DEMOCRATIC PARTY IS DIVIDED

Small-Money Faction Supports Financial Bill.

WEAK ARGUMENTS OF SILVERITES

Representative Cushman Introduces a Bill Providing for Lighthouses on the Coast of Alaska.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The first day's debate on the financial bill in the house developed one important fact. The Eastern Democrats realize that they are going to certain destruction in opposing a gold-standard measure. Another fact is that the Democrats are extremely weak in their opposition speeches. The only changes they seem able to make, and the only argument they bring forth, is that those who are now supporting the bill were for the gold-back bill recommended by Cleveland and voted for the Sherman law, and that is the sum of the Democratic reason why the present bill should not pass.

The small-money Democratic constituents of Eastern Democrats elected last year are making it extremely uncomfortable for the men who are opposing the bill. These Democrats are told that they were elected on platforms that abandoned and did not mention the Chicago platform, and that they cannot no longer support the gold Democrats if they refuse to assist in sound financial legislation.

But the Southern and Western Democrats refuse to concede anything. The leaders have determined to fight the bill as a party, and are now devoting themselves to making campaign material for Bryan and that particular element which will harp on free silver.

Lighthouses for Alaska.

After a conference with the chief of the lighthouse board, Representative Cushman has concluded to introduce a bill appropriating $600,000 for the erection of suitable lighthouses and signals along the Alaskan coast. While this sum will not begin to supply a sufficient number of aids to navigation, it will be a start, and it is hoped that further appropriations will follow. Mr. Cushman intends to insert a provision in the bill making the Alaskan coast, together with the Puget sound shore, from Cape Flattery, around to the boundary line, a separate lighthouse district, to be known as district No. 17.

QUAY'S CHANCES FOR DEFEAT

Apathy of His Friends Makes the Outlook Somewhat Ominous—Too Many Names in Noncommittal Column.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

Apathy among Senator Quay's friends is making the outlook in the senate rather ominous for him. Senators Chandler and Penrose appear to be the only persons who are doing any active canvassing in his behalf, and they are by no means encouraged by the progress they are making.

The lack of interest was forcibly illustrated in the case of a senator who was approached with the suggestion that he make a strong speech in behalf of the MacArthur Has Captured Malini, Ables of Insurgents—Only Four Killed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.—General Custer had some stirring news to report today from Manila, his advices going to show that the insurgents are, as he predicted a few days ago, at the end of their resources, from a military point of view, and are running away before the rapid advance of the American troops at all points. His telegrams were as follows:

"Manila.—Fifty men of the navy and fifty men of the army transported by the navy, took Laiza on the 10th inst. General Young, with his staff, followed the next day. He reports that Bows, with the Pennsylvania battalion of the Thirty-fourth infantry, followed by a portion of the Thirty-third infantry, moved north to Piddig, east of Laiza. Marab's battalion of the Thirty-fourth was at Cavaan, province of Lepanto, on the 7th inst. The Third cavalry was along the coast and in the mountains pursuing the enemy.

It is becoming more manifest every day that Mr. Quay has considerable cause to do to make his seat in the senate a certainty.

There are too many names on the non-committal column to make the outcome certain for him at this time. Mr. Quay is expected here on Wednesday, when it may be expected that he will work hard for himself. One of the plans his friends are talking about is to induce a sufficient number of Mr. Quay's Democratic friends to absent themselves on the day when the final vote is taken, and in this way assure a majority vote in his favor.

One national right of a government to appoint when a legislature had failed to act. This influential senator had spoken in behalf of Senator Corbett and urged to repeat the same arguments that he advanced in that gentleman's behalf. He has declined the request on the ground that when he supported Mr. Corbett, both Senators Quay and Penrose refused to vote to seat him. The senator stated that he would vote to seat Mr. Quay, but he did not see how Pennsylvania's senators could consistently insist upon his taking charge of the case on the floor of the senate.

OUR IRON ORE SUPPLY IS SHORT

It Will Take Two Hundred Vessels to Handle the Corpses of Iron Engaged for Importation.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.—Vessels chartered and other preparations signs of activity at this port, indicate that the year 1890 will be one of unusually large imports of iron ore. It is said that 200 vessels will be required to load cargoes of iron and copper destined for Philadelphia from Cuba and the European ports. The ore beds in the Lake regions and other mineral territory in the United States are said to be totally inadequate to meet the demand for manufactured iron and steel products the coming year.

