WILL SOON OCCUPY THE TOWN

Gatacre is at Bethulia Bridge, Only 100 Miles South of Robert's Forces.

ARE NEARING BLOEMFONTEIN

Roberts Forces Only Twenty-Five Miles From the Free State Capital.

LONDON, March 12.—At the present rate of progress, Lord Roberts should be in Bloemfontein March 14, though all calculations may be upset by the development of more strenuous resistance than the Boers have so far attempted. The distance between Roberts and the Free State capital is now so small—only about twenty-five miles—that it is apparent the Boers either contemplate making a determined stand on the outskirts of the town, or for strategic reasons best known to themselves are allowing Lord Roberts to occupy, after merely harassing his advance. The numerical superiority of the British troops leaves no doubt in the minds of the critics here that Lord Roberts will accomplish his immediate objective, the occupation of Bloemfontein. The Commander-in-Chief's latest dispatch announcing that General Gatacre is at Bethulia Bridge and the specials saying that Gatacre commands the bridge approaches, puts the Boers in that vicinity between two British forces, Asvoke Kop, whence Lord Roberts sent his last cable message being 100 miles almost due north of Bethulia. However, there is a large plain between them and the main body of the Boers now confronting Lord Roberts, with its ceaseless activity, may be quite able to cover the retreat of the burghers confronting General Gatacre. Once the British are in control of the railroad from Bethulia to Bloemfontein the junction at the Free State capital of General Gatacre and Roberts would be a matter of a very few days.

Commenting on the fact that Lord Roberts found the Boers holding a position in a part of the country supposed to have been left open, the St. James' Gazette says: "No more damaging indictments were ever preferred against any cavalry." Rumors of the relief of Mafeking continue to circulate, but fail of any confirmation. From Natal, which General Buller so erroneously declared was free of Boers and from Cape Colony, where General Kitchener's stern hand is upon the rebellion, there is no news of any importance.

PUERTO RICANS MUST BE FED

In the Center of the Island There Is Nothing to Eat and Fruit Cannot Be Had for From Two to Four Months.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Accompanying the report of Brigadier-General Davis, Governor-General of Puerto Rico, in regard to the situation in the island, is a report made by Captain H. S. Bishop, of the Fifth Cavalry, stationed at Manatee, in which he makes a strong appeal for food.

Captain Bishop states that the pressure for relief supplies is greater today than it was before the hurricane. The sugar industry will give employment to only a few, leaving the balance of the poor class without any occupation or means of support. In some sections they are beginning to raise sweet potatoes, but in the center of the island, or the coffee district, there is nothing for the poor to eat. Bananas and plantains will not be ready for from two to four months. If the rations are not continued, Captain Bishop states, there is almost certain to be an outbreak of lawlessness and an increase of illness and the death rate. He says he had hoped to reduce the rations, but reports from all sections of the district indicate increased destitution.

General Davis states that such of the coffee-planters as could have cleared up the rubbish and weeds in their fields, having no money to pay their hands, have laid them off. Workmen and their families, lacking money to live, are drifting into the towns, demanding food. General Davis asks for a second shipment of 500 tons of rice, codfish and bacon, in usual proportions, to follow the 500 tons to go on March 16.

Lewis Ackerman, Goshen, Ind., says, "DeWitt's Little Early Risers always bring certain relief, cure my headache and never gripe." They gently cleanse and invigorate the bowels and liver.

HOW CHARLES W. BABCOCK Proprietor Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, of Rochester, N. Y. Obtained $2,000 Life Insurance Policy.

"My business as proprietor of the Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, 245 Main street, Rochester, N. Y.," writes Mr. Charles W. Babcock, "was so confining that my lungs became affected. My doctor told me I'd have to leave the store and go to work at something outdoors. He said my lungs were in bad shape, and I knew it just as well as he did. The trouble had been growing on me for a long time. Like most other people, I tried to make myself believe the trouble was not in the lungs. I called it stomach trouble or nervous disorder, but I kept coughing, spitting and wasting away right along. I lost in weight, falling from 140 to 115 pounds. Somehow or other, I got hold of Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, and after taking it according to directions, I was as well as any man in New York State. I was healthier and stronger than ten pounds more than ever. After recovering, I applied for a life insurance policy. When the doctor began examining me, I was afraid he would discover that my lungs had once been affected, but he didn't. I passed all right, and was pronounced in a first-class condition. If that isn't proof of the most positive kind that Acker's English Remedy is a great medicine, I don't know what you call proof. I give it my warmest endorsement. My address is given above. Anyone who wishes may write me personally about my case."

Sold at 25c. per doz. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back. We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
