PROPOSES TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

Will Pay an Indemnity of $40,000,000 and Imprison Prince Tuan for Life.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—"The Chinese plenipotentiaries opened negotiations," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express, "by proposing that China should pay an indemnity of £40,000,000 in sixty installments, agreeing that the Likin and the customs service should be under foreign control until the obligation should be discharged.

"They also agreed that Prince Tuan should be imprisoned for life, that Tien Tsin should be treated as an international district and that other places should be opened to foreign trade.

China undertakes to abstain from purchasing war material abroad. In order to raise the indemnity she proposes to double import duties."

PEKING, Sunday, Oct. 28.—A meeting of the diplomatists was held this morning to consider the form of the negotiations for a settlement of the China difficulties. The decision arrived at is kept secret in order to prevent any information reaching the Chinese.

Status of the Porto Ricans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The application of Frank Juarbe, a Porto Rican, for a peremptory writ of mandamus directing the board of registry to register him as a voter, on the ground that he became an American citizen by virtue of the cession of Porto Rico to Spain to the United States, has been denied by Justice Friedman, in the supreme court.

Justice Friedman, in his decision says that the treaties taking over the island of Porto Rico did not make the inhabitants of the territory citizens of the United States but, on the contrary, left the determination of their civil rights and their political status of the future action of congress, which has not yet acted.

Yakima Valley Apples.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Oct. 30.—The winter apple crop of Yakima valley is being harvested and placed on the market. Buyers are paying 2 cents a pound, or equivalent to $1 a box for the choice red Spitzenburgs. It is estimated that at least 40,000 boxes will be marketed this year. The crop is larger and the specimens better than in 1899. This is said to be due to the concerted efforts in spraying and the care being taken of all orchards, in pruning, cultivating and irrigating the trees. The orchards area planted to apple trees alone in this valley is placed at 3000 acres, of which a large portion is in bearing.

Cleveland's True Democracy.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—A special to the Record from Princeton, N. J., says: Ex-President Grover Cleveland has sent the following letter to Don M. Dickinson, his former postmaster-general:

"Princeton, N. J., Oct. 29, 1900.—The Hon. Don M. Dickinson. My Dear Sir: The speech I made at the Reform Club dinner in April, 1897, is a part of my record in advocacy of the true democracy. I cannot suppress it or abate from it, and I would not if I could. I shall not object to any use you see fit to make of it. Yours sincerely,

"Grover Cleveland."

In his speech at the Reform Club dinner on April 24, 1897, Mr. Cleveland condemned the course of those who were sowing the seeds of discontent and cultivating a growth of sectional and class suspicion and distrust. He also regretted to see the remedy for supposed financial ills proposed in the free coinage of silver, with a depreciated currency and cheap money.

Will Not Strip Naked.

VICTOR, Colo., Nov. 1.—The executive board of the Victor Miners' Union was in session for five hours last night with Manager Shipman and Assistant Manager Grant, of the Independence mine, discussing the strike of the Independence miners on account of the recent personal search order of the mine management. It was announced that all difficulties had been settled, and Mr. Grant states that the 3 o'clock shift will go on as usual today. The men will strip to their underclothing, and if any are suspected of stealing ore they will be searched by some of their comrades under the eye of a watchman.

Another feature of the agreement is that the mine management will give preference to members of the union wherever possible. The 300 men affected by the strike have been out five days.

Union of Scotch Churches.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 31.—The formal union of the Free and United Presbyterian churches, decided upon yesterday at the joint meeting here of the Free Church Assembly and the United Presbyterian Synod, who consummated today. The members marched from the respective halls to Waverly Market and held the first meeting of the United Free Church of Scotland. Large crowds witnessed the procession. The Rev. Albert Robert Rainey, D. D., was chosen moderator of the United Free Church.

