Hear Billington, the noted Sunday school man at the Christian church. F. M. Spencer, of Gardiner, is in the city attending to business matters.

Mrs. Rush has accepted a position at Thompson's confectionery store on Sheridan street.

Mrs. A. N. Orcutt and children have returned from a brief visit at the home of her father at Oakland.

A marriage license has been issued to Jalman Salo and Sapla Josephson, both residents of Douglas county.

Mrs. Phipps returned to her home at Dillard this morning after spending a few days visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Sheridan, in this city.

A special meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Roseburg Commercial Club will be held Friday evening. A liberal attendance is desired.

Frank Smith, at one time a bartender in this city, returned here this morning. For some time past Mr. Smith has resided in the northern part of the state.

Mrs. Minnie Amalary and son, Howard, accompanied by Mr. Van Lanning, her brother, who have resided in Roseburg for several months left for Independence, Iowa, on this morning's train. The very many friends of Mrs. Amalary, who have become acquainted with her here deeply regret her departure.

James Inman, at one time an aspirant for President of the United States and at present the plaintiff in a sensational divorce suit, is a visitor in the city today. Mr. Inman says that he believes Douglas county will soon become one of the greatest coal producing sections in the west, indications pointing to such an end. He declares that experiments in Looking Glass valley assure an abundance of fuel, and that all that is needed to make it a paying proposition is railroad facilities.

A. H. Howard, of Myrtle Creek, has brought a suit for damages in the circuit court against Myr. B. Cook, a neighbor. He asks that he be awarded a judgment in the sum of $250, alleged to be due for trespass and the damage done to certain buildings erected upon his property. Among the allegations in the complaint the plaintiff alleges that the defendant went upon his land, broke open his cabin and committed other unlawful acts which warrant him damages in the amount asked.

An effort is being made to induce Governor Frank Benson to come to this city on Tuesday evening of next week for the purpose of attending in a special meeting of the Roseburg Commercial Club. Should he concede to the request Congressman Hawley will remain over until Wednesday morning. It is the purpose of the club members to invoke the aid of these distinguished men in securing the desired federal building.

We have in prospect an engagement of the celebrated Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette Company of Chicago, and it is expected that they will be secured to give one of their delightful entertainments about December 12. This company gives a program of the greatest variety consisting of Lady Quartettes, Mandolin and Guitar Club, String, Violin and Vocal Solos, Amusing Readings. In the Schuberts we will get a musical entertainment that is enjoyable from the first to the last—not a long dull, classical affair, but a bright, interesting program of music's choicest gems.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. H. A. Champagne, at 551 Fowler street, shortly after eight o'clock this morning, when her daughter, Miss Bessie, was united in marriage to Mr. Jasper McMillan, a Southern Pacific fireman. Rev. Jas. K. Hawkins, pastor of the local Methodist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The happy couple left on the northbound local for Portland where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home to their many friends and acquaintances at 341 Pine street after December 1. The bride in this morning's event is one of Roseburg's most popular young ladies. She has resided here the greater part of her life and is well and favorably known. Of late she has been employed at the Bellows' store. The groom is employed by the Southern Pacific Company with headquarters in this city. He is respected by all who know him, possessing a disposition which has won for him many friends. The Evening News joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy future.

Peter Ulan and wife, of Dillard, are in the city this afternoon attending business matters.

Wm. Langcor, of Iowa, is visiting at the home of Rev. Dollard, in West Roseburg.

Mrs. Maud Patterson, who has been ill at her home in this city for the past month with a severe attack of paralysis is somewhat improved at this writing.

Justice of the Peace, Gaither, accompanied by Constable Bayless, came up from Myrtle Creek this afternoon to look after business matters.

The members of the Guild of St. George's church held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. M. F. Rice this afternoon. At the conclusion of the business session a social hour was spent.

A number of modern desks were received by County School Superintendent Chaney this afternoon, the same to be used during the teachers institute which convenes in this city next week.

