The funeral of the late John L. Robinson, who passed away at the Soldiers' Home yesterday morning, was held this morning, interment occurring in the Home Cemetery. The deceased was 73 years of age and was admitted to the Home from Marion county about ten days ago. He was a veteran of the Civil war, served as a sergeant in Co. B., 196 N. Y. Infantry. At the time he was admitted to the Home he was accompanied by his son.

While returning from town to the Soldiers' Home shortly before eight o'clock last evening, Charles Rickie, the veteran mail carrier at that institution, was held up by an unknown thug who thrust a revolver into his face, at the same time demanding that he hand over what valuables he possessed. Frightened, Rickie yelled at the top of his voice, attracting persons who reside in the immediate vicinity of the crime. Realizing that he would be detected should he remain near the scene of his undertaking, the thug then took to his heels and disappeared in the darkness. Rickie then proceeded on his way home, none the worse for his experience. The officers were notified of the occurrence, but owing to the fact that no description of the thug was obtainable the guilty party escaped with ease.

ALSO STORMS SOME WASHINGTON STATE

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Nov. 29.—Five steel bridges, two railway and three wagon, across the Nooksack River, have been carried away within the past twenty-four hours, entailing $100,000 loss.

Railway bridges are in danger, as are three highway bridges. The Bellingham Bay & British Columbia bridge at Everett is said to be undermined and swaying in the current. When it goes out it will carry a wagon bridge, located 250 feet down the river, with it.

A jam is forming against the Great Northern railway and county bridges are likely to go out. During the past 48 hours the rainfall has been 2.87 inches.

Railway traffic is almost completely blocked by slides and washouts. Bellingham had but on train today, that from the south, at noon. The Northern Pacific and Bellingham Bay & British Columbia are completely blocked on Pacific track is under water and the bridge across the Nooksack is up. More than five miles of the North-gone.
