

SET ASIDE FOR THANKSGIVING

Thursday, November 29, Designated as the Day On Which a Nation Shall Give Thanks for God's Goodness and Eat Turkey.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The state department today issued the following: By the President of the United States of America: A proclamation: "It has pleased the Almighty God to bring our Nation in safety and honor through another year. The works of religion and charity have everywhere been manifest. Our country, through all its extent, has been blessed with abundant harvests. Labor and the great industries of the people have prospered beyond all precedent. Our commerce has spread over the world. Our power and influence in the cause of freedom and enlightenment have extended over distant seas and lands. The lives of our official representatives and many of our people in China have been mercifully preserved. We have been generally exempt from pestilence and other great calamities, and even the tragic visitation which overwhelmed the city of Galveston made evident the sentiments of sympathy and Christian charity by virtue of which we are one united people.

"Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, president of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th of November next, to be observed by all the people of the United States, at home or abroad, as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to Him who holds the Nations in the hollow of His hand. I recommend that they gather in their several places of worship and devoutly give Him thanks for the prosperity wherewith He has endowed us, for seed-time and harvest, for the valor, devotion and humanity of our armies and navies, and for all His benefits to us as individuals and as a nation; and that they humbly pray for the continuance of His divine favor, for concord and amity with other nations, and for righteousness and peace in all our ways.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"WM. MCKINLEY." Ambitions of Germany. NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Any attempt on the part of Germany to establish a coaling station in territory of Venezuela will be opposed by the United States, says a Washington special to the Herald. Such action would be in violation of the principles of the Monroe doctrine. A cable dispatch from Port au Spain has been received conveying a rumor that the Venezuelan government is considering the advisability of leasing to Germany a port on the island of Margarita, and it has attracted much attention.

Germany is anxious to acquire sites for coaling stations in the western hemisphere. It has been frequently reported that she was endeavoring to establish a coaling station on the Brazilian coast, but no negotiations have been entered into. Naval officers say that Germany could have only one object in establishing a naval station in the western hemisphere—to prepare for hostilities against the United States. The United States is the only power whose competition the Berlin government fears. When this government would not permit the acquisition of the Danish West Indies by any European state, reports were circulated that Germany was endeavoring to establish a coaling station at Santa Catharina, Brazil. These reports were not confirmed.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering. "Suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Hallowsay, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all those who suffer as I have." For sale by Blakeley druggist.

Banks Weeding out the Sporty Employees NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Since the announcement of the embezzlement of Note Teller Alvord, of the First National Bank, there have been many stories of new and rigid espionage by banking houses over their clerks. One of these stories concerns the German Savings bank. It was reported last night that five of the clerks of that institution have been discharged because detectives discovered that they were associates of gamblers. Three of them are said to have had an interest in a bookmaking firm that does business at the local race tracks.

The story recites that detectives were placed on the trail of all of the clerks in the bank, and that the five in question were the only ones about whom anything suspicious could be learned. It was not said that the clerks had stolen anything or that they contemplated any wrongdoing, but the information is to the effect that the officers of the bank deemed it best to get rid of them.

Treachery of the Hoars.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The war office has the following from Roberts, dated Pretoria, October 28: "Knox successfully engaged Dewet October 27. During the Boer retreat Knox caught Dewet in the Rensburg drift. The Boers lost considerably and left two guns and three wagons in Knox's hands. Another ammunition wagon was blown up by a shell. The British casualties were nil."

Referring to the Jacobdal affair, Lord Roberts says it was due to the treachery of the inhabitants, who admitted the Boers to their houses at night. They opened fire at daybreak. Fourteen men were killed and thirteen were wounded, mostly Cape Highlanders. Troops dispatched from the Modder river drove off the Boers. The houses of the treacherous inhabitants were destroyed. Commandant Bosman was killed.

Lord Roberts calls attention to the "increasing inclination of the better class of Boers to co-operate with the British to secure peace," since they find that guerrilla warfare is "visited with heavy punishment."

