BENSON A BIGAMIST.

Former Dailes Barber Marries An Albany Girl Before Hs is Divorced From No. 1.

Charles Benson, who was employed in Parkins' barber shop for a few months last fall, has gotten into serious difficulty in Albany. Although at first he seemed to be a worthy fellow, Mr. Parkins soon discovered he did not meet his financial obligations, and at the time of the fistial encounter, which took place down the river, he took such a decided interest in the disgraceful affair that his employer, deciding he had no further use for him, gave him his walking papers. He then left town, leaving bills to the amount of about $110.

While here Benson employed a lawyor and commenced divorce proceedings against his wife, but suspicioning him, the lawyer dropped the matter, and has since learned that he cheated Salem lawyers in the same kind of a deal, and proved himself an all-around bilk.

It is said that the Miss Watts, whom he married in Albany last Saturday, visited him in this city last fair. The Albany Herald has the following

The following rules will govern the fire department of Dalles City under the new alarm system :

First district will comprise all east of Laughlin street.

Second district all west of Langhlin to Union.

Third district all west of Union to Fourth street bridge.

First alarm of bell will be answered by company in whose district it is situated. Second alarm calls company from ad-

Third alarm calls the entire department at once.

At the first alarm all companies will hold themselves in readiness to answer second or third alarm, except those that are required to answer the call until such time as the second and third alarms are sounded.

Two taps of the bell will be a recall for all companies that are not needed at a fire, which will be a signal that their assistance will not be needed.

Three taps will be sounded each day at noon.

The chemical engine and hook and adder company will answer to all alarms that are turned in.

Keys for the alarm box-s are at the following places of business: Electric Light Plant, Gunning's Blacksmith Shop, L. A. Porter's stable.

Mrs. Robert Lowe, of Fairfield district, has many friends in The Dailes, who will be pleased to learn that Mr. Lowe returned last night from Portland bringing word that the physicians now give the most encouraging reports concerning his wife's condition. Mre. Lowe left for Portland about a month ago and entered the Good Samaritan horpital. A week ago she underwent an operation for a tumor, and is now in a fair way to recovery.

In Idaho a unique suit for damages has been filed by a hobo against the that he was stealing a ride; being located on the brake rods underneath a car, that he sustained the injuries received owing entirely to the fact that servants of the corporation knew he was there without right and did not put him off as was their duty, and that through their gross negligence he sustained the injuries for which he claims damages. Owing to the peculiar claim the attorneys of the road are deeply interested in the case.

To the already large assortment of books in the public library the following have recently been added : "Red Pottage" by Mary Cholmondeley ; "Cyrano de Bergerac" by Edmund Roetand ; "In Connection With the Willoughby Claim," Frances Hodgson Burnett; "Janice Meredith," Paul Leicester Ford; "The Workers,"(two volumes) Walter A. The first death from smallpox in Moro occurred this morning when T. M. Anderson, a man well known at that place, died from the disease. Although his was said to be the worst case they have had in Moro, it was not thought it would prove fatal. Mr. Anderson is a man of about 45 years and a member of the Woodmen and also Cedar Circle. Up to about a year ago he was engaged in farming, and since that time was employed in the Co'umbia Southern survev.
