

MEN WHO HAVE DESERTED BRYAN FOR MCKINLEY

General E. M. Kossor, Virginia, ex-confederate. Sound money.
Ex-Mayor Abram S. Hewitt, of New York, formerly Congressman. Wants stable money system.
Melville E. Ingalls, President "Big Four" Railroad. Wants a continuance of prosperity and sound money.
William R. Grace, ex-l'aylor of New York, one of the leading merchants of America. Sound money and expansion.
Charles S. Fairchild, New York, ex-Secretary of the Treasury under President Cleveland. For sound money.
General Daniel E. Sickles, soldier, ex-Congressman, New York. "The flag now floats, and will never cease to float, over the islands in the Atlantic and Pacific. No man will ever see it come down."

Judge W. B. Hornblower, the eminent attorney, New York. Nominated for Supreme Court bench of the United States by President Cleveland. Afraid of Bryanism in all its branches.
James M. Beck, United States District Attorney of Pennsylvania—A man is of that party with which he sympathizes, whatever he may call himself. If, therefore, one believes in free silver and in hauling down the American flag in the Philippines, he is a Democrat; but if he believes in honest money and in the supremacy of the flag in our territorial possessions, he is a Republican. Between these I had no hesitation in choosing. I am no longer a Democrat; I am a Republican.
William T. Baker, leading business man, ex-President of Board of Trade, Chicago. Prosperity, sound money, and believes in supporting the administration.
General E. S. Bragg, Wisconsin. No use for Bryanism.

General John Gill, of Baltimore, Md., president of the Mercantile Trust and Deposit company, and a well-known Democrat in that section. "How can sound money Democrats and reputable citizens join in supporting this candidate (Bryan)?"
Alonso B. Colt, business man and late Colonel Fourth Ohio, which participated in the Porto Rico campaign. "The flag will never be hauled down at dictation from foreign or domestic foes, nor will its protection be removed, if needed, by a man or woman, white, black or yellow, over whom it floats."
Ex-Mayor E. S. Pond of San Francisco. Democratic candidate for Governor of California, 1890. Sound money and expansion.
Roswell Miller, chairman of the board of directors, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad. "If Bryan were elected there would be woful times in this country."

General reasons for non-support of Bryan by the above named are opposition to his populist tendencies and his anti-expansion ideas.

Bushrode Wilcox, German Democratic Farmer, Pana, Ill. I have never voted the Republican ticket in my life, but with my four sons, who have always been Democrats, I will vote for McKinley this fall.
William Bowerdock, cattle shipper, Christian County, Illinois. I have renounced Bryanism and the Democratic party and intend to take the stump for the whole Republican ticket.
Owen Scott, Decatur, Ill., ex-Democratic Congressman, Bloomington District. I supported General Palmer four years ago, but as a Gold Democrat. The only course open to me this year is to vote for McKinley.
Editor Donald of the Volksblatt, rock island, Ill. I have been a Democrat for years and worked hard for Bryan in 1896. I was one of the speakers at the pro-Boer mass meeting in Chicago last spring. I have given the questions involved in this campaign careful thought and will support McKinley and the whole Republican ticket.
Dr. Jules Kohl, prominent surgeon, ex-member State Board of Health under Altgeld, St. Clair County, Illinois. I am opposed to 16 to 1 and the cry about militarism.
George Crosby, Belleville, Ill., farmer. I am opposed to the socialistic tendencies of the Democratic party.
Louis Kowitz, T. Busttner, Conrad Witte, Ralph Martin, all of Chicago and all German Democrats. We are for McKinley because he is opposed to 16 to 1.
Carl Zwanzig, owner of the Volks Blatt, Ottawa, Ill. I am in favor of expansion.
Judge George W. Wall, Duquoin, Ill., former Judge of the Appellate Court of the Third Judicial District, and two sons. We cannot stand for the money plank of Bryanism.
William E. Murphy, Pinckneyville, Ill., ex-State Senator, former Internal-revenue collector, Cairo District, under Cleveland. I am opposed to the money plank of the Democratic platform.
Marshall J. Browning, Sparta, Ill., coal operator. The money plank of Bryanism is not to my belief.
James E. Miller, Lincoln, Ill., prominent lawyer. I am bitterly against free silver and strongly in favor of the continuance of the McKinley administration.
Edward Wiliamey, Kansas, Edgar County, Ill., prominent Jewish merchant. I am against free silver, race favoritism in the gubernatorial campaign, and for McKinley's protective administration.
W. L. Mitchell, Chicago, Ill., map publisher. I have voted for nine Democratic Presidential candidates, but cannot vote for Bryanism, anarchism, socialism, Populism or 16 to 1.
R. V. Helm, Murdock, Ill. I voted for Bryan in 1896, but Democracy no longer has any charms for me.
Dek Damon, Hancock County, Illinois, stock dealer. It is better to be a patriot than a partisan, and I can no longer follow the precepts of a party that always goes "agin" the government. McKinley's foreign policy is the correct one, and I, with my two sons, will vote for him.
C. P. Elders, Cartersville, Ill. I voted for Bryan in 1896, but am against him now, and have accepted the presidency of the McKinley-Yates Club at Cartersville.
Patrick J. White, Pana, Ill., prominent Irish-American. I never voted the Republican ticket in my life, neither did my father, but this time the whole family, consisting of four sons, my father and myself, will vote the straight Republican ticket from top to bottom.
Charles Fowler, Watska, Ill., life-long Democrat and four years ago a Palmer man. I have always been a Democrat, but I want good, honest money, the stars and stripes to be maintained, the wheels of prosperity to keep whirling round, and our laboring classes to have plenty of work; with my whole family, I am therefore for McKinley.

