Oldest Congressman Perishes in Burning of Home.

GRANDSON BURNED ALSO

Wife Fainted After Giving Alarm of Fire, But Flames so Fierce that Nothing in Way of Rescue Could be Done

(Special to The Evening News.)
BUTLAR, Nov. 23.—Congressman David A. DeArmond and grandson, Monte, were burned to death at their home here today. DeArmond was a democrat, and served in Congress for a period of nineteen years.
The fire was discovered at 3 o'clock this morning. His wife was sleeping on the second floor, and was awakened by her grandson on the third floor screaming. She rushed out of the house for help, and dropped in a fainting fit just outside the door. James, a son of the congressman, living across the street, attempted to rescue the father, but the flames were too fierce, and the neighbors restrained him from entering the building. The bodies have not been recovered.
DeArmond was the oldest democrat in the House of Representatives in point of service.

Last night a committee of the city's commercial club passed similar resolutions.

The following note, addressed to Attorney Crouch, of this city, was left by the woman: "Will be dead in two hours. Do everything I told you. Send boy to his father." Bradley told the police that the woman sent him out of the room, and when he returned she announced that she had taken strychnine.

A BAD STORM

Rages in the Vicinity of Yoncalla Oregon
(Special to The Evening News.)
YONCALLA, Nov. 22.—4:00 p. m.—A very heavy rain storm has been prevailing since the evening of the 21st inst., converting small streams into roaring torrents and filling the lowlands with water.
At daylight this morning the water was up to the high water mark with rain descending in heavy sheets. And about 11 o'clock section men discovered the ballast giving away under the track one mile south of town and threatening to play havoc with traffic, and by the time train No. 226, in charge of engineers Webber and Woodson and conductor Clark, arrive the washout had reached such a state as to render it unsafe for traffic.

Foreman Wm. Jones and his men worked diligently from about 11 a. m. to about 3 p. m. before getting the track in a safe condition.
Unless the storm abates much damage will result to the railway in this vicinity, to say nothing of the damage to roads, fences and bridges. Some of the people residing along the creek are surrounded by water and a slight rise will be very inconvenient for them.

GREAT STORM LITTLE DAMAGE

(Special to The Evening News.)
PORTLAND, Nov. 23.—The late heavy rains are ceasing today. According to the weather bureau a new mark for Oregon for seven days has been set. Today the storm in the Willamette Valley and other sections of Western Oregon is thought to be over and the streams, after rises of ten to fourteen inches since midnight are thought to be at a standstill.
Some small bridges have been washed out and streets in towns of low altitude have been flooded. This constitutes about all damage. In railroad traffic in Southern Oregon and on Oregon Navigation lines all trains are running on slow orders.

ZELAYA ISSUES PROCLAMATION

(Special to The Evening News.)
COLON, Nov. 23.—The cruiser Des Moines is at Greytown today making an investigation into the execution of Grace and Cannon. The latest news from Nicaragua is that Americans are unsafe anywhere in Zelaya's territory. Zelaya has issued a proclamation denouncing the Americans and accusing them of aiding Estrada, and urging loyal Nicaraguans to assist in defeating the gringo conspiracy. Several Americans are missing and it is feared they are imprisoned.

A HARD FOUGHT CASE

Chauncey Land Suit May Consume Two Weeks.

RICE ASKS A DISMISSAL

Court Rules Favorable to Plaintiffs And Case Proceeds—Many Witnesses Will be Introduced by Attorneys for Defense.

Chauncey Case Delayed
Alleging that it would take six months to try the Chauncey case at the present rate, Judge Burnette, presiding judge, adjourned court shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon until December 13. Judge Burnette is of the opinion that the attorneys representing the defendants, (some fifteen in number) should get together and decide upon six cases, the verdict in said suits to settle all cases involved in the controversy. By this he argues that much time and expense can be saved. Briefly, it might be said, that considerable dissatisfaction is prevailing on account of the unexpected adjournment.

With the reading of a number of depositions in an effort to establish the identity of George Chauncey, one of the plaintiffs in the celebrated land title suit now attracting the attention of the circuit court, Attorney C. S. Jackson, representing the plaintiffs concluded the admission of testimony on behalf of his clients shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. The depositions apparently executed to establish the lie at the former home of Mrs. Sarah Rose, deceased, in Michigan, and were the evidence as adduced by the plaintiff that Sarah Rose was at one time a resident of that section; that she was married while residing there to a man by the name of Aaron Rose, and that soon after the marriage the couple moved to Oregon and located upon a donation land claim, presumably the one involved in the present controversy.

Briefly, the depositions were favorable to the plaintiffs, tending to establish the alleged facts mentioned. As Attorney Jackson, for the plaintiffs, announced his intention to rest, Attorney Dexter Rice, chief counsel for the defense, asked that the case against the several defendants be dismissed. Attorney Rice contended that the evidence as adduced by the plaintiffs tended to show a dispute in title, thus removing the action from the jurisdiction of the trial court. In other words Attorney Rice argued that the case was not one of equity but should be tried before a jury.

Judge Burnette ruled favorable to the plaintiffs in this instance, stating that he would take the motion under advisement should the defense wish to rest their case and refrain from the introduction of further testimony.

After a brief consultation between the several attorneys it was decided to proceed with the case and introduce such testimony as they deemed necessary. In accordance with the ruling of Judge Burnette it will be necessary for the defense to introduce the evidence of every defendant—three hundred in all.

