HAYHURST-SKELLY ITEMS.

We understand that Messirs. Wheldon and King have a force of men at work repairing the flume and telephone line belonging to the Skelly Lumber Company. It is reported that work will begin on the railroad in the spring.

H. R. Mansfield, a rustling real estate man from Drain, was in Hayhurat and vicinity hast week with a view to listing property on behalf of a colony of people who are expected to arrive from the frozen east shortly.

School will begin here about the first of March, Quite a number of our young people are at present attending school in Drain and Yoncalla. Hayhurst was invaded by the popular (7) colarged portrait man a short time ago. It is needless to add that a few people here felt very sad on reading the account in the News that J. D. Zurcher had licked said portrait man. They felt sad to think J. D. had to pay out $5 for dolog the job.

Cayotes and other varmints have killed several of Mr. Miller's sheep lately. Roy Andrews put a quietus on one old cayote, receiving $10 from Mr. Miller and Ben Huntington in addition to the bounty.

segmining to look better since the last warm rain.

Mrs. J. S. Miller has her new telephone line completed from Hayhurst to Yoncalla, where it is consected with Messrs. Richards and Hampeberg's lines. There will be a few subscribers on the line. Mrs. Miller has just received her new telephone, as it is proposed to put none but first class instruments on the line, thereby securing good service.

The little children of Mrs. Converse, Mrs. Isaac Ohlson and Mrs. Francis were quite sick with colds, but are about well again. Taken all around we begin the new year under favorable prospects.
