HAVE NO KICK COMING.

Outside the professional politicians, office holders and ultra-rabid newspaper men, the rank and file of the except silver. democrats accept the results of the election with great complacency if not with positive and ill concealed pleasure. With these latter there is no grumbling, no expression of regret, no lugubrious prophecies of impending woes. They have taken their medicine and taken it with a grace that says as piain as words can say it that if it isn't sweet at least it isn't very bitter. Nor is this to be wondered at.

Of the millions who voted for Bryan there must have been hundreds who secretly hoped he would be them for they knew that congress controlled the army and the people controlled congress. The trusts did not incite their partisanship for they knew they were a business proposition, and that men put their money in them purely in the hope of gain and without respect to their political affiliations. If the democratic wageearner asked, "Wherein are the trusts injuring me?" the only answer was the echo of his own voice. He knew that there was plenty of employment for every man who was willing and able to work, and at the highest average wages ever paid to labor. If household expenses have increased be knew the increase was largely in domain or control of the trusts. He remembered, perhaps bitterly, that Bryan.

ended at the ballot box. Nay, erating into a farce. Bryan's defeat was the discharge of a nightmare. This estimate does not reckon Kyle of South Dakota among the republicans, although he was elected as such and after turning independent is again regarded as being in line 22 00 with the republicans on all questions; nor Wellington of Maryland, who was also elected as a republican but is bitterly anti-McKinley and antiexpansion, nor Jones and Stewart of Nevada, who are in line with the republicans on all important questions

"When Bryan was beaten four years ago," said a Wasco county rancher who has been an active and aggressive populist since the inception of that party, "I fully believed that wholesale bribery had been used. I thought the masses of the people were for kim and could conceive of his defeat in no other way than by wholesale corruption. And I kept thinking that way till the ballots were counted this last time, when I was compelled to change my mind. If we ever had a fair and of thousands, North as well as South, honest national election this last one was that election. It has snowed snowed under. They had no use Bryan under worse than before so for his free silver fad and secretly that every candid man must admit laughed at his imperialistic bogey- that the American people want man. Militarism had no terrors for neither him nor his political theories." Said another rancher who has a similar record as a populist: "The democrats lied to us and deceived us up to the last moment. I never remember anything like it. Bryan was to sweep the country from Maine to California. The Germans were all for Bryan, so were the Irish, so was the labor vote; when they must have known that they were lying like Ananias. I shall never vote the democratic ticket in my life again."