Exclusion Law Must Be Renewed in 1902 NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The Chinese exclusion act will expire in 1902. Unless we are on the alert, Chinamen will pour in among us and the country will be filled with cheap Chinese labor.

Chairman James Maguire, of the Central Labor Union, made this announcement before a meeting of that body. His remarks created a sensation. "I wish to give this timely warning," continued the chairman, "so that laboring men and women throughout the United States shall take measures to have another exclusion bill passed. Visit your congressman and see how he stands on the question. Put him on record."

The meeting resolved to call the attention of all trades to the exclusion act. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Great Favorite. The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidentially to a baby as to an adult. Alvord Arrested in Boston. BOSTON, Oct. 29.—Cornelius J. Alvord, Jr., the embezzling note teller of the First National Bank, New York, was arrested at the South End today. Alvord took his arrest quietly. He arrived in Boston last week and went to the Hotel Touraine, but did not register. On Wednesday he engaged a back room on the second floor of a lodging-house on Huntington avenue, near West Newton street, where he went under the name of Mr. Smith, of New York.

Glorious News. Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion and builds up the strength. Only 60 cents. Sold by Blakeley Druggist. Guaranteed.

For Piazza Visitors. A suitable refreshment to offer to the visitors who are glad to rest on the piazza from the journey out of town is iced tea or lemonade or a saucer of strawberries. If you provide strawberries, remember to leave the hulls on. It is considered desirable to serve them that way, because it indicates that the fruit has not received any unnecessary handling. Use the hull of the strawberry as a little handle by which to lift it from the saucer and dip it in the pile of soft white sugar heaped in one corner of the plate. Use the pulverized fruit sugar, a mere powder, for the strawberries. Have a plate of lady fingers or rice flour plunkets ready to offer with the fruit.—Detroit Free Press.

A Life And Death Fight. Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley Drug Store.

In Shakespeare's name lies the key to a wonderful cryptogram. The spelling "Shakespeare" was the poet's name de-plume, while "Shakespeare" was his name, an evident change from "Shakespeare." In each of the two spellings last given are ten letters—four vowels and six consonants. Combine these two figures and we have the number 46, the key to the mystery. Turning to the 46th psalm in the revised version, it is found that the psalm is divided into three portions, each one ending with "selah." Remember the number—46. Counting forty-six words from the beginning of the psalm, one reads the word "shake" in the first portion, and counting forty-six words from the end of the psalm one reaches the word "spear." There is "Shakespeare" as plainly as letters can make it.

During the last two or three nights a number of drunken Indians have been making night hideous in the neighborhood of their camp at the head of the old brewery grade. Night before last they kept their drunken orgies up after midnight, and their yells and whoops would have waked the dead had there been any in the neighborhood. At twilight yesterday a drunken hunk, frenzied with alcohol, cleaned out the Indian camp and drove the squaws and papooses to the shelter of the rocks. When the drunken savage had spent his fury he returned to camp and fell in the fire, where he lay helpless till pulled out by some of the Indians. Who sells these savages the liquor that makes them a terror? Is there no way of ridding a quiet and respectable community of their presence?

The faithfulness of a dumb brute was never better illustrated than by an incident observed by many people Sunday, says an Olympian paper. Early that morning a man went into Bettman's store and taking off his rubbers bought a new pair. The old ones he threw down near the front door of the store and wore the new ones away. He was accompanied by a handsome water-spaniel that remained at all times near his master. Shortly after the dog and the man left the store the dog came back, having evidently lost his master. Spying the rubbers on the floor the dog stretched himself beside them. When it came time to close the store the dog could not be coaxed away from the rubbers, and it was necessary to put them outside the door to get the spaniel out. This was about noon, and from that time until 7 o'clock yesterday morning the faithful animal lay alongside the rubbers, the cold rain beating upon him. The clerks in the store endeavored to coax the dog away to feed him, but it was useless, he would not leave what he supposed his owner would return for. It is thought when he did leave, it was only when his master came for him.