WYOMING VOTERS WHO HAVE RETURNED TO MCKINLEY

- Hon. J. M. Wilson, Sheep Business, Douglas, Wyo
- Hon. Timothy Kinney, Prosperity, Rock Springs, Wyo
- Hon. Melvin Nichols, (Supported Bryan on Silver Issue, was formerly a Republican), Sundance, Wyo
- Hon. A. D. Chamberlain, Prosperity, Douglas, Wyo
- Hon. John Beckwith, Prosperity, Evanston, Wyo
- Hon. Silas Guthrie, Sheep Business, Moorcroft, Wyo
- William Daley, Prosperity, Rawlins, Wyo
- Thomas Painter, Prosperity, Evanston, Wyo
- A. M. Hance, Sheep Business, Lander, Wyo
- Hon. John McDermott, Sheep Business, Glendo, Wyo
- A. W. Phillips, Prosperity, Douglas, Wyo
- Hon. D. A. Kingsbury, Prosperity, Buffalo, Wyo
- Thomas Reed, Prosperity, Cheyenne, Wyo
- W. W. Crook, M. D., Prosperity, Cheyenne, Wyo
- John Cahill, Prosperity, Cheyenne, Wyo
- Frank Bon, Prosperity, Cheyenne, Wyo

S. S. Harper, Philadelphia, Pa., manager of the Bed Rock Dredging Co. Bryan's election would unsettle business.
A. R. Haughawout, Webb City, Mo. Sound money.
John T. Grow, prominent attorney, New York. "I shall not support William J. Bryan this Presidential year, nor can I in any respect sustain the declaration of anti-imperialism, anti-expansion and anti-militarism, contained in the Bryan Kansas City Democratic platform; they are bogies to frighten the timid voters."
George W. Rutherford, Populist, Salem, Ill. Is convinced that America does not need 45-cent dollars.
Col. M. M. Price, Populist, Woonsocket, S. D. Prosperity.
Frank Kimler, Leroy, Ill., a life-long Democrat. Prosperity and national honor.
Thomas M. Smith, grain and implement dealer, Kimmunity, Ill. McKinley's election is for the best interests of the people.
General Ferdinand C. Latrobe, old-line Democrat, Baltimore, Md. Served several terms as Mayor of the city. No use for Bryanism.
Gustav H. Schwab, agent North German Lloyd Steamship Company, New York. Sound money.
Judge E. P. Wheeler, New York. Sound money.
Judge W. H. Peckham, New York. Sound money.
Henry Apthorp, Ashtabula, O., and formerly Democratic railroad commissioner and member of the Ohio legislature. Cannot stand the Kansas City platform. Resigned as a Democratic member of the railroad board.

John W. Bryan, Populist and farmer, Waco, Mo., a distant relative of William Jennings Bryan. Prosperity.
John Barkley, Populist, Smithfield, Mo. Expansion.
W. W. McDowell, Populist, Smithfield, Mo. Expansion.
John Lochin, road commissioner, Carl Junction, Mo. Prosperity.
Judge J. F. de Mattos, New Whatcom, Wash., formerly Mayor and member of the legislature. Expansion and prosperity.
L. J. Cullinan, Michigan. All of Mr. Bryan's predictions of 1896 were false. He has opened a second battle on prosperity.
Gundlach family, about 30 votes, Belleville, Ill.
Samuel Brown, farmer, Old Ripley Township, Bond County, Ill. Prosperity.
Richard A. Montgomery, a prominent attorney of Lansing, Mich., has come over to the Republican party since four years ago, and was a delegate to the Michigan state convention.
Hon. Allen B. Morse, of Ionia, Mich., who was a Gold-Democrat in '96, is an out-and-out McKinley man now and will make speeches for McKinley during the campaign. Morse was formerly Chief Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, having been elected as a Democrat, and in 1892 was the Democratic candidate for Governor.
Charles H. O'Donald, of Clare, Mich., a prominent shingle manufacturer, supported Bryan four years ago, but now says that the Republicans have demonstrated the truth of their claims in 1896, and that he wants no change; so will vote for McKinley.
Captain John W. Toler, Carbondale, Ill., postmaster under President Cleveland.
B. A. Jamison, of Senamont, Md., Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fifth Maryland District in 1896. "Bryan's evasion of the money question convinces me that either he has ceased to believe in 16 to 1, or else is afraid to preach that doctrine because of the belief that it would hurt his chances of election. My confidence in him as a leader and as a sincere man is gone."
Hon. T. C. Early, prominent lawyer and old-line Democrat, Cripple Creek, Colo. "President McKinley's eminent services as a soldier, statesman and President of the United States commend him most favorably to the people and a change would create panic and work disaster."
S. S. Blum, merchant, Deadwood, S. D. "I voted for Bryan in 1896. He made us believe this free silver remedy was the proper thing for the bad times. Well, we have had splendid times since McKinley was elected, and I have come to believe that Mr. Bryan is an unscrupulous politician, ambitious for his personal ends and nothing else."
General W. H. Hardin, Owensboro, Ky. Will support the Republican candidate for Governor, Goebbell.
John A. Gillespie, farmer, Keyesport, Ill. Prosperity.
Joseph Morwitz, president of the German Democrat Publishing Company, of Philadelphia. "From the information I have been able to obtain as to the attitude of the German Americans in New York, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis, all centers in which not only their votes, but their influence will be very strong and possibly decisive, I believe that it is overwhelmingly against Bryan."
O. W. Strippling, a dry goods merchant of Fort Worth, Tex. "Bryan is pledged to free silver, but nobody in our country believes he will touch it, and few want it."
Judge W. W. Gatewood, Carlsbad, N. M. Favors expansion. Imperialism is a bug-a-boo. Wants sound money.
Colonel Gentry, member of the staff of the Democratic Governor of Kentucky. McKinley's administration has been a success.
