DELIGHTED EASTERNERS

Blooming Roses and Green Hills of Douglas County Please Them

The car load of home seekers whose arrival at Sutherlin was noticed in the columns of The News the day they reached their destination, are all so delighted with the locality they are visiting and Douglas county in general, that words almost fail to express their pleasure in the fact of finding all sorts of roses in full bloom and bud and the hills and valleys carpeted in the richest of emerald green. After leaving St. Paul the party in the private car "Luse-land" crossed 2000 miles of country covered with snow and ice. It did not look very good to them, so when they finally reached Western Oregon and eventually crossed the divide and were ushered into Douglas county and found no snow, nor the evidence of any, their pleasure knew no bounds. But instead of snow and ice fragrant roses were found and an atmosphere as balmy as a day in spring. The personnel of the party is as follows, and they will doubtless all locate in this part of Oregon: J. E. Luse, president of the Luse Land Company, accompanied by Mrs. Luse; Samuel and Geo. H. Luse; John Allison and wife; P. E. Stenger; J. S. Hughes; S. T. St. John, all of St. Paul; J. H. Cummins and wife, Lincoln, Neb.; W. E. St. John, John Duer; A. P. Slack, Robert Slater, Benjamin Franklin, all of Hastings, Neb.; M. C. Miller, Minneapolis; L. F. Gosman, Northfield, Minn.; T. A. Lyman, Carroll, Iowa; Charles Talbot, Audubon, Iowa; J. C. Freybig, Columbus, Neb.

Black, George Hammond, Benjamin Caro and Eugene Jewett. The latter member of the party will act as umpire.

LOCAL NEWS.

Doll Smith, of Oakland, was in town today.

This morning's Oregonian says: T. R. Sheridan, president of the First National Bank, of Roseburg, was in Portland Saturday of last week, and through the W. C. Harding Land Co. closed a sale of part of the famous Sheridan & Agee holdings at Winston, to Dr. Byron E. Miller, a prominent surgeon of Portland, and Henry Folk, a retired capitalist from Duluth, Minn. The purchasers expect to plant about 250 acres of this tract to commercial apples this year. This is further evidence of the way Douglas county soil and climate are being appreciated by investors from the different sections of the country.
