ATTORNEY McCOURT CONFIRMS REPORT

(Special to The Evening News)
PORTLAND, Nov. 16.—John McCourt, U. S. District Attorney, today confirmed the announcement made yesterday that Heney would return to Portland as Assistant Attorney General to prosecute the Oregon land fraud cases, the most important one of which is against Binger Hermann, against whom an indictment stands charging him with trying to secure land fraudulently in the Blue Mountain Reserve. About thirteen cases in all are to be tried.

KILLS THE MAN AND THEN HIMSELF

(Special to The Evening News)
ORANGE, Cal., Nov. 16.—W. W. Downs, a lumberman, went home to his wife from whom he had been separated late last night with the hope of effecting a reconciliation with his wife. He found Roland Fletcher with the woman. Drawing a revolver he fired four shots into Fletcher's body, and while he was telephoning for a coroner, Downs drew a second pistol and fired a bullet through his own head, dying instantly.

MAKE MONEY IN ITALY AND SHIP IT HERE

(Special to The Evening News)
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Giuseppe Marek and thirteen other Italians have been arrested today accused of selling counterfeit $5 bills. Detectives allege the counterfeit money was made in Palencia, Italy, and shipped to this country in olive oil cans.

LAND SCRIPPERS TO EJECT MINERS

A matter which is far reaching in its effect and of vital importance to miners particularly, who are operating on unpatented lands, either surveyed or unsurveyed, as well as to the homesteader or squatter, was on hearing before the United States Land Office in this city last week.

The defendants in the case were gentlemen from Salem, Messrs. F. E. Newberry, president, and O. A. Thomas, vice-president, of United Copper Gold Mining Company, whose properties are near Merlin, Josephine county.

They were accompanied by Mr. Geo. C. Weathy, mining expert from McGill, Nevada, who appeared as a witness.

The facts in the contest are that on the claims of the United Copper Gold Company is a lot of fine timber. An Eastern corporation representing extensive lumbering interests in the West, assayed to take possession of the lands and timber in question by the scrip process. The Eastern people, however, made an offer of compromise, asking the timber to be given them without protest, and for such consideration they would not interfere in the miners work.

This proposition was refused by the Salem people, therefore the case was filed for contest.

The scrip by which this transfer of title is expected to take place, is Northern Pacific Railway paper. It is obtained in some instances at least, by the railroad corporation relinquishing its right and title to a piece of undesirable land, or to a piece that may have been claimed by some homesteader in the railway's limit in the State of Washington, receiving scrip therefor from the government. This scrip is good way down here in Oregon, 500 miles from the railroad's line, and it is with such paper as this that the Eastern corporation is trying to gobble up properties in Josephine county and by so doing oust a mining company who are at work on the premises and spending their money to develop the resources of the State.

If the department submits a decision adverse to the local organization it will establish a precedent that is fraught with grave results to various properties similarly situated, as to title, in Southern Oregon.

No greater service has been rendered to womankind than the giving by Dr. Fredrick K. Stearns of his remarkable prescription for the many weaknesses with which women are afflicted.

This great remedy is being placed on the market by the New York and London Drug Company and is labeled "Nyal's Vegetable Prescription," "a boon to womankind"

The local drug firm, Fullerton & Richardson, are agents for Roseburg. They report as follows: "Nyal" remedies are superior to all of the highly exploited patent medicines, but the best of the Nyal's line is the "Vegetable Prescription."

"During the many years we have sold drugs in Roseburg we have never heard as much favorable commendation of any other medicine. Nyal's Vegetable Prescription has received the praise of every woman who has used it.

Other Nyal's medicines which are worthy of mention at this particular season are:

Nyal's Baby Cough Remedy for colds. Relieves difficult breathing.

Nyal's Croup Ointment.

Nyal's Cod Liver Oil Compound without the oil. It is better than "Vinol" or Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and is an ideal system builder and tonic.
