Thomas Burnette, who is managing the affairs of the Oregon Orchard Tract Company at Round Prairie, is in the city today. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Craig, of Portland, returned home this morning after a brief visit at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hiltman.

George Sheridan and Joseph Murphy left this morning for points in Montana where they will remain indefinitely. They expect to visit at Butte and other cities of interest.

Mrs. Walter Leonard and child returned to their home at Garfield, Washington, this morning after spending some time visiting at the home of the former's parents at Edgewater.

D. J. Jarvis and Arthur Cloake have opened up a clothing store in the Rapp building on Sheridan street. Both gentlemen are well and favorably known in this vicinity and they no doubt will receive a liberal patronage.

Mrs. Edward Singleton, accompanied by her daughter, left for Ashland this morning in response to a telegram announcing the death of her sister's husband which occurred last night. She will not return home until after the funeral which takes place Monday.

Booster Colt of the Roseburg Commercial Club has received a letter from the M. J. Walsh Company, of Portland, to whom the contract for the decorative lighting posts was awarded several months ago.

The substance of which is to the effect that the posts will be forthcoming without further delay. As soon as they arrive they will be installed and the wires connected.

A recent arrival in this section from Grand Rapids, Michigan, by the name of Hopkins has purchased the McWilliams farm, situated about three miles east of the city on Deer Creek. The tract contains in its neighborhood of 160 acres, and is considered one of the best farms in the county.

The new owner will set the entire tract out to fruit, expecting to engage in the cultivation of commercial fruit.

G. W. Jones, a local carpenter, who recently loaned the Henry Diston & Sons Saw Company, a saw which he had in his possession for forty-five years, for exhibit purposes at the Seattle Fair, received a letter from the company this morning, the contents of which is to the effect that the Diston Company are sending him a new saw with his name staked on it. The old saw was also returned with the thanks of the company attached.

LOCAL NEWS.

D. C. and M. E. Wiley, of Camas Valley, are in the city today. George Bollenbaugh, of Canyonville, is a visitor in the city today.

S. Tolladay, of Oakland, transacted business matters in the city today. L. L. and B. S. Adams, both residents of Elkton, are in the city today.

Attorney O. P. Coshow is at Sutherlin today attending to business matters. Nat Fisher, a son-in-law of W. B. Moore, the liveryman, is conducting the dry line formerly owned by John Millen.

Wm. Vinson and wife have returned from their home at Sutherlin, situated about twenty-five miles east of the city on Deer Creek. D. S. Adams and mother, of Elkton, are visitors in the city for a day or two.

This is Mrs. Adams' first visit to Roseburg since she located in the county. Charles H. Chauncey, a brother of George H. Chauncey, the individual who alleges to be the only surviving heir of the late Aaron Rose, is ill at the Harrington house with a slight attack of heart trouble.

Dr. Housh is attending the patient and anticipates a speedy recovery. For fear the man might die, Attorney C. S. Jackson, representing George H. Chauncey together with several attorneys representing citizens affected by the suit, visited him at his room yesterday afternoon, taking such testimony as they deemed necessary.

J. C. Alexander, the local real estate man, has commenced work on his new bridge which will span the Umpqua river, connecting his holdings on the west side of the river with the mainland on the east. The bridge will contain three spans, one of steel and two of wood.

A carload of cement arrived yesterday and the work of erecting the piers will be rushed as fast as possible. The owner anticipates a completion of the structure early next year. The bridge will connect the mainland on the east side of the river at a point about 110 feet to the north of the Kendall Brothers power plant.

J. A. McIntosh, an architect with headquarters at Medford, spent yesterday in the city conferring with Joseph Micelli, manager of the Roseburg Brick Works, relative to the purchase of several carloads of the clay product.

The transaction was consummated with but little difficulty, the architect purchasing 100,000 brick, all of which will be shipped to Medford just as soon as they can be loaded. In speaking to a News reporter this morning, Mr. Micelli said the Roseburg Brick Works had attained the distinction of being one of the few brick concerns which is at all times in a position to supply the trade.

He attributes the recent sale to such fact inasmuch as a majority of the brick manufacturers are short on their product at this time of the year. The members of the '95 Mental Culture Club held their second social session for the season at the home of Mrs. W. R. Willis, on Cass street, Tuesday afternoon.

A biographical sketch of William Cullen Bryant, and and of his writings both poetry and prose, was rendered by Mrs. O. P. Coshow, followed by the reciting of the poem, "Thanatopsis," by Mrs. B. W. Babies are little human morning glories, that spring from the soil of love, climb up the trellis-work of affection, entwine themselves about the hearts of the parents and send out the little feelers, the little clingers, that reach from one heart to the other, drawing the two closer and closer together, twining and intertwining about them until they become one common mass and are indeed two hearts that beat as one.

Great men are seldom appreciated while alive. Even the Savior was one of the most maligned of men during life. Keep your thoughts pure and sweet and you need not worry about the utterances of your mouth.
