GROWING OLD.

Oh, lay thy hand in mine, dear! We're growing old; But time hath brought no sign, dear, That he's grown cold. 'Tis long, long since our new love Made life divine, But age enricheth true love Like noble wine.

tance from the Wyeth water tank and laid down beside it and gone to sleep. A curve near by made it impossible for the engineer of the train to see the man till the engine was almost on him. He was dragged about 300 feet. His head and one foot were completely cut off, and parts of his body, including his teeth, were scattered over the track. His clothes were completely torn off except one sock and a portion of one of his shoes. The jury returned the following verdict: We the jury, empaneled by the coroner to inquire into the cause of the death of the body now before us, whose name is unknown to us, find that he came to his death by being run over by train No. 5, about 5:15 o'clock a. m., May 27th, aged about twenty-two years, weight about one hundred and fifty pounds, height about five feet eight inches; black hair, smooth face, and that he came to his death by his own negligence by lying on the track.

PANIC IN THE TRANSVAAL

Roberts is One Day's March From Johannesburg—Pretoria May Be Abandoned. LONDON, May 29, 3 a. m.—Lord Roberts is now within a day's march of Johannesburg and General French and General Hamilton fought the Boers from noon until evening Monday, with what result is not known here.

He Violated International Laws. Chicago, May 28.—In trying to drive off Captain Streeter's "squatters" from the lake front, Chief of Police Kiple, acting in behalf of the city of Chicago, is alleged to have committed a breach of international law. By arming with three-inch cannon the fire tug Illinois and the tug John Hay, Chief Kiple, it is said, transgressed the agreement between the United States and Canada which prohibits any but a specified number of duly authorized enlisted ships of war from plying the Great Lakes.

Caught a Dreadful Cold. Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

GENTEEL TRAMPS IN CHURCH.

All Varieties of Beggers and Impostors Fasten Themselves Upon the Congregation. A rich congregation does not need to go to the poorest part of the city to do mischief, for it can create, if it so please, a nursery of genteel tramps within its own borders, writes Ian MacLaren, in Ladies' Home Journal. When a minister and his people have the reputation of a soft heart, and by that is often meant a soft head, the news spreads far and wide, and there is an immediate accession to the number of worshippers. Tramp people of the lower class who wish to push their business and do not feel sufficiently confident about the goods they sell; young men who have lost their situations because they wouldn't do their work; families of women who would consider it beneath them to do anything for their own living and are adepts in what may be called genteel raiding; incapable men of business whom no bank would trust with fifty dollars, but who hope to get a thousand by quoting the sermon on the Mount—all these gather and sit down within the sheltering walls of the Christian asylum.