F. M. Cook, an extensive rancher of Deer Creek, was in the city this afternoon. Among the production of his ranch this year were potatoes which averaged 75 bushels to the acre.

S. C. Bartram, connected with the local forestry office, returned from Cottara Grove last evening where he spent several days attending business matters.

Dr. E. V. Hoover and O. C. Baker have placed their order for a Studebaker Flanders (29) automobiles, the same to be delivered in the early spring. The machines were ordered through the C. B. Cannon agency of this city.

John Maloney, a local inebriate, was arrested late last evening for the fourth time within thirty days. As usual he was booked at the police station on a charge of drunkenness. He will probably be arraigned before City Recorder Orcutt at a late hour this afternoon.

Don Blinger Hermann received word today to the effect that a number of residents in the city of Myrtle Point are carrying on a search for the remains of Blinger Hermann, the twenty-four year old son of Mr. T. M. Hermann, who was drowned in the Coquille river Sunday.

C. W. Lawson, the Brookway blacksmith, who had several ribs fractured a short time ago, is not getting well as fast as he ought and came in to this city last night for further medical assistance. Mr. Lawson dropped into this office on his way to the hotel and ordered The Evening News for a year.

Mrs. A. P. Parker, a returned Missionary from China, will deliver a lecture on China at the South Methodist church on Thursday evening, November 11th at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to hear this gifted Missionary. There will be neither admission fee nor collection.

The local officers are searching for a trio of undesirable characters who recently drifted into the city under suspicious circumstances. These parasites who exist off the earnings of fallen women are not wanted in this locality, and the sooner they leave town the better for all concerned. Marshal Huffman says they must go—and so says all decent people.

Hear Billington, the noted Sunday school worker, who will be at the Christian church tonight, November 10, and each evening this week. If you are interested in S. S. come and hear him. He will teach you how to do better work. His lectures are entertaining, instructive and profitable. A freewill offering will be taken each evening.—J. N. McConnell.

W. S. Hamilton and Thomas Cobb have disposed of their 10 acre tract of fruit land, situated in the vicinity of the Oaks, to Mr. Rexroad. The consideration is said to have been $2,500. The purchaser will irrigate the tract and engage in the cultivation of commercial fruit. He also expects to raise vegetables and other garden produce for home consumption. A very peculiar circumstance in connection with the construction of the Alexander bridge across the Coquille river, came to light this morning, when it became known that both Charles Fields and Kendall Brothers hold a deed to the land in the immediate vicinity of the east end approach. The light and water company, however, have agreed to give Mr. Alexander a right-of-way. Just what Mr. Fields will do in regard to the matter appears uncertain at this time. It is said that Kendall Brothers hold the prior deed.

George Short, of Wilbur, is a business visitor in the city today.

A. Tompkins, of Kiddle, is in the city attending to business matters.

F. C. Frear, a son of Manager Frear, of the local light and water company, is suffering from a broken wrist which he sustained at the Skyes skating rink a couple of days ago.

Rev. W. H. Eaton and wife entertained the teachers and officers of the Baptist Sunday school Tuesday evening. All present report a most enjoyable time.

Edward A. Beals, weather forecaster at Portland, spent last evening in the city. He is enroute to Marshfield where he goes to attend business matters connected with his official duties. This morning Mr. Beals was entertained by W. A. Bell, the local weather observer.

Lincoln Thrush and wife, of Camas Valley, are in the city today. Mr. Thrush reports the roads in a horrible condition at the present time, presumably due to the heavy traffic.

City News Briefly Recorded

I. Drake, of Oakland, is a visitor in the city today.

F. Maxwell, of Dillard, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

W. A. Burr, the music man, was a passenger on this morning's south-bound train.

Attorney Dexter Rice went to Portland this morning where he will attend legal matters.

G. Hamilton, of Myrtle Creek, returned home this morning after a brief stay in the city.

The merchants report considerable activity during the past few days, presumably due to the weather.

