HIS CREDITORS SATISFIED.

Paul Mohr Agrees to Raise $200,000 in Ninety Days.

According to the Telegram Paul Mohr promises to raise $200,000 with which to pay his creditors their dues and resume work on the portage road at the dalles within ninety days. This promise was made at the creditors' meeting held in stations named below to The Dalles, for the chamber of commerce building in October 9th to 13th, inclusive: Portland yesterday. All the creditors present agreed to give Mr. Mohr the time he stipulated for raising the money. The representations he made to them seemed to satisfy them that the money would be forthcoming. His confident manner, together with facts which he submitted, seemed sufficient proof that he will succeed in raising the amount.

It is understood the money will be furnished by New York parties. The deal is now being negotiated. Representatives of these capitalists, who, it is thought, may be identified with the Northern Pacific, have been looking the property over and are reported as being estisfied. Several creditors were seen and they said they did not have an idea of where Mr. Mohr expected to get the money and did not care if it came from the North Pole, so long as it was raised. What they are most interested in is being said for the material and labor furnished by them towards the road's construction.

If the negotiations are successful and it turns out that the purchaser is the Northern Pacific, it will be good evidence that that road purposes to build Ill. down the north bank of the Columbia. In that event the road would be a link in a railway line, instead of a steamboat line as originally intended. However, speculation regarding the future of the road is premature, as all depends upon the successful issue of the negotiations charges. now under way.

EDITOR DALLES CHRONICLE:

DEAR SIR :- In your paper of the 3d inst. appears my reply as quoted by the Portland Oregonian regarding the statement of J. S. Rhoades written to said paper from Spokane, when in reality J. S. Rhoades' home is at Huntsville, and he is pastor of the U. B. church at that

I want to thank you for the stand you took in this matter in waiting to hear the other side as well. It is a fact that whenever a report is circulated on a minister of the gospel, no matter how false, there are always people ready to believe it, and to some it is a sweet morsel. And this also holds good with some newspapers. I may state here that the Oregonian did not publish my reply in full. However, I am ready to
