THE BRYANITES MAKE A MISTAKE

Lincoln Platform Disturbs Eastern Democrats. EVEN SOUTHERNERS DISLIKE IT

If Adopted at Kansas City, It Will Probably Give the Republicans All the Doubtful States.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The Bryan platform adopted at Lincoln has had a disturbing effect upon the eastern Democrats. Of course, the leaders in the movement which resulted in the nomination of Bryan and the Populist platform of 1896 say they are well pleased. But even Tillman objects somewhat to the Bryan platform, and men like Martin of Virginia, Bacon of Georgia and Campbell of Ohio do not like the platform. Eastern Democrats are very pronounced against the platform, without allowing themselves to be quoted, and declare that it is evidently the intention of the western Democracy to make it impossible to carry a single state for Bryan. The southern Democrats stick at the "initiative and referendum." They are not quite ready to swallow that principle of the Populism. The declaration in regard to the Philippines is thought to have been very ill-advised and short-sighted, as it can by no possible means be popular in this country. Jones of Arkansas says that he does not share in the indignation of some of his Democratic friends, and considers the platform upon the whole a fair declaration of Democratic principles. He and a number of other Democrats say that it does not necessarily follow, because the Nebraska Democracy adopts the platform, that it will be reaffirmed at Kansas City, although Bryan's personality will dominate the convention to such an extent that any platform that he approves is almost sure to go through. Ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, says that the hope of the eastern Democrats has been that a conservative platform would be adopted and some Democrat like Whitney or Gorman be selected. In that event, there would be a possibility of carrying New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and Connecticut. Without most of these states, he says, it is impossible for the Democracy to win, and the Nebraska platform means none of these states can be carried, nor will it be possible to carry any of the middle western states.

The Vote For Debs. New York, March 21.—Rev. W. D. P. Bliss, the Christian Socialist lecturer, spoke last night before the Social Reform Club on "The Social Reform Movement in the West," and predicted the re-election of President McKinley, in consequence of an immense vote that the Social Democracy will, he feels sure, poll in the middle western states. The people in the far western states, continued Mr. Bliss, are growing tired of new parties, and many are thoroughly disgusted with the Populist party, whose machine is corrupt. Although Debs spoke to packed houses in Los Angeles, and was warmly greeted, the feeling against new parties was predominant, and there was a great inclination toward Bryan. Bryan, the lecturer believed, would get a tremendous majority in the far western states, but Debs would get an overwhelming vote in the middle western states and the East, with the result that McKinley would be elected. At the same time, Mr. Bliss noticed a great feeling of unrest in the west, and he believed that the people were preparing for some great movement. The farmers were thoroughly tired of the trusts, as they were entirely at the trusts' mercy, and had to buy and sell at the trusts' prices.

What Flies Owe to Insects. The superior flavor of Smyrna figs is ascribed to certain Asiatic insects, which produce a more perfect fertilization of the flowers of the fig-trees in Asia Minor than is commonly effected in other countries. The flavor appears to depend upon the number of ripened seeds in the fruit. During the past year the department of agriculture has imported some of these insects from Asia into California, and it is hoped that they will multiply there and improve the flavor of American figs. Foundations for Romance. It will be discovered that the only foundation for the usual talk of a "romance" in a woman's life is that she sits and looks out of the window into the dark night when she should be darning stockings.

LIVING ON THE WATER. Some Families in New York Spend Their Time on Their Anchored Yachts.

A wet sheet and a flowing sea has nothing whatever to do with life aboard a yacht as exemplified in the Bay Ridge Yacht basin, in South Brooklyn, says the New York Herald. There are five or six yachts there, one of them a roomy schooner craft, which for various reasons are not in commission this summer. Nevertheless the owners and their families or their friends live and sleep on board. On one sloop are five young men, who go to a skyscraper building in Nassau street every morning and take out two or three vivacious typewriter girls when work is over to make the evenings merry. They rented the boat on condition that they would not take her outside the basin and hired a retired sea captain, who lives near the basin, to look after the boat during the day and to "mess" for them. They find it cheaper than paying board in the city, and ever so much pleasanter. Three families wintered on yachts in the Bay Ridge basin last winter, and they enjoyed the experiment so much that they talk of trying it again. The blizzard and the rough weather had no terrors for them. One sloop, the Peri, was housed above decks, very much like those in the tales we read about Arctic expeditions. The families who lived in this way were on terms of sociability and visited every night for games and cards. They gave a boat party in January and their friends in Brooklyn who are given to assisting at social entertainments joined them in a modest little vaudeville. When the basin was frozen solid one night they gave a skating party, with a piping hot supper below decks as a wind-up. There are still novelties about for people who know where to look for them.

CRIMINALITY OF THE SEXES. Statistics Show That Women Are Not Men's Equals in Lawlessness. In an article on "Women and the Emotions," by Prof. Mantegazza, in the Humanitarian, there are some interesting statistics showing that those modern sociologists who hold that women are men's equals in the field of criminality are wrong. Here are some of them: Man bears false witness 100 times to a woman's 17. Man forgers and counterfeit coins was convicted 100 times to a woman's 11. In France women are summoned before the tribunals four times less than men. In France in 1880 women delinquents were 14 to 100 men. In Italy in the same year they were only nine per cent. In Algeria we have 96 male delinquents and only four women. In England and Wales between 1834 and 1842 there were 24 women to 100 men, all for the more serious offenses. In 1871 Dr. Nicholson found in the prisons in England 8,218 men and 1,217 women. In Bavaria from 1863 to 1866, in a population consisting solely of peasants, the women who were condemned were in proportion 29 to 100 men. In the prisons of Turin from 1871 to 1884 the women in respect to men are represented by a figure of 13-67 per cent. Taking the whole of Europe, women are, the professor says, five times less guilty than men.

LAZINESS OF KAFFIRS. Natives Employed in Mines Will Not Work Unless Closely Watched. R. Ruoff, who left the Transvaal last May for a tour of Europe and America, in regard to labor conditions in the Boer country, lately said to a reporter for the Detroit Tribune: "One of the miners in the copper country will turn out as much work as five of our men. We have to employ Kafir labor. Kaffirs are notoriously lazy, and they require constant supervision or they will quit work altogether. With every five Kaffirs one white man is employed. One hole drilled with a hand drill is considered a day's stint for a Kafir. Although our employes do not get as much pay individually as the miners hereabout, yet labor costs us much more, because one of the copper country miners will do as much work as five Kaffirs. "In Oom Paul's domain the natives are restricted by stringent laws. When a native is employed in the Transvaal he is given a pass upon his arrival, and he is legally compelled to work for a specified length of time. If he deserts his employer he is arrested. When a native is seen on the streets or highways any white man has a right to demand an inspection of his pass. If he does not produce it, or there is ground for believing that he has not obtained permission from the employer to leave his work, he is taken into custody."