It is reported that 200,000 tons of iron ore have been engaged for shipment to this city from Spanish and other Mediterranean ports alone. A large amount of these shipments, it is believed, are destined for the Carnegie Steel Company. There has been a revival of the Cuban ore trade since the close of hostilities in the island, as is indicated by a number of recent shipments from the mines at Jaguares.

In addition to ore shipments, there are other indications of a year of increased activity at the port of Philadelphia. In anticipation of some of the expected activity, the Pennsylvania railroad is making important extensions at Greenwich Point for increased wharfage facilities.

Fell Under the Wheels.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Dec. 11.—E. A. Hirschbeck was killed at the Northern Pacific depot this afternoon by a south bound overland train. He was a passenger for Portland on No. 1. He got off the train at Centralia and went to a store across the street. The train started before he got back, and he ran to catch it. While trying to get on board he fell under the wheels. He was mangled terribly, and died in a short time. His former home was in St. Cloud, Minn. He was a member of the Order of Railway Telegraphers. A brother in Minnesota has been notified of his death.

at 4:30 o'clock, and the fighting still continues. A balloon has just arisen above the British positions, where it remained 20 minutes and descended. There were heavy rains during the night. At 9 this morning a dispatch rider brought word that Boer positions have been maintained and that forty-one English prisoners have been taken.

"At 9:30 it was reported the heavy rain had somewhat abated. British are constantly using their balloons. Fighting was still going on at noon. Kimberley is still quiet."

Winter Starts Begin.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 12.—Terrific gales were reported from various ports on the Great Lakes today and dear is felt for the safety of a fleet of steamers which left the Straits of Mackinac last night headed into Lake Michigan. Between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning the gale broke. The wind gauge registered 54 miles per hour. Ships everywhere are reported in or seeking shelter.

CHICAGO, WIS., Dec. 12.—Last night's snow storm has rendered the wagon roads impassable. Drifts are four to five feet deep. On three roads coming into Chippewa Falls, only one train arrived up to 11 o'clock this morning. In the city, the snow had drifted in some places four feet deep.

LA CROSSE, WIS., Dec. 12.—One of the worst snow storms seen here for several years started Sunday and continued until this morning. Trains on all the railroads entering this city are delayed. Street-car traffic is blocked and telegraph and telephone wires are down.

HOORIBLE DEVICE

They Construct Pitfalls, Wherein Are Set Upright Sharpened Bamboo Poles.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: In the hospital reports which reached the war department from Manila is chronicled the first casualty due to falling into a Tagal pitfall which contained the horrible device of bamboo poles set firmly in the hole and sharpened at the top for the purpose of impaling the unwary. The American troops have frequently found such traps on the line of march, and especially in front of insurgent trenches. Ordinarily the traps have been simply deep holes in the jungle covered with long grass, and although soldiers have frequently fallen into them, no serious injury has resulted.

On October 25, when forty-five men of company I, Nineteenth Infantry, were engaged in a reconnaissance in chasing a small band of Tagals from some trenches, Private Peter Karl plunged into such a pit with its sharpened bamboo, and had his foot and leg severely lacerated, which put him out of service. Fortunately he did not tumble headlong into the trap, for if he had, in the opinion of the surgeon, his wounds must certainly have been fatal.

PROSPERITY IN MORROW COUNTY.

HARRISON, OR., Dec. 12.—No snow of consequence has yet fallen in Morrow county. Grain and grass never looked better at this season than it does now. Stock of all kinds is in the best possible condition.

POLITICS IS BEGINNING TO BE DISCUSSED AND APPLIED FOR THE VARIOUS COUNTY OFFICES ARE GETTING IN THE FIELD.

IT IS ALMOST A CERTAINTY THAT THE POPULACE WILL NOT NOMINATE A TICKET NEXT SPRING. THE HIGH PRICE FOR WOOL AND SHEEP; ALSO BOGS AND CATTLE, AND THE PEASANT POOR TIMES THAT APPARENTLY HAVE COME TO STAY, UNDER THE ACCRUED GOLD STANDARD, HAVE COMPLETELY DEMORALIZED THE POPULACE OF MORROW COUNTY.

EDWARD BATES DEAD.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 12.—Edward Bates, librarian of the treasury department at Washington, is dead, at the home of his father, Dr. Julian Bates, of this city.

Mr. Bates was about twenty-five years old, and, prior to his appointment last summer as librarian of the treasury department, was curator in the public library of St. Louis.

