To the lovers of the beautiful, a look at the exquisite Holiday line at Graves' Art Emporium will do you good, and when you buy the prices will do your purse good.

George Kohlhaugen, the local butcher, has returned from the Steamboat mines where he purchased several head of steers. George reports cattle somewhat scarce at the present time, while the price is showing an increase daily.

The report of four revolver shots fired in quick succession awoke the citizens residing in the vicinity of the city hall shortly before 2 o'clock this morning. At first many entertained the belief that the officers were engaged in an encounter with robbers, but such idea was dispersed upon brief investigation. Briefly it might be said, the shooting was simply the result of an overload of "hoop," and that the parties responsible for the disturbance were two of Roseburg's well known citizens. Both men were warned this morning by Marshal Huffman relative to future occurrences of such a nature.

Three strangers were arrested by Marshal Huffman and Night Officer Palm late last evening while roaming the streets in a drunken stupor. As is customary in a "dry" town the men were immediately placed in jail to remain until this morning. When arraigned shortly before noon each member of the trio entered a plea of guilty, and accordingly City Recorder Orcutt imposed a fine of $10 each. Two of the men were "bush" with coin and paid their fines, while the third, a little embarrassed financially, was commended to serve two and one-half days in the city jail. The latter fellow says he is from Eugene, and has appealed to the officers for his release promising to leave town immediately. To save the city expense it may be possible that he will be turned out this evening and escorted to the outskirts of the town.

Officers Palm, Huffman, Burleson and Wright were out in full force last night, presumably having received information to the effect that there were things of an unpleasant nature brewing. Nothing materialized, however, and the scouts retired shortly after 2 o'clock this morning.

L. R. Alderman, an instructor in University of Oregon who has been in attendance at the session of the teachers' institute left this morning for his home. The gentleman speaks well of Roseburg, predicting a great future for this section of the state. Needless to say he was quite surprised at the numerous improvements in the past few months.

Sidewalk permits were issued this morning as follows: Fred Haynes, Main street at the rear of the building occupied by Joseph Lasina; T. R. Sheridan, 135 feet on Jackson street from Oak street to the building occupied by the Wells, Fargo Express Company; John Hunter, in front of the A. A. Bellows' store on Jackson street; John Stoman, on Main street at the rear of the building occupied by George Redifer; E. M. Moore, in front of the property occupied by the Monogram Cigar store, and the Wilder & Agee gent's furnishing store; John Stanton, in front of the Wells, Fargo Express office and the John Culver hardware store. With the above permits issued the citizens are assured that the walks on the west side of Jackson street, the entire distance between Oak and Washington streets will be constructed as fast as possible. With the exception of the walk in front of the Bellows' store which will be constructed by its owner, John Hunter, all walks effected by the above permits will be constructed by Contractor Worthington.

J. M. Lawrence has gone to Bend to attend business matters. As soon as a successor is appointed in the local land office Mr. Lawrence will move his family to that place. As yet he has failed to make known his future intentions.

From indications the turkey shipments for the Thanksgiving market will be about the same this year as last. George Kohlhaugen, one of the dealers in poultry, states that there appears to be plenty of turkeys for all this year, while the price averages about 21 cents. Such price is considered very good, and it seems doubtful whether a higher price can be demanded previous to Christmas purchases. The last shipments to the San Francisco and Seattle markets will be made tomorrow evening.

The Seattle Commercial Club is organizing an excursion to the Orient for business men, their families and connections, to leave Seattle by the S. S. Minnesota on December 22nd, and return about March 5th, 1910. The Minnesota will touch at Kobe, Yokohama, Nagasaki, Shanghai, Manila and Hongkong. First-class round trip will be $250.00. Space for exhibit on board will be provided. Stops will be made of from one to three days at all ports, and seventeen days at Manila. Applications for full particulars and reservations should be made to J. M. Shawhan, chairman of the Publicity Committee, 700 Eiler's Music Building, Seattle, Wash.
