He Tried a Sample Bottle

Nearly every day people come into drug ores and ask the Druggists to recommend ome medicine for their trouble. Very often they re-fuse to do so, because, as a rule, they do not believe it proper to ad-vise anyone to take a patent medicine of which they do ever, when nyone has a cough, cold or throat and lung trouble. "I always recommend Acker's Enc-lish Remedy, because I know just what is will do. It has cured every case where I will do. It has cured every case where I have seen it tried. It is the best expectorant and tonic I ever handled in my 14 years' experience. I will give just one instance of a gentleman who had been troubled for years with a nasty, hacking cough. I ad-vised Acker's English Remedy. He tried a mample bottle, and was cured before he had taken half of it, at no cost whatever. This is an exceptional case, however, as it usually takes two or three bottles." (Signed) A. B. Cong. All work and no play makes Jack a dall boy, so at the close of the work the guests were entertained with a smoker, a nice lunch being spread and the best of good cheer prevailing. One after Commons and and another joined in the jest and story telling, while, we are told, Michell sang 'Annie Laurie'' to the amazement of the crowd; Chas, Phillips also insisted on singing "Auld Lang Syne." There was no discount, however, when Rev. D. V. Poling favored them with a solo, which was greatly enjoyed.

The visitors seemed highly pleased with the evening's session, while Friendship lodge felt highly bonored by their presence.

Clark & Falk are never closed Sunday. Don't forget this.