MY SON HAS BEEN TROUBLED FOR YEARS WITH CHRONIC DIARRHEA. SOMETIME AGO I PERSUADED HIM TO TAKE SOME OF CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHEA REMEDY. AFTER USING TWO BOTTLES OF THE 25-CENT SIZE HE WAS CURED. I GIVE THIS TESTIMONIAL, HOPING SOMEONE ELSE SIMILARLY AFFLICTED MAY READ IT AND BE BENEFITED.—THOMAS C. BOWES, GLENCOE, O. Cavalry Captured Insurgent Stronghold.

MAGNA, Dec. 12.—A detachment of Colonel Hayes' cavalry, under Lieutenant Arnold, has captured Biesmehof's, the mountain stronghold, where the last insurrection was ended with a peace treaty. A large quantity of ammunition and arms was captured. Major Biesmehof's battalion of the Twenty-fourth infantry is making slow progress in the Apurri valley. The villagers are giving the colored troops banquets and balls everywhere.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

In a report to the Portland Telegram, Sept. Gardner, of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society says: "The donations from the merchants and the public schools this last Thanksgiving were better in the aggregate than received last year. Some of our friends from outside counties generously remembered us, and in speaking of this we should not forget The Dalles, and our esteemed friend and agent, the Hon. George C. Blakley, who interested himself with County Superintendent Gilbert and City Superintendent Landers to collect for us as much as possible in their city, and so well did their efforts succeed that besides a handsome donation of vegetables, fruit and clothing, they forwarded a cash donation of $33.25."

A change will be made in the post-office force on the first of the year, J. O. Mack, chief clerk, having resigned to accept a position as traveling salesman for a firm in Portland, and Forrest Fisher, who is now in the employ of Pease & Maye, will assume his position. Mr. Mack has made an excellent clerk, and Postmaster Riddell regrets to part with him. Since Oct. 1st, two months and a half, the volume of money order business has amounted to $20,000, and on his official visit to the office last Sunday the inspector found that the only error in the books was a matter of two cents off.

THE WORLD DO MOVE.

FIVE DAYS TO TRAVEL 150 MILES THEN
A FEW HOURS TO CARRY NEWS 2000 MILES NOW.

While one hundred years ago it took five days to carry the sad news of Washington's death from Mt. Vernon to Congress at Philadelphia, barely 150 miles away, yesterday from Washington, D. C., almost 3000 miles from the Pacific coast, in a few hours was carried the intelligence of the impressive ceremony which took place at Mt. Vernon on the centennial anniversary of that memorable day. The following documents convey the sad news to the body of legislatures then assembled:

UNITED STATES, Dec. 19, 1799.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE, AND GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

"The letter herewith transmitted will inform you that it has pleased Divine Providence to remove from this life our excellent fellow citizen, George Washington, by the purity of his character and a long series of services to his country rendered illustrious through the world. It remains for an affectionate and grateful people, in whose hearts he can never die, to pay suitable honors to his memory."

"JOHN ADAMS."

"MOUNT VERNON, Dec. 15, 1799.

"Sir:

"It is with inexpressible grief that I have to announce to you the death of the great and good General Washington. He died last evening, between ten and eleven o'clock, after a short illness of about twenty hours.

"His disorder was inflammatory sore throat, which proceeded from cold, of which he made little complaint on Friday. On Saturday morning, about three o'clock, he became ill. Dr. Craik attended him in the morning, and Dr. Dick, of Alexandria, and Dr. Brown, of Port Tobacco, were soon after called in.

"Every medical assistance was offered, but without the desired effect. His last scene corresponded with the whole tenor of his life; not a groan nor a complaint escaped him in extreme distress. With perfect resignation and in full possession of his reason, he closed his weeping life.

"I have the honor to be, with the highest respect, sir,

"Your most obedient and very humble servant,

"THOMAS LEARN."

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

The largest audience that ever assembled in Dolores, enjoyed an evening's entertainment on Friday evening, Dec. 8th. The program was an entirely new feature, thus proving a novelty. The drills were well executed by all the departments. $92.55 was the sum taken in. This goes to the Dolores public school library and incidental fund. The people in that little village are wide awake to the needs of educational advantages and are prompt and liberal in their response. We are Melville, the boys' and girls' aid society, are generously remunerating us, and in speaking of this we should not forget The Dalles, and our esteemed friend and agent, the Hon. George C.
