Miss Meria Bales is spending the day at Oakland attending matters of a business nature.

The ladies will have home made candy for sale at the Armory Friday evening, Jan. 14. 114

Harry Stapleton and wife went to Salem this morning where they will spend about ten days visiting friends.

C. A. McGee, of Stephens, was a business visitor to Roseburg Saturday. He reports his vicinity quite prosperous.

Drain tile in 3, 4, 5 and 8 inch can be had of Winnie Gaddis, the plumber. Big shipment just received. 4-1-13 ed.

Mrs. H. D. Graves went to Oakland this morning to attend the funeral of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Underwood.

Misses Lillie and Flossie Kidd returned from Portland this morning where they spent several days purchasing millinery.

Just received—Another shipment of the famous "Last Forever" hosiery. A written guarantee with every pair. Sold only by The Fair. 11.

Robert Booth, of Eugene, returned home this morning after spending Sunday at the home of his brother, Hon. J. H. Booth in this city.

Road Supervisor W. A. Smalley arrived in the city today from Gardiner and will remain here for a few days attending to business matters.

Mrs. John Hall, of Myrtle Creek, who has been confined at Mercy hospital for several weeks, returned home this morning somewhat improved.

Fred Russell, brother of Mrs. S. M. Kelly, of this city left for his home at Toledo, Oregon, this morning after an extended visit in this city.

Miss Violet Reed, daughter of Southern Pacific brakeman George Reed, went to Woodburn this morning where she will spend about ten days visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Powell, of Medford, who has been assisting in the special meetings at the Free Methodist church in West Roseburg, went to Salem this morning where she will remain for several weeks.

B. Casey, wife and daughter left this morning for their home at Dallas after spending a few days in this city, visiting their son, Von Casey. Mrs. Casey is a sister of Eugene Parrett, of this city.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Underwood, of Oakland, passed away Saturday evening after a brief illness. The funeral was held this morning with interment at the Oakland cemetery.

For Men.—There is no better shoe made than the celebrated "J. E. TILL" which is to be found at the Millikin Shoe Store. And for heavy wear there is nothing equal to the "United Workman Shoe." 41-f.

Arthur Mahoney returned from Portland this morning after spending a few days at that city. As soon as he can sell his team and dray he will return to the metropolis where he expects to locate permanently. Mrs. Mahoney is at present at Portland.

Mrs. E. Autenreth and niece, Miss Captola Willis, left this morning for San Francisco where they will spend several weeks visiting relatives. While at that city Miss Willis may take a course of treatment, having partially recovered from a severe attack of infantile paralysis.

Under date of January 8, a friend writing to Observer William Bell from Idaho, says: "Dear Bill, The sun never sets or Idaho these days—no cold. Twentysix degrees below zero at Weiser and east $3 a ton. Cool. J. H. S." Such weather as this would freeze a Roseburger as stiff that he never would thaw out.

J. Brady, a local plumber, was arrested by Marshal Huffman late last evening charged with being drunk and disorderly. When arraigned before City Recorder Orent this morning he entered a plea of guilty, and accordingly was fined in the sum of $10. Being unable to come through with the unexpected assessment the individual accepted the alternate of 5 days in the "Hotel A Huffman."

Mrs. K. L. Miller and daughter, Madge, left this morning for Oakland, California, where the latter will take a course of treatment. Miss Miller has been confined at the home of her parents for several months, and notwithstanding the fact that the best of medical skill has been employed her condition has improved little. While at Oakland she will remain under the care of a specialist who has had years of experience in diseases similar to that from which she is suffering.

Charles Fitzgerald, a recent arrival in the city and who has been conducting a bootblack stand in a local barber shop, was arrested by Marshal Huffman Saturday for unbecomingly conduct toward Mrs. Geo Marshall, who, with her husband arrived in the city recently from Eugene. When arraigned before Justice of the Peace John T. Long later in the day Fitzgerald entered a plea of guilty and was fined $50. Not having the required amount of cash on hand the prisoner will serve his fine out in the city jail.

Thomas D. Richardson, who was recently employed by a number of Roseburg's business men as publicity manager, arrived in the city yesterday morning from Portland in readiness to assume the duties of that important position. Ascertaining that there is another booster in the state by the name of Thomas D. Richardson, Roseburg's Mr. Richardson has decided to change his name, and accordingly is presenting his cards which read, "Darby" Richardson. For the present Mr. Richardson will make his headquarters at the Roseburg Commercial club rooms, at which place he can be found by those wishing information regarding any section of the Umpqua valley. Mr. Richardson says that he is much pleased with Roseburg and Douglas county, and has reason to believe that many eastern people can be persuaded to locate here during the coming year should they be approached in a proper manner. Active publicity work will be taken up by Mr. Richardson just as soon as he can become acquainted with the details connected with his office.
