Germany Against American Ment.

New York, Merch 1 .- A special to the Times from Washington says: Alfor the assertion that politics in Germany are preparing the way for serious differences between Germany and the United States in commercial matters, information is obtained here to justify the statement that in case the lawmakers of Germany carry out their declared purpose of excluding American meat products, each a course will be met with retaliation by the United States.

For a long time, several months in fact, negotiations have been at a standstill on the question of reciprocity with there by the Imperial Government it rival guaranteed. Address was regarded as useless to attempt to ar-ways noticed however, that excheold was worse than the one before. My throat seemed to get weaker, and the least change in the weather started the coughing again. The last cold was the most severe of all. I was really frightened. Cough drops and home treatment did no good. A friend told me about Acker's English Remedy. I got a bottle, and you never saw the like of the way it acted. Before the bottle was gone I was well. My throat felt as strong and well as could be. Since then I have had no more trouble. I think Acker's English Remedy so strengthens the delicate lining of the throat that it easily resists the changes in temperature, and itbuilds up the constitution as well."

range a reciprocal basis that would not include all American products without prejudice. To take any official steps in advance would be regarded as a menace.

Nothing in the way of menace will be attempted. But there is reason to assert that if it is found to be the settled purpose of the German Government to sanction exclusion of American meats or other products from Germany, it may be expected that the government of the United States will feel constrained to use such power as it may possess to impress upon Germany its disapproval of the discriminations threatened against the producers of this country.

WINTER TRIPS.

For winter residence or winter outing ideal conditions will be found on every hand in California. Plenteous early rainfall has this season given to the semi-tropical vegetation wonderful impetus; the floral offerings are more than usually generous and the crop of southern fruits bountiful and excellent.

Old ccean possesses new charms at Santa Barbara, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Coronado and the enchanted isle of the sea, Catalina-where fishing, boating, rambling, riding, hunting and loafing may be enjoyed as nowhere else.

Quiet little spote, snug and warm, offer themselves at Montecito, Nordhoff, Pasadena, Echo Mountain, San Jacinto, Fall Brook and Palm Springs.

For renewing health and vigor, here abound many Lot springs, of widely varying constituents and demonstrated left this afternoon by private conveyance Indio, Yuma; and, even farther on, at Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, exists conditions equally well indicated for weak throats and lungs.

Many think nothing in nature more attractive than the shimmering olive orchards of Santa Barbara and San Diego; others prefer the stately walnuts of Ventura and Los Nietos, or the lemons of Fernando; but for glorious fruit and graceful tree commend us to the golden orange, first, last and always, and it exists in greatest perfection at Covina, Riverside, Redlands and Highlands. Equally interesting is the scientific and tempting fashion in which the sorting and packing of the orange is bere accomplished.

The faithful were exhorted to see Mecca and shuffle off; but wiser generstions will see California of the south and prolong life.