The scene at Waverly Market was striking, though marred by rain. Some 3000 ministers took part in the procession, and dense crowds along the route cheered them repeatedly. The hall where the uniting act was signed was draped with crimson and yellow, and liberally bedecked with flags used by covenanters. The Earl of Aberdeen, Dr. Parker, the Rev. John Watson (Ian McLaren) and delegates from Canada, Australia, Jamaica, Africa, France and elsewhere participated. The small minority which opposed the union met in a separate hall today and constituted themselves a Free Church Assembly.

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

HOW ARE YOU GOING TO VOTE?

Remarkable Letter of an American Workingman on the Paramount Issues.

[The American Economist.]

Fellow Workmen! How Are You Going to Vote?

I do not suppose for a minute that any intelligent laboring man is going to throw away his vote on any candidate who cannot get a single electoral vote. Either Bryan or McKinley will be elected and a vote for any one else is not only a vote lost, but a vote against the man who will be elected.

You have read the platforms of both parties and the letters of acceptance of both candidates. You have read some of the pamphlets sent out by the committees. You have read and heard some of the speeches of Mr. Bryan, Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Hill and others. Now I want you to read and think over just a few sentences of plain talk from a workingman.

I have made up my mind how I am going to vote and I want to ask you to vote the same way.

I am not an orator nor a scholar. I cannot make a speech nor write a magazine article. I am just an ordinary everyday workingman with intelligence enough to have a little common sense and tell it to others. I am not writing this for pay. It will probably cost me a week's wages to get a few thousand printed. Then if Mr. Croker or Mr. Hanna want to circulate it they are welcome to it.

Now as to what I am, how I am going to vote and why.

I am a workingman with a wife and four children. Eight years ago, in 1892, I was doing fairly well, and my older boys were both at school. I voted, as did all good democrats, for Grover Cleveland. In less than six weeks after election, just before Christmas, I lost my job. I could not get another. Things went from bad to worse. The boys left school and tried to earn a little money.

We never got in the bum line at Madison Square, but we did sometimes get near the bread line at Tenth street. I could not tell you all the hardships of those four years. Always behind in the rent and half the time without anything to eat. The wife worked hard and the boys and I did anything to earn a dollar. It seemed sometimes as if we must give up, but the patient hopeful wife would say: "Cheer up, old man, you will get work soon and then we will be on our feet again."

My men, have you got a good faithful wife? Have your children got a good, patient mother? Then you know what kept us from absolute despair?

Well, 1896 came and another election. With thousands of other democrats I voted for McKinley and hoped for a change. In less than a month I got a job, and have had work constantly these four years. The boys soon went back to school. I am now getting $18 a week. One of my boys entered college last month; another went to a preparatory school and will enter college two years from now—if I do not lose my job. My wife and I have plenty to eat and wear and we are happy, oh, so happy, to see our boys growing to be educated men.

Fellow workmen! Do I need to tell you how I am going to vote?

I don't exactly understand this question of Imperialism, except that I am for the Stars and Stripes, and I do not believe anybody can or wants to make this country an empire.

I know little about the money question, except that when I earn a dollar I want 100 cents, and when I put a little money in the bank I want to be sure of taking out as much as I put in, with a little interest.

I don't know much about the Tariff, except that Free-Trade would throw me and thousands of others out of a job, with no chance to get another.

I don't know much about Government by Injunction, the Consent of the Governed, Initiative and Referendum, etc., except that I believe in law and order and good judges and honest courts.

I don't know much about the Income Tax or Municipal Ownership or the Franchise Law. The boys will know all about these questions and I'll leave everything for them to settle.

ALL THE POWERS HAVE AGREED

Will Maintain the "Open Door" in China and Protect the Integrity of the Empire.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The alignment of the powers on the British-German agreement is now complete. Aside from Italy and Austria, whose adherence to the agreement was expected owing to their political relations with Germany, Japan is the only one of the powers which has given unconditional assent to the agreement.

As the matter now stands, five of the powers are united in all the terms of the agreement, viz: Great Britain, Germany, Italy, Austria and Japan; three of the powers, United States, France and Russia, accept the clauses relating to the open door and the territorial integrity of China, but withhold action on the third clause, relating to further procedure in case any power seizes territory.

