PRACTICAL CHARITY.

The pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church has been making special inquiry re- cently as to any needy women and children in this commu- nity, with the purpose of mak- ing a distribution on Christ- mas day, of things to eat and wear. If any one, not giving through some other organiza- tion to such a cause, desires to aid in this good work, he may do so by leaving his offering, money or provisions with the "Mercy and Help Depart- ment" at the Methodist church on Friday, the day be- fore Christmas. If you do this you will find it "more blessed to give than to receive," and enjoy a Happy Christ- mas.

tor on the subject: "The Incarnate God," with appropriate special music for the occasion.

A special invitation is extended to the members and friends of other churches to participate in the service, those who desire to maintain the true observance of Christmas and make it contribute to the glory of God and the praise of Christ should have the opportunity of attending service on that day

Christmas Sunday 7:30 P. M.
