A FATAL ACCIDENT.

E. D. Ramsey Fell From a Moving Train and Received Fatal Injuries.

As one of the O. R. & N. work trains, which was returning from Hood River, reached the sixty-seven mile post, about twenty miles west of here, last night, and was rounding a curve, E. D. Ramsey, of this place, engineer of the pile-driver, lost his balance and fell headlong onto some rocks four or five feet below, and then rolled into a ditch beyond. The train was going at the rate of from twenty-five to thirty miles an hour, and the fall was an exceptionally hard one, the body striking a large rock with such force as to move it a short distance. The head struck first, causing a fracture of the skull, the right leg was broken, and the right arm, and severe internal injuries received, the most serious in the abdomen.

The accident occurred at 8:25 in the evening and some men were sent down to flag No. 4, the passenger train which reaches here at 7:35, on which the injured man was brought to this city. He was taken into the Columbia hotel, where Drs. Logan and Doane attended him, and where he died at 10:45 o'clock. He was unconscious during the entire time, and on account of the terrible condition of the body, it was thought advisable not to allow the family to see him until the remains had been taken to Crandall & Burget's undertaking parlors and given proper care.

Mr. Ramsey was a man of about 44 years, sober and industrious. Has lived in The Dalles for several years, and has been employed as engineer on the pile-driver for two years past. He leaves a wife and three children—a boy of about 19 years, who is employed by the O. R. & N. at Spokane, and two girls, aged 9 and 13 years. At present the family are living just across the Mill creek bridge to the right of the road. His death, coming as it did so suddenly and in such a manner makes it doubly hard for those he leaves behind, and for whom the greatest sympathy is expressed.

Coroner Butts summoned a jury and held an inquest this morning, which resulted as follows:

In the matter of the inquest over the body of Ed Ramsey:

We the jury impanelled by W. H. Butts, coroner of Wasco county, state of Oregon, to inquire into the cause of the death of the body now before us, after examining the body of the deceased, and hearing the testimony of the witnesses produced before us, find the following facts, that is to say: That the name of the deceased was Ed Ramsey, whose age, in our judgment, was about 45 years, that he was an employe of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co., as engineer of said company's pile-driver, at the time of his death; that he came to his death on the 7th day of December, 1899, in Dalles City, Oregon.

That on the said 7th day of December, 1899, while riding on the construction train of said company, the said Ed Ramsey fell from a flat car of said train, while standing thereon and while said train was traveling past at about the rate of thirty miles an hour.

That the said Ed Ramsey fell therefrom about three quarters of a mile west of tunnel No. 3, of said company, while rounding a sharp curve.

That in falling from said train the said Ed Ramsey broke his right leg, injured his right wrist, was injured in the abdominal cavity, and injured his brain. That said death was caused by falling from said train, and that the immediate cause of said death was shock and hemorrhage of the brain, produced from said fall.

Dated at Dalles City, Oregon, this 8th day of December, 1899.

ROBERTS FOR THE SENATE

He May Make an Attempt to Follow Quay's Tactics.

HIS FALL WILL BE HARD

Senator Mason, of Illinois, introduced a Resolution in the Senate—Wishing the Burghers Success in Their Fight for Liberty.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: If Roberts is finally rejected by the house, as seems inevitable, there is a possibility that he may come forward as a claimant for a seat in the senate. His rejection by the house, it is expected, will add to his popularity in Utah, and it is suggested that if Quay is re-elected by the senate, the Democratic governor of Utah may appoint Roberts to fill the vacancy that exists in Utah's representation in that body.

Roberts' Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Representative Taylor, of Ohio, chairman of the special committee to investigate the case of case of Roberts, of Utah, has called a meeting of the committee for 11 o'clock tomorrow. Taylor says this initial meeting will be to determine upon a line of action. He could not say how soon the committee would be able to report. Roberts was about the house during the day. There was no session, and he chatted with groups of members and visitors who showed a friendly disposition towards him.

Kyle (South Dakota) and Walcott presented a number of petitions against polygamy.

Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee, presented a finance measure to "affirm the existing standard of value of all forms of money, to refund the public debt and for other purposes."

Rawlins (Utah) presented a resolution providing for a full investigation of the alleged polygamous practices in the United States and whether the president has appointed polygamists to federal offices. Referred to the judiciary committee.

Mason (rep. Ill.) offered a resolution extending the best hopes of the senate to the Boers in their contest for liberty. At 2:50 the senate adjourned.

Many Reports Presented.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—At the opening of the session, the annual reports of the secretary of the treasury, attorney-general, comptroller of the currency and various officials were presented. Spooner (Wis.) presented resolutions from the legislature of Wisconsin urging congress to take action looking to the advancement of American shipping interests.

Killed By Deputy Sheriff.

REPUBLIC, Wash., Dec. 6.—Joe Williams was shot this morning by Deputy Sheriff W. T. Swan. Williams had charge of the gambling games in the Butte saloon. Swan wrested it from his hand, when Williams, who is a powerful man, threw the officer ten feet. Swan then fired Williams' pistol, and the ball passed through the body near the heart. The wounded man grappled with the officer, wrested the pistol from him, and was about to fire when strength left him and he fell back and expired. A coroner's jury fully exonerated the officer.

Distinguished Testimony

No secret society in the world stands higher in noble aims and charitable accomplishments than the Knights of Pythias. That order is doing great good, and one of its finest institutions is the Ohio Pythian Home, at Springfield, Ohio, which is ably presided over by Superintendent Le Fevre and his wife, Mrs. Callie I. Le Fevre, the matron. The latter has recently written a letter, which will command widespread attention because of the prominence of the writer. It is as follows:—

CALLIE I. LE FEVRE, Matron Ohio Pythian Home.

"Messrs. W. H. Hooker & Co., New York: Last year I used Acker's English Remedy at the suggestion of a friend, for a serious, long-standing throat difficulty and extremely hard cough. Had used many well-spoken of preparations without relief. I can honestly say that Acker's English Remedy removed the difficulty and stopped the cough. I did not purchase or use more than three bottles, and at least one-half of the last is still on hand. I also consulted physicians with no permanent results." (Signed) CALLIE I. LE FEVRE. The friend to whom Mrs. Le Fevre refers as having suggested Acker's English Remedy is Mrs. W. B. Chilton, wife of the president of the Troy Transfer Co., of Troy, Ohio, where this remedy has accomplished many other cures in Throat and Lung Troubles. In conversation with an acquaintance Mrs. Le Fevre also said: "If you will call on Mr. W. H. Schauss, a prominent china and art merchant of Springfield, Ohio, you will find that he, too, has had any amount of experience with Acker's English Remedy in his family, and thinks they cannot keep house without it."

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure. 50c. per bottle and $1 a bottle in United States and Canada. In England, 6s. 6d. per bottle and 12s. 6d. per 6 bottles. We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
