left for Eugene this morning where they will reside permanently. Mr.
Barber will remain in this city for the present.

J. A. Murray, local manager for the Pacific States Telephone Company states that their new office building will be completed about March and the equipment of the offices will be the very latest and best. Everything will be strictly up-to-the-minute, and patrons will then be assured of a perfect service.

W. H. Huff, Mary A. Huff, E. O.
Huff, Clement Huff, Add Huff and Henry Huff all of Texas, were registered at the Roseburg hotel this morning. The family are looking over the country with a view of locating should they find a suitable ranch. Aside from the above Huffs there were two women and 10 children in the family.

Superintendent John R. Lee, of the local light and water company, went to Winchester this morning. Mr. Lee states that the present rain is something quite out of the ordinary, and should it continue he anticipates considerable difficulty. It is said that the river has raised three feet at Winchester during the past 48 hours.

J. P. Brallier, of Seattle, who spent several weeks in this vicinity last summer in the hope of promoting the establishment of a woolen mill in this city, stopped over here yesterday enroute from San Francisco to Seattle. Mr. Brallier is well known here and met many of his old friends.
He reports his visit most enjoyable.

their regular semi-monthly meeting this evening. Several candidates are scheduled for initiation and it is hoped every member of the lodge will be present.

Several hundred turkeys came to town this morning and were readily purchased by local buyers. The birds are retailing at 24 cents a pound, a price somewhat exceeding that of former years.

Mrs. Minnie Jones who has been spending some time at Central Point, Oregon, writes to have The News sent to her at Grants Pass where she will remain for some weeks in the interest of the United Artesian lodge.

Practical and Sensible Gifts for the Holidays

Something here for every member of the family. The question what shall I give will be easily solved after an inspection of this store. Did you ever stop to think how much more comfort and sensible, how much more all would enjoy a nice piece of furniture for the home than to buy some trashy present. This space will only permit of a very few of the many things that await your inspection at this easy place to shop.

Proclamation NO. IV.

Be it known to all the lady readers of The News that the Shamrock has come to town. And has come to stay. Four leaf clover for luck and Shamrock ware for quality.

This is an American enameled ware of quality, and of pleasing appearance. White inside and a beautiful green and shaded outside.

All seamless. All with most approved handles and bales.
Handles round and easy to grasp. Bales of heavy wire, tinned.

An all round good piece of goods and like The Shamrock, "thing of beauty and a joy for—well a long time at least."

guess nearest to the number of yards of calico in 100 bolts displayed in the show window of the above store. Young Hazen guessed within nine yards of the grand total and was considerably elated over his good fortune.

Judge Harris, formerly deputy in the assessor's office, but of late employed by the Douglas County Abstract Company, leaves tomorrow for his home at Canyonville, where he will spend Thanksgiving.

The McKenzie Merry Makers concluded their engagement at the Star theatre last evening, leaving for points north this morning. The troupe has given excellent satisfaction during their stay here, and a return engagement will be received with delight by the amusement loving public.

A telegraphic dispatch appearing in yesterday's morning Oregonian is to the effect that G. W. Riddle, of Riddle, will be recommended by Senator Bourne as the proper successor to J. M. Lawrence, at present Receiver of the local United States Land Office. It will be remembered that The Evening News predicted Riddle's appointment several weeks ago, having received such information from a prominent man close in touch with Senator Bourne and his contemplated appointments.
