

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.

Wednesday's Daily. L. F. Burdoin, of White Salmon, is in town. John Roth came into town today from Tygh Ridge. W. A. MacCall, of Dayville, is registered at the Umatilla House. Will Wurzweller, a prominent Prineville merchant, is in the city. John Somerville arrived here last night on a short visit with his family. Mark Long and family left on this morning's boat for an outing at Lost Lake. Superintendent C. L. Gilbert came up on the noon train today from Hood River. Mrs. M. T. Nolan and children left this morning on a visit to friends in Seattle. Rev. U. F. Hawk and family will leave in the morning for an outing at Collins Landing. Alex. McIntosh, a prominent Crook county sheepman, is registered at the Umatilla House. Miss Clara Sampson left on this morning's boat to join her family in an outing at Cascade Locks. Isaac Stern, of Portland, is in the city in the interest of the American Hebrew News, of which he is editor. Tony Noltner, the veteran editor of the Pomlad Dispatch, is in the city, the guest of the Umatilla House. G. H. Taylor, a prominent sheepman of Klickitat county, is in the city for the purpose of disposing of his clip of wool. C. C. Hobart left today for Portland, from whence he goes to Spokane, and, after visiting his son for a short time, will join his family at Ocean Park. Thursday's Daily Mrs. H. S. Wilson left on this morning's boat for North Beach. C. W. Haight and wife went to Portland on this morning's boat. Miss Bessie Lang was a passenger on the noon train for Portland. Frank Menefee was a passenger on the belated mid-day train for Hood River. Postmaster H. H. Riddell and wife left on this morning's boat for an outing at Moffatt Springs. State Senator G. H. Eaker, of Goldendale, passed through town today on his way to Portland. I. Sichel, late a well-known merchant of Prineville, arrived here on the noon train from Portland. Attorney Jayne and family left on the boat this morning for an outing in the Wind River country. Miss Caddie Booth, who has been visiting here for a few days, left on this morning's boat for her home in Portland. John Baker, a well-to-do sheepman from Antone, Wheeler county, is in the city looking after the sale of his clip of wool. W. T. Young, a mining assayer from Sumpter, arrived here today with the intention of spending the coming three weeks at the home of his father-in-law, M. H. Miller, of Five Mile. Mr. Young is a partner of Jules Bros. in the placer mine at Sand Gulch, Wheeler county. Friday's Daily. Hugh Glenn went to Portland on the noon train. Attorney C. J. Bright, of Wasco, was in town today. L. E. Crowe was a passenger on the noon train for Portland. Malcolm McInnis went this morning on a business trip to Portland. Mrs. J. P. Lucas left on the Regulator this morning for the Cascade Locks. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnston left on this morning's boat for St. Martin's Springs. McIntosh, who have been in town for the past three days, left on this morning's boat for their home at Glennwood, Wash. Charley Don, of Antelope, went down on the Regulator this morning to spend a while at St. Martin's springs. A year ago Mr. Don was attacked with rheumatism that reduced him to a cripple. A sojourn of six weeks at the springs has made him as limber as a kitten. Mr. E. L. Wade, of Washington, D. C., a member of the committee of the currency force, is in the city in connection with some business of his department. Mr. Wade is delighted with our climate and cannot understand how Oregonians consider this weather as being warm, which he insists is cool as compared with eastern weather. During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Brookwater, Ohio. AWFUL TORTURES OF CHINESE BOXERS

Chained to Stake With Iron Collar Round His Neck—Prodded With Sharp Sticks Until Too Weak to Stand—Molten Lead Poured Over His Body During Death Struggles.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—A Chronicle special from Victoria, B. C., says: Advice received from North China contain particulars of the awful torture inflicted on the Rev. H. V. Norman, who with Rev. C. Robinson was among the first of the American missionaries to become victims of the Boxers. A correspondent writing from Tien Tsin on July 7, says some refugees who had arrived there gathered from Chinese ghastly details of the torture inflicted on Norman.

It seems that he fell into the hands of Li, the head man of a little town hard by the little Anglican mission, where he and Robinson and their headquarters. In a quarrel between Boxers and Christians, the converts had driven off the Boxers from the missions and Li vowed vengeance. This he took in a horrible manner when Norman was thrown into his hands.

After his capture by the rioters, from whom Li took the captive, the missionary was stripped by the retinue of Li and a collar of iron fastened to his neck. A short chain was attached and he was tethered to a stake. The Chinese men, women and children then poked sharp sticks into his flesh and jabbed him with tridents. When he sank down, weak with the loss of blood and half crazed by the awful torture, and was unable to get upon his knees even, the chain being made too short, he strangled slowly. Molten lead was then thrown on his nude body and as he writhed in agony, he was stabbed to death. His body was cut to pieces.

