Soldier Court Martialized Because He Refused to Obey.

When is the putting on and taking off of trousers a violation of the 21st Article of War?

Answer:—When your superior officer tells you to put them on or take them off and you don't do it.

If you don't believe this is true, ask Private Fred Bremund of the 196th Company, Coast Artillery Corps, who is now languishing in the military prison at Alcatraz Island, California, where he will continue to languish for the next six months. After serving this sentence Private Bremund will cease to be one of Uncle Sam's regulars and will get a dishonorable discharge.

The pair of trousers that caused Bremund so much woe were an easing his manly limbs out at Fort Worden, Washington, on the evening of November 2. There is no contention on the part of the First Lieutenant H. F. Colley, Bremund's superior officer, that the trousers did not fit or that they were not of approved style and color. So far as the Department knows they were as fine a pair of pants as ever were worn by a gallant artilleryman.

But on the fateful day in question Bremund was ordered to come down from his bunk and to "put your trousers on after you come down." Possibly it was mainly modesty that actuated Soldier Bremund—anyhow, whatever the cause, when Bremund came down from his bunk he had his trousers on.

Later in the day, Lieutenant Colley ordered Bremund back to his bunk and told him to take his trousers off before doing so. By that time, apparently, Bremund had become so much attached to his trousers that he decided to wear them to bed with him. Not only that, but to make his case worse, he turned upon Lieutenant Colley and told him, right to his face, "I will take them off when I get ready."

A court martial was convened at Fort Flager, Washington, to try the man who had such peculiar ideas regarding the wearing of his nether outdoor garments, and, although he pleaded "not guilty" very strenuously he was convicted and sentenced.

Now the finding of the court martial has been approved by all of the big guns in the Department of the Columbia and unless President Taft or Secretary of War Dickinson interfere the sentence will stand, and six months hence poor Bremund will be able to put on and take off his trousers without any officious officer giving him orders regarding them.

The revival at the United Brethren church increases in interest. Services Sunday morning at 11:00 and evening at 7:30. Rev. Leon Fleming, evangelist, and local clergymen are assisting the pastor, Rev. T. W. Ward.

CHURCH NOTICES

M. E. Church

Morning and evening sermon by the pastor, Jas. K. Hawkins. Music by the large choir, with special Tenor and Soprano duet at the morning service by Mr. Lotz and Miss Pool. "While I Stray," with special male quartette at the evening service. Happy congregational singing always. Morning sermon, "Jacob Transformed From Bargainer to Beggar." The salient points of this remarkable character will be delineated with much needed practical application to modern bargain seekers. Evening sermon, "The Credibility of Miracles and the Ground for Christian Faith." All are welcome to these live services and a "home-like" church.

Baptist Church

W. H. Eaton, Ph. D., pastor. Sunday school at 10:00 a. m., Hon. O. P. Cochow, superintendent. Preaching service at 11:00 a. m. At this service the pastor will undertake an exposition of that frequently puzzling and misunderstood scripture, Luke 14:26, B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m., Harry Hatfield, leader. Evangelistic service 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. The subject of the pastor's address at this service will be "Why Eye Ate the Apple." The choir has some choice special music for both preaching services. All are cordially invited to these services.

DEATH FROM LOCKJAW

Silverton Boy Falls on a Rusty Nail.

SILVERTON, Ore., Dec. 17.—Clarence Weeks, 5-year-old son of Fred Weeks, died in agony here today of lockjaw, after a week's illness.

Little Clarence slipped a week ago while playing and fell on a rusty nail which penetrated his knee. He became ill almost immediately and doctors decided he was suffering from tetanus. His agony throughout his illness was extreme until it was ended by death.
