gon Glee Club is to tour southern Oregon. For the past two seasons they have made a sojourn in the Inland Empire instead. Their trips in the dead of winter up into frozen Eastern Oregon have often resulted disastronsly to clear throats and a close harmony. Drafty depots and early morning trains have really made these trips more journeys of hardships than of pleasure. It is on account of these previous unpleasant experiences that the boys are looking forward with se much delight and antelpation to their short visit in Southern Oregon. Many of the Portland boys here never been in the southern part of the state and are anxious to see what this country which has recently come into the limelicht on account of her wealth in fruit lands is like. The Glee Club concert takes place in the Armory next Monday evening at a quarter past eight.