Attorney C. S. Jackson was the first witness placed on the stand by the defense. He was questioned at some length relative to his authority in serving the Chaunceys and as to how long he had been in their employ. Mr. Jackson was unable to give any definite reply to the above interrogations, simply stating that he had been retained by George Chauncey after the latter's arrival in the city. Attorney Jackson was also asked regarding numerous notices of vacation purported to have been sent out by him several months ago. In response to this question Mr. Jackson said that he thought he had sent out about thirty such notices.

BLACK HANDS AT WORK

Twenty-five Buildings Wrecked and Other Damage.

FOUR PEOPLE MISSING

Italian's House Scene of Explosion, But He Denies Having Enemies or Having Been Threatened At All

(Special to The Evening News.)
DANVILLE, Ill. Nov. 23.—Twenty five frame buildings in this city were wrecked today with dynamite. Four people are reported missing. It is believed that Black Hands are responsible for the dynamiting which is believed to have been set off in a fruit wine house owned by Joseph Mascari, an Italian.
The explosion demolished Mascari's house, and practically all the buildings within the block. The plate glass in the windows for several blocks around are ruined. Two men were seen near Mascari's shortly before the explosion. Mascari denies having any enemies, and says he has not received any threats.

quired through Tom Cobb who came to Dutch Flat, California, where Chauncey lived and interviewed him regarding his family history and the history of Sarah Rose. After the conversation between Chauncey and Cobb the witness testified that he was informed by Mr. Cobb that he (Chauncey) was the missing link and the man he was looking for and also that he was entitled to an interest in the property at Roseburg to the extent of its appraised value at the time of Sarah Rose's death which would amount practically to $200. Chauncey stated he was offered $500 by Mr. Cobb for a deed to the property. He said this was his first knowledge of his rights in the property here. He did not accept the offer made by Mr. Cobb but said he would come to Roseburg and investigate, promising Mr. Cobb he would consult him upon his arrival here. Chauncey said he first consulted B. L. Eddy about the matter after seeing Cobb, then went to Jackson and placed the matter in his hands. The letter received by him from Jackson regarding his rights in the land in question arrived on or about the same time he was visited by Mr. Cobb.

The letter referred to in yesterday's News purporting to have come from C. S. Jackson was a communication not direct to Chauncey but a letter written to the U. S. patent department asking if there was a man by the name of Geo. H. Chauncey who served in Co. H, 2nd New Hampshire.

Chauncey stated this letter was forwarded to him by the pension department requesting an answer and that he returned the communication to the department saying he was positive there was no man in Co. H, by the name referred to as he had heard the roll call many times. He gave the letter no further attention thinking Jackson was a pension attorney at Washington, D. C.

BILL BRADLEY MAY DIE

Unless a Physician is Sent Immediately.

WAS INJURED RECENTLY

Said That Local Physician Will be Dispatched to Bradley's Home Tomorrow—An Extremely Hazardous Trip

A message has just been received by Mr. S. C. Bartram, through the Forest Service relay system, to the effect that unless a doctor was sent immediately to attend the injuries of Wm. Bradley he would not recover.

It will be remembered that Mr. Bradley, who is better known as "Bill Bradley," was found by forest rangers near his own cabin, in a helpless condition and unable to give any information as to how he received his injuries, but it is very probable that he was thrown from his horse which was found close by tangled up in a rope.

A doctor will probably be sent from this city immediately if the services of one can be obtained. On account of the swollen condition of various streams it is an extremely hazardous trip.

Should a doctor attempt the trip unaided and assisted the entire distance by a forest ranger.

ALL HOPE IS GONE FOR LIVING MEN

(Special to The Evening News.)
CHERRY, Nov. 23.—All hope of miners living in the lowest tunnel was abandoned today when that level was explored and numerous bodies found there. No attempt will be made to bring them up until the second level is thoroughly explored. Fire again is blazing in the second level which threatens the main shaft. The rescuers returning from the lowest level had a narrow escape from death when the fire broke out.

MAXIMILIAN DICK

America's Most Gifted Violinist Will Appear in Roseburg.
On December 1st, the music lovers of Roseburg and surrounding towns will have an opportunity of hearing Maximilian Dick, America's most gifted violinist, who is making a tour of the West in concert. Mr. Dick is without doubt today the leading artist of America on this stirring instrument. It is only on very rare occasions that one has a chance to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing any of the great artists, especially in cities outside of the largest, and it is a very fortunate happening that Mr. Dick and his company of select artists have been obtained for this one occasion. It will be the only concert of its class to be held in Roseburg this season, as the promoters believe that it is better to give one good one than two or three medium ones.

The committee in charge and the music lovers of Roseburg are to be congratulated on being able to secure this attraction. Those that miss this attraction will miss a treat, as it is very seldom that it is possible to combine four great artists in one company. And every one of the artists is a soloist, while solo numbers are included in every concert a special feature of each will be the concerted numbers in which the full strength of the company will be engaged.
Secure your seats early as the list is limited.

ZELAYA IS TO BE DISCIPLINED

(Special to The Evening News.)
WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 23.—The Cabinet spent much time last night discussing the Nicaraguan situation, and decided today it will demand an apology and indemnity for the execution of Grace and Cannon, the two Americans. Zelaya is expected to refuse these terms, and the portentous naval preparations on the part of the American government indicate in that event Zelaya will be summarily disciplined.
