

CLOTHES OF QUALITY AWAIT YOU HERE.

The straightest and surest road to good clothes—the best clothes—brings you here.

If you frequent any of the "by paths" you'll be apt to lose yourself in the tangle of misleading "bargains."

Whatever we do is well done—whatever we buy is well chosen—quality is the object—and perfect clothes satisfaction and effect.

There are many other places to buy clothes, to be sure—but you'll find that the best is always here.

These clothes are made for us by the Stein Block Co. and David Adler, two of the greatest Tailor organizations in the world. Every Suit we sell is sold with an absolute guarantee of Satisfaction or your Money refunded or a new suit in return.

I. ABRAHAM

Remember quality is the true test of cheapness. By our good clothes you shall know us.

In the supplementary list of the awards of the A. Y. P. exposition, just published, it is stated that Mr. Thompson, of Camas Valley, this county, received honorable mention for his display of gold ore.

The latest fad is hammered brass, used in connection with Pyrography; makes an elegant present. We have the material for working, and also the ready-made pieces. It is not expensive at Graves Art Emporium.

Harry Linscar, who has been employed as steward at the Roseburg Commercial Club during the past year, has resigned. His successor will probably be appointed by the board of trustees at a meeting to be held in the near future.

Secretary George Neuner, of the Roseburg Commercial Club, says he has received a list of over 2,000 names of Eastern people, all of whom are anxious to receive literature pertaining to Douglas county, and the Umpqua Valley. Responses will be sent as soon as possible that they may learn of the opportunities which await them in this locality.

Tomorrow afternoon the local order of Elks will hold their annual memorial services at their Temple in this city. Aside from the memorial address which will be delivered by Archdeacon Chambers, a lengthy musical programme has been arranged. The public as well as the members of the Elks order are invited to attend these services.

C. M. Cauley arrived here from Portland this morning to spend a few days with relatives. Mr. Cauley says he is delighted with Roseburg, having visited here in the past.

Should he be able to purchase a small tract of fruit land at a nominal figure it may be possible that he will locate in this locality. Mr. Cauley says that it is almost impossible to live in Portland at normal wages inasmuch as produce of all kinds has increased with bounds during the past few months.

J. W. Jarvis, of Portland, was in the city last evening. He is enroute to his home from the Cinnabar mines, which are located in the vicinity of Drew. He says the mine contains rich platinum deposits, and samples have been sent to Washington, D. C., and the Government says that there are only two other mines in the world containing platinum ore. One is located in the Ural Mountains, in Siberia and the other in the southern part of Wyoming. The deposits in the Cinnabar mine were found in the latter part of September.

L. D. Carl has just completed a neat 5-room bungalow cottage, near the corner of Flint and Lane streets, that is one of the neatest small residences in the city. It is modern in its painting, furnishings and accommodations. Its floors are fitted together in diamond matchings, and its front porch is a masterpiece. It is surrounded by concrete sidewalks and a wall of the same material that takes the place of the customary wooden railing. This is the eighth residence owned by Mr. Carl, besides his own residence. The by Ernest Applewhite, of the Marsters Drug Company's store, and wife, as a residence.

BRUTAL MURDER OF WOMAN AND BABIES

(Special to The Evening News)

W. C. Harding, of the W. C. Harding Land Company, returned from Portland this morning. When interviewed by a News representative, the gentleman said that Roseburg would obtain the advantages of a railroad within a short time—just what road he would not say. As far as the Coos Bay and Inland Electric Railway is concerned, he appears to entertain little faith, seemingly of the opinion that Kuettnier & Haas failed to make good. He says the new depot will be built during the coming year, presumably in July.

What Shall Your Christmas Gift Be? TO HIM---TO HER---TO THEM

Something that will outlive the day and the season; something useful; something beautiful. What else, indeed, but something from the Roseburg Book Store—the store that is ready for any test that you may give it—the store that offers you a variety of Holiday Gifts, the equal of which cannot be found anywhere in Roseburg? A visit to this store means a correct solving of the gift problem. Hundreds of excellent presents are displayed in every department—hints for all people, at all prices, from a trifle, upwards to the highest figure you may care to expend. Every help we can give you, we offer heartily and cheerfully—come early while the stock is fresh and unbroken. A few suggestions:

WRITING PAPER specially boxed for gifts. Can you think of a more acceptable Christmas gift than a box of really fine writing paper? Writing paper is something one uses constantly and one is therefore constantly reminded of the giver. The prices range from 25 cents up.

Toilet Sets, Military Brushes, Pocket Knives, Stationery, Mirrors, Story Books, Picture Books, for children, Toys, Dolls, Games, Post Card Albums, Pictures, Xmas Cards, New Year Cards.
