SIZE OF THE BOER ARMY.

It would be interesting to know how many men the two South African republics have under arms, says the Globe-Democrat. The re mark that they have ambuscaded England on this point seems to be true. They have margin enough to 12,000 or 15,000 British troops. It takes a large force to surround s place, but the Boers are managing it at Ladysmith, Kimberley and Mafeking.