Mrs. F. B. McCord and child left this morning for Portland where they will join their husband and father.

Miss Hattie Smith returned to her home at Winchester this morning after a brief visit with friends in the city.

G. W. Gage and S. C. Miller returned to their home at Dillard this morning after attending business matters in the city.

Holiday goods are arriving in the city daily and are being the several merchants will soon have their windows in holiday attire.

The new life boat in the Douglas National Bank was practically completed yesterday. To say the least it is a great improvement over the old wooden one, both in regard to attractiveness and convenience.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will have an sale home-made chicken tamales at Millidge and Pike's, from every street, Friday, November 12, 1909. Don't fail to get some.

Charles Ribey and wife, of Falls City, who spent yesterday in the city visiting friends returned home this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Ribey are former residents of Myrtle Creek where they resided for several years.

W. C. Ross, of the Warren Construction Company, returned to Portland this morning after closing up the affairs of the company in this city. Mr. Ross says he feels confident that Roseburg will continue its paving work in the spring.

S. P. Howler has filed a petition in the circuit court asking that their action against H. W. Althaus & Sons be dismissed. They allege that the controversy has been settled. Attorney George Neuner appeared on behalf of the plaintiff.

Too local hotel registers show a great falling off in registrations during the past few days, presumably due to the fact that many of the traveling men have abandoned their usual daily route as the train service becomes normal. It is almost impossible for the travelers to make their territory at present, which not only involves a hardship to them but to the merchants as well.

Ballroad men appear anxious to give an information as to when the wrecked tunnel near the California line will be repaired. All of the northbound trains are running from four to five hours late at present with little hope of an improvement until such time as the weather clears sufficiently to allow the laborers engaged in repairing the damage an opportunity to work. It is said the present case-in is the worst experienced by the Southern Pacific Company for years.

S. C. Miller and G. W. Gage, of Dillard, were in the city yesterday conferring with the county officers, relative to the formation of a new road district in the vicinity of Dillard. The chief object in forming the new road district, so it is said, is for the reason of opening a new county road, the same to traverse the country north of Dillard as far as the mountain house, thus giving the residents favored by the contemplated road an outlet which heretofore they have not enjoyed. Those interested in the new road district will probably file a petition with the county court setting forth their request in detail at the next regular session of the county court.

Mr. Roland Schwartz received a fine fox terrier pup from Aberdeen, Washington this morning. The canine was purchased by Mr. Schwartz for his little son.

The work of building the south approach to the Deer Creek bridge was commenced this morning. The city expects to have the same completed the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Annie Wallace, wife of Contractor Wallace, of this city, was admitted to the state insane asylum at Salem by County Judge Wagoner and County Physician Houck last evening.

Mrs. Amshary, who has conducted a boarding and lodging house on Kane street, for the past few months left this morning for Independence, Iowa, where she will remain indefinitely. She was accompanied by her brother.

L. Stokes and wife who were called to this city from their home at St. Johns, Oregon, about four weeks ago in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of their daughter, Mrs. Bessie Oliver, returned home this morning. The patient is said to be recovering.

County Judge Wagoner has received a letter from Dr. E. M. Chauncey, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, in which the writer says that he is enroute to Oregon to look after the affairs of his mother, whom he alleges to be an heir of the late Aaron Rose. Appearances tend to show that Charles and George Chauncey, at present in the city, are not the only heirs to the Rose estate. With the above information at hand, property owners interested in the outcome of the case anticipate a general mix-up.

When interviewed by a News representative this morning Attorney Jackson stated that he believed the alleged heirs of the Aaron Rose, now enroute to this city from Kalamazoo, Michigan, are the widows of the Sarah Rose brother, and are the only heirs to the estate who failed to sign deeds conveying the property interests to their husband. Further than this fact Attorney Jackson has nothing to say regarding the situation which at present appears somewhat perplexing.
