Wanted to See a Wreck.

Victor, Colo., Aug. 15.—Arthur Taylor and George Featherstone, each about 9 years of age, are under arrest here charged with causing the wreck of the Midland Terminal passenger train half a mile east of Independence, and trying to wreck the Florence and Cripple Creek train from Bull Hill in the yards at Independence. In the first instance they turned a switch, sending the passenger engine crashing into some freight cars on the siding. Two passengers were injured. About $40,000 worth of property was destroyed.

They were detected and captured while making the second attempt at train-wrecking. Their excuse was that they wanted to see a real big railroad wreck.

The Fight Off.

New York, Aug. 15.—There will be no fight between the winner of the Sharkey-Fitzsimmons match and James J. Jeffries, as was originally intended. Jeffries has decided to declare this match off, as he does not think there would be any credit in defeating a man who had another hard battle in the same week. Again, the winner might not be in condition to fight. This would give Jeffries all his hard work of training for nothing. Jeffries is willing enough to fight some good man before September 1, but, it is said, he realizes that should he defeat Fitzsimmons or Sharkey his victim would claim that he was out of condition.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Blakeley's drug store. 2

Ninth Cavalry to Sail.

San Francisco, Aug. 14.—The Ninth Cavalry will sail on the transports Warren next Thursday, with a full complement of officers and men. Owing to the large number of officers who will occupy the quarters on this transport, no women will be permitted to sail, and many of the officers who had planned to take their families to China will be dissappointed.

A sergeant and forty privates of the signal corps have arrive here from Fort Meyer, Va. They will be sent to China.

Senator Ingalls Dying.

Atchison, Kas., Aug. 14.—Ex-United Senator John J. Ingalls, who is in Las Vegas, N. M., for his health, is sinking rapidly and his son, Sheffield Ingalls, today started for the bedside of his father.

A telegram from Mrs. Ingalls received here today announced the serious condition of Mr. Ingalls, who has been in the Southwest for over a year for a throat difficulty. It has been believed for three months that he was fatally ill.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverence from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley's drug store; every bottle guaranteed. 2

Paris Exposition Does Not Pay.

New York, Aug. 14.—A dispatch to the Times from Paris says:

The report that the exhibition is a failure is not borne out by facts. The entrances Sunday reached 500,000, or nearly twice the number admitted the best day of the last exhibition. The great show is a financial failure from the point of view of the administration, because the public gets too much for its money, but certainly the visitors are not disappointed.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering form cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Brookwalter, Ohio. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

Funeral of Baron Russel.

London, Aug. 14.—The funeral services of Baron Russell, of Killowen, Lord Chief Justice of England, took place at Brompton Oratory this morning in the presence of a large congregation. Father Matthew Russell, a brother of the deceased Chief Justice, celebrated low mass.

At the conclusion of the services a hearse, bearing the plain oak coffin, and six coaches containing the principal mourners, proceeded by road for Epsom, where the interment will take place.

Ex-Senator Ingalls is Dead.

Atchison, Kan., Aug. 16.—Ex-United States Senator John J. Ingalls died at East Las Vegas, N. M., at 2:25 o'clock this morning surrounded by his wife and two sons, Ellsworth and Sheffield. The news came to the Ingalls' home here in a telegram at 10 o'clock today. The funeral will be in Atchison.

Encouraging Conditions in India.

Bombay, Aug. 15.—The last of the cotton crop was sowed today. The food crops were all sowed by the first of the month. Here the crops are reported above the average. In Tonkan, in the Carnatic and in the Eastern Deccan they are promising. Elsewhere, south and north of Neerbudda, in Jugaral, Kathiawar and Baroda, the rainfall has been insufficient, and there has been but little sowing except in a few places. In the Carnatic provinces excellent rains have prevailed lately. If the monsoon continues favorable within the cultivated area crops will fall short only at Hagpur and Chattisgard.

Buried in Potter's Field.

New York, Aug. 16.—George Ferguson, who superintended the burial of some 8000 bodies in the Kings County potter's field, has himself been buried there. He was 68 years old. He died August 5, and as the authorities could find no trace of his relatives, a grave was dug for him in the place where in life he directed the burial of so many paupers.

Kurds Fired on British Consul.

London, Aug. 14.—The British foreign office has received a dispatch from Sir Nicholas O'Connor, British ambassador at Constantinople, announcing that the British consul at Van, while traveling near Elk, was fired on by Kurds, and his dragoman was wounded. The consul got his party away with difficulty, and his baggage was lost. The ambassador has lodged a strong protest with the Turkish government.

WANTED TO HUG THE CASHIER

The Relief of Two Young Women Who Were Embarrassed in a Lunchroom.

Two young women went into a downtown lunchroom one Sunday afternoon recently and ordered what for women was a very substantial repast. They had a pot of chocolate, some sweetbread croquettes, with peas and potatoes, a salad, cheese and, lastly, with a recklessness for consequences dreadful to behold, ice cream meringues.

As they slowly consumed these viands they chatted of the bargain-counter victories that had been theirs that morning, for they were on their way uptown from the busy marts of trade, says the Baltimore News.

All went well, as the novelists say, until the waiter presented their check and stood with his head respectfully bowed and his little silver tray within easy reach, waiting for the wherewithal to pay it.

"Two-ten," said the elder of the young women, consulting the figures on the check; "I wish you'd pay it dear, and when we get home we can straighten up our accounts."

"Pay it," exclaimed the younger girl in tones of consternation; "why, I haven't but 50 cents in my purse. I thought you had plenty of money with you."

"I spent it all," said the other, gloomily. "I spent everything in my purse but one English penny, a night key and a silver glove-buttoner for a foulard silk and such luxuries, but now we have lived riotously and have no money and we'll probably have to leave our hats as an earnest that we intend to come back and settle our account while we go and try to borrow funds from reluctant friends."

"I wish you'd be serious," said the younger girl, hysterically; "the cashier's looking."

"I'm more than serious; I'm positively frantic. The cashier probably thinks we're bunko people and will send for a policeman to carry us off. I wish we hadn't eaten everything; it would have looked better if we had left a little piece of cheese or one croquette," and both the young women laughed half-heartedly to deceive the cashier and the waiter into believing their plethoric purses contained money and not samples.

Then they discussed the situation nervously in whispers and finally, as a last resort, determined to take the cashier into their confidence.

He proved a very amiable person indeed, when approached. "Just give me your address," he said, reassuringly, "and stop in and pay the account some other time."

"I'm glad I didn't hug him," the younger girl remarked, as they emerged from the building. "I thought I would for one wild moment, but he mightn't have liked it. I think, however, I never met so fascinating a man in my life."

"He wouldn't have liked it," said her companion, tersely. "Let's go to the drug store and get something for our nerves with your 50 cents. I never was so upset in my life."
