A. L. Kitchen, the nurseryman, informs the News this has been a very prosperous year with him. Over three carloads of fruit trees have been disposed of. These have gone to all parts of the county and is evidence that the farmers are realizing there is a good profit in the fruit industry. No doubt the year 1910 will be a banner one in the setting out of young orchards and it will be but a short while until Douglas county will be known far and wide as a great fruit section of the state.

While attempting to load a heavy barrel on a truck Saturday evening, Oscar Lindsay, employed as local storekeeper for the Southern Pacific Company met with a very painful accident, the result of which necessitated him calling upon a local physician. It appears that the unfortunate man was attempting to square the barrel on the truck, when he suddenly slipped, allowing the barrel to sway in such a manner as to catch the end of two fingers. The injured man immediately sought relief at the hands of Dr. Houck, who, upon examination found that the end of one finger had been covered, while another showed evidence of being bruised.

It goes without saying that Mr. Colt will materially assist in making known to the world the resources of Sutherland Valley. He is a wide-awake fellow who will deliver the goods.

C. D. Beale went to Sutherland this morning to look after business matters.

The taxpayers of road district No. 38, which comprises a part of Southern Roseburg, voted a three mill road levy at the special election held at Greens Saturday. The 4 mill levy was voted down by one vote, while the three mill carried by 21 votes. The opposition to the tax was of a scattering nature, the leaders being unable to organize their forces. With the money realized from this levy together with the $800 at present in the hands of the road supervisor, it would appear that considerable work can be accomplished during the coming summer.
