director-general of the world's fair, was still alive, but much weaker. His physicians said they had given up hope of his recovery. Colonel Davis has been ill for some days with valvular heart disease.

Kid McCoy Breaks Down.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A report comes from White Plains tonight that Kid McCoy, who has been training at William Muldoon's farm for the match with Maher December 11, has collapsed physically and will probably never be able to enter the ring again. It is said that his nervous system is almost a complete wreck.

Fatal Roller-Skate Collision.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., Nov. 21.—Susan, wife of Chet Van Meer, of this city, died Monday night. Death was caused, it is supposed, by a fall, while skating on roller skates at the Auditorium Saturday evening, November 11, when she collided with another skater.