Neither the state department nor the Russian Embassy has received information of Russia's answer although the Associated Press, in its London dispatch, announced that the reply had been received at the British foreign office, Oct. 30, and had unreservedly accepted the first two clauses. In regard to the third clause, Russia referred two contracting parties to the Russian circular of April 25th, saying that she would modify her attitude according to circumstances.

The effect of the exchange has been in bringing five of the powers to an agreement to respect the "open door," and the integrity of China, and to consult among themselves as to a future course in case any of the other powers sought to take Chinese territory. These "other powers," as the negotiations have now been shaped, are the United States, France and Russia. As to the United States there is no possibility of an initiative in taking territory, so that the terms of the third clause would appeal to France and Russia and would bring about concurrent action of the five powers in case either of these sought to extend their domain in China.

Said to Have Secret Agreement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The London correspondent of the Tageblatt, says a Berlin dispatch to the Herald, learns from a source which he cannot disregard that the Anglo-German agreement does actually contain a secret arrangement which has been added to article three. This refers to China and Africa. The paragraph regarding China could be published without causing any difficulties, but on account of the paragraph regarding Africa this is not possible for the moment.

BREITENBURG, Nov. 1.—The Reichsanzeiger today officially and definitely denies there are any secret adjuncts to the latest Anglo-German compact. The paper says there is no agreement whatever beyond the note, the full text of which was published October 20th.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain occasionally in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters'; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Blakeley's drug store.

France in Serious Trouble.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The outlook for social and political disturbances in France is becoming graver every day, says a Paris dispatch to the Times. In the north 100,000 miners are on a strike and the recent socialistic talk from members of the government seems to have encouraged a violent and revolutionary spirit. Moreover, the Catholics are becoming very bitter at the declared intention of the government to close official careers to all who have been educated in religious institutions.

The Catholic press is very bitter and the clergy are making common cause with the other enemies of the government. Only the fact that the government controls the church's funds prevents the clergy from expressing their opinion vigorously on the matter.

Homes Carried Secret to His Grave.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—While workmen were clearing up a cellar formerly occu-pled by the late Dr. Thomas S. Holmes, who had a drug store in Brooklyn, they came across a box securely fastened, which was found to contain the petrified head and trunk of a girl about 12 years old. The police made an investigation and became satisfied that the skeleton was the property of Dr. Holmes, who, it is said, experimented with an embalming process, which he had used during the Civil war, and the secret of which he died without revealing. It was Dr. Holmes' boast that he had discovered a process of embalming that would ossify bodies. He was at work on the process when he died.

During the war, Dr. Holmes embalmed the bodies of many soldiers. He also embalmed the body of President Lincoln.

Booth to Take Charge of American Army

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—General William Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, is coming here next September to take practically the control of the Salvation Army in the United States for at least six months. This announcement was made last night by Commander Booth-Tucker, who arrived here from England on the steamer Teutonic. He went there early in October to invite the General to come over and assist in the solution of the problems which the Salvation Army is endeavoring to solve.

One of the chief problems, he said, was that of organizing and maintaining the farm colonies which the Army is establishing in some of the states.

"The Army, which has the power under its charter to issue bonds," the commander said, "may issue bonds to the amount of $150,000 to put the colonies on a firm basis. It has been said that the poor in the cities do not want to go into the country to live. They do want to go into the country. I have 5000 more applications for homes in our colonies than I can grant. General Booth is a great organizer and will be able to aid us in a satisfactory solution of the problems."

When asked as to the rumor that he was to be transferred to some other command, Commander Booth-Tucker said he knew nothing of it.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by G. V. Blakeley, the druggist.

Boers Captured Ninety British.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 1.—It transpired today that a Boer commando captured a British outpost of ninety men in the vicinity of Geneva October 25th, and afterwards held up a Cape Town mail train, looted the carriages and passengers, destroyed the mails, set fire to the train and decamped on the approach of an armored train. Not wishing to be hampered, the Boers later released the prisoners they had captured.