Robinson, the other missionary, was slaughtered without being so long in agony. He was cut down by a mob and hacked to pieces almost instantly. A number of the mission converts were slaughtered. Some were asked to recant and those who did so to save their lives were saddled and bridled and forced to crawl to the temple idols.

Must Pay More for Tea. NEW YORK, July 19.—Already the troubles in China have given rise to reports of a probable increase in the price of tea and there is little reason to doubt that efforts will be made to induce tea-drinkers to pay more for their beverage than they have been doing, even if the disorder now prevailing in the northern part of China does not spread to the south, where the tea fields are.

But unless the Boxers do succeed in inducing the southern provinces to join in the anti-foreign outbreak, it does not seem probable, so many merchants say, that the tea crop of China can be seriously affected. The natives who raise tea will be just as anxious to sell it as ever, and the home market cannot consume it all, even in the most favorable circumstances.

Another reason why there should be little genuine stringency in the tea market is the fact that India and Ceylon and Japan furnish a large part of the world's tea supply, and would grow vastly larger crops than they do now, were it not for the competition of cheap China teas. Still, if this competition should be removed by the spread of anarchy and war into the tea-growing provinces of China, there is every probability that prices would advance temporarily, at least, and this would probably result in America in a large drop in the consumption of tea.

Nevertheless, for some reason or other, there has recently been a marked advance in the wholesale price of some grades of tea. Author Of It All. LONDON, July 20.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express says: "Intense indignation is felt here at the honors in Hong Kong that have been accorded to Li Hung Chang, who is looked upon in Shanghai as the originator of the whole fiendish anti-foreign plot."

"A Chinese merchant who has just arrived from Peking gives horrible details of the massacre. He says he saw European women hauled into the street by shrieking Boxers, who stripped them and hacked them to pieces. Their dismembered limbs were tossed to the crowd and carried off with howls of triumph. Some were already dead, having been shot by foreign civilians. He says he saw Chinese soldiers carrying the bodies of white children aloft on their spears while their companions shot at the bodies. He gives other details too horrible to be particularized here."

"It seems that the Boxer leaders had organized a plan, including the offering of rewards and rich loot, for the annihilation of Europeans throughout China, and that Prince Tuan's soldiers have been emphasizing the opportunity the soldiers have had of seizing the bodies of white women."

The Oregon Will Soon Return to Taku. WASHINGTON, July 19.—The navy department this morning received the following cablegram from Captain Wilde, commander of the Oregon, dated Kure, July 18th: "Secretary of Navy, Washington:—Oregon and Nashville arrived at Kure at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Expect to dock on the 19th. Shall I make permanent or temporary repairs? I would suggest putting on steel patches, which can be done in a very short time, and ship go back to her duty at Taku. To make permanent repairs it will require at least sixty days, probably more. Not a single man injured in any way. To this dispatch Secretary Long at once replied as follows: "Universal rejoicing over safety of Oregon. She is the Constitution of this generation. If safety of Oregon permits, patch and go to Taku. I commend your preference for service there."

Prevented a Tragedy. Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Stratsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

ITCHING LIMBS

And All Forms of Itching, Scaly Humors Are Instantly Relieved and Speedily Cured by CUTICURA.

The itching and burning I suffered in my feet and limbs for three years were terrible. At night they were worse and would keep me awake a greater part of the night. I consulted doctor after doctor, as I was travelling on the road most of my time, also one of our city doctors. None of the doctors knew what the trouble was. I got a lot of the different samples of the medicines I had been using. I found them of so many different kinds that I concluded that I would have to go to a Cincinnati hospital before I would get relief. I had frequently been urged to try CUTICURA REMEDIES, but I had no faith in them. My wife finally prevailed upon me to try them. Presto! What a change! I am now cured, and it is a permanent cure. I feel like kicking some doctor or myself for suffering three years when I could have used CUTICURA REMEDIES. H. JENKINS, Middleboro, Ky.

COMPLETE TREATMENT $1.25

Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP (25c.), to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA Ointment (50c.), to instantly allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT (50c.), to cool and cleanse the blood, is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring skin, scalp, and blood humors, rashes, and irritations with loss of hair when physicians, hospitals, and eruptions, for crusted, itching irritations of the scalp, with dry, thin, and falling hair, for red, rough hands, and shapeless nails, and simple infantile humors, it is absolutely indispensable.

Use only CUTICURA SOAP for baby's skin, scalp, and hair. It is not only the purest, sweetest, and most refreshing of nursery soaps, but it contains delicate, emollient properties, obtained from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, which preserve, purify, and beautify the skin, scalp, and hair, and prevent simple skin blemishes from becoming serious. For distressing head rashes, chaffs, inflammations, and eruptions, for crusted, itching irritations of the scalp, with dry, thin, and falling hair, for red, rough hands, and shapeless nails, and simple infantile humors, it is absolutely indispensable.
