A rumor is prevalent about the city today to the effect that F. E. Smith, who recently purchased the Strange job printing plant will launch a weekly newspaper in Roseburg shortly. Such notification is the result of the action taken by the city council at its regular session held Monday evening. Sheriff Fenton received a telephone message from Portland this morning inquiring relative to Mrs. Helen Slater, the aged lady who recently arrived here from the south in destitute circumstances. The party who telephoned the sheriff believes that she is not Mrs. Helen Slater, but on the contrary, Mrs. Ella A. Hardie, who was recently reported as drowned at Bandon. The sheriff is investigating the case, but thus far has failed to find any evidence which will tend to show that she is not the individual represented. Sheriff Fenton is of the opinion that the Portland parties are mistaken, as the lady showed a number of letters addressed to Mrs. Helen Slater upon her arrival here. However, the investigation will be completed.

Word was received in this city this morning to the effect that Ray Teater the 24-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Teater, of West Roseburg had passed away at Salem, death being caused by typhoid fever. The deceased resided in Roseburg for a number of years prior to securing a position at the Capitol City. While at the latter place he has been engaged in bookkeeping. He was a young man of excellent habits and had a host of friends in this vicinity who regret to learn of his demise. The remains will be brought to this city for burial and will arrive this evening. Owing to the fact that both Mr. and Mrs. Teater were at the bedside of their son at the time of death it cannot be ascertained when the funeral will be held.
