CARTOONIST DAVENPORT SICK

Talented Artist Is in California in Doctor's Care.

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 28.—Homer Davenport, noted cartoonist, is suffering a serious nervous collapse. He came here last week in the hopes of building up his shattered nervous system. He has not been feeling well for some time, and felt the pressing need of change of scene and climate.

He accepted an invitation to visit the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Spaulding, at Point Loma, where he is now under the care of a physician by whose advice no visitors are received and all correspondence is left untouched, as it is necessary that Davenport shall not exert himself in any other than along lines calculated to rebuild his shattered nervous system.

Try one of those Snell filters—will fit any faucet. See Winnie Gaddis, the plumber.

A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to Our Many Patrons.

ONCE A FUGITIVE.

Now a Member of the United States Senate.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 29.—A special to the News Scimitar says: Bought at one time by the Federal authorities under a $10,000 reward for his capture, dead or alive, for alleged conspiracy to murder the president of the United States, and now appointed a member of the legislative body of that country, is the strange story of Colonel James Gordon, of Oklahoma, who has been named United States senator by Governor Noel as successor to the late A. J. McClain.

Mr. Gordon was one of the several Confederate leaders suspected of being in the conspiracy with J. Wilkes Booth to kill President Lincoln. He escaped arrest and probably death only by the intervention of a Yankee colonel with whom he had crossed swords in a fight in Virginia.

In the earlier years of the war, Colonel Gordon had formed an intimate friendship with Booth, and after the assassination of President Lincoln a $10,000 reward was offered for his capture.

Colonel Gordon went to Canada and it was several months after the close of hostilities before he found it safe to return.

In one of the campaigns in Virginia, Colonel Gordon had crossed swords with the colonel of a New York cavalry regiment. Both were injured but they afterwards became fast friends.

Colonel Gordon wrote a letter to this New York friend, denying that he had any part in the conspiracy and declaring that he desired to return home. The former foe took the case up with General Dicks, then in command of the army forces in New York, and the latter sent him a passport and an invitation to come to New York and surrender, which he did. He afterwards satisfied General Dicks that he knew nothing of the Lincoln conspiracy.

WHAT ARE STARS?

To the average person the stars are merely points of light in the skies. If, in his curiosity, he should borrow a telescope to enlarge his researches, they are nothing more. They do not magnify. The biggest telescope in the world so far from increasing the apparent size of the stars, if it has a really fine lens, will make them look smaller. In fact we never see the stars themselves. A false image is created in the eyes by the collection of the shafts of light which come from each separate star, but as actual gibes all of them are too far distant for our grasp.

Each one is a sun, and many of them have motion in space sufficiently large to be detected over a course of years; and little more than half a century ago that was all that was known of them. Since then the application of the spectroscopic to stellar astronomy has brought about most wonderful results, and by its aid not only can it be told what the stars are made of, but (in many cases) whether they are traveling toward or away from the earth, and even is a star in full vigor of its activity, or if its forces are being spent, and it is a dying sun. All this knowledge has been gained through a prism of glass—for the spectroscopic is nothing else; its various attachments being merely for magnification and measurements.

Sunlight—and equally starlight—is composite, containing all the colors, and when passed through a prism is spread out in a long rainbow band, or ribbon. An analysis of certain dark lines which cross the band, by a method too complicated to be explained here, and the message conveyed—so plainly that there is no possibility of mistake—is that the chemical elements found on earth are also present in the sun and the stars, in an intensely heated state. In short the material out of which the wide universe of worlds is formed is the same, away to the uttermost distance.—Exchange.

For Men.—There is no better shoe made than the celebrated "J. E. TIL" which is to be found at the Millikin Shoe Store. And for heavy wear there is nothing equal to the "United Workman Shoe." 2t-f.

THE HEALING STRENGTH OF MINERAL WATERS

In Cases of Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Gout and Nervous Breakdown, Is Marvelous

Upon recent investigation by eminent physicians, chemists and scientists it has been demonstrated that natural, earth flowing mineral waters are the most beneficial means for the cure of organic maladies.

Paso Robles Hot Springs are at this time the point of interest to most investigators, as recent occurrences have attracted the attention of the thinking world to these springs.

One of their chief points of interest to medical men is said to be that which proves that a pre-eminent action rests in the waters which flow from the earth at Paso Robles, California.

Paso Robles Hot Springs are making cures daily of rheumatism, gout, stomach trouble, neurotic diseases, kidney trouble, and general breakdown, which proves almost beyond question to medical men that there is some quality in these waters superior to any in this country and probably in the world.

It is also claimed for Paso Robles that the air conditions are perfect. It lies in a small valley protected by mountain ranges; is 720 feet above sea level and is not assailed by too much sea moisture or an abnormal temperature from the hot land winds.

This air condition is thought by some to have almost as much to do with its cures as the waters themselves.

The town like all health resorts, is filled with boarding houses of all kinds, so that every purse will be pleased. There are hotels for the rich, where any luxury may be had. Private baths for exclusive patrons who wish to be to themselves.

These springs have been known for centuries, for they were used by the Indian to cure his sick and later the Franciscan fathers performed wonderful cures here, but it is only recently that the really marvelous powers of these waters were made known to the world at large.

Nearly every form of organic trouble is treated at these hot springs for the authorities welcome all except those who have tuberculosis or unclear diseases. For the man who suffers from overeating or from alcoholic excesses there is nothing in the world to equal a week spent at Paso Robles. It straightens him out with a rapidity that is wonderful, and the best recommendation is that they do away with the nerve-craving for stimulants because of their peculiar soothing effects upon the nervous system.

Truly speaking the study of Paso Robles Hot Springs is one which is giving the medical fraternity abroad and at home much interest, and is probably directing more attention to California than any other of her natural gifts to man.

A small book, neatly illustrated, has been recently published by the management telling the story of the Hot Springs in a most interesting manner and giving complete information. Send for it, either to Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent of the O. R. & N., Portland, Oregon, or Dr. F. W. Sawyer, manager, Paso Robles, California. 1t.
