his best wishes for the holiday season to the members of Allen's family. It was developed that an uncle of the defendant, Borden, was employed under Allen as a supervisor.

Honey also took up a line of inquiry concerning a visit which Mr. Hermann made to the Fresno and Bakersfield oil fields in 1909. Mr. Hermann first said that he went down there out of curiosity, having a desire to see some of the great oil wells reported to have been discovered. Honey brought out the admission that several oil investors had met the commissioner at Albuquerque with a private car and had escorted him to Bakersfield. Mr. Hermann said that several contacts were pending before his office at the time, involving possession of the land which the "scrippers" were trying to take away from the original claimants on the ground that the land was not mineral in character. The witness said that he was coming home over the Southern route anyway and saw no harm in riding with the oil land owners.

which he is especially interested, and plans have been carefully worked out to learn the particular opportunity each inquirer seeks. The success of the big concerns that advertise extensively is largely due to the systematic "follow up" letters which, at intervals of about a week, they send to the inquirer—pounding away fact and reason, logic and argument, until the inquirer becomes a buyer.

That the business men of Roseburg shall know more of the many opportunities existing throughout Douglas county so they may, themselves invest or induce interest of friends, the Douglas County excursion was arranged. But the chief purpose of the trip is that the business men and farmers of all sections may get together and foster and promote a better fellowship for the further development of every section of the county.

On February 16 the Roseburg Commercial Club invites the people of Douglas county to return the visit

Gentlemen and ladies are requested to promptly advise Mrs. J. D. Zuercher, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Roseburg Commercial Club, of acceptance of this invitation, so that exact arrangements can be made.

Let me add, personally, that I earnestly hope as many Douglas county people as possible will come to Roseburg on Wednesday, February 16, so that I may have the further opportunity of knowing and making myself known to them. Respectfully,
DARBY RICHARDSON,
Publicity Manager, Roseburg Commercial Club.

WILLING.

AS for the troubles of the rich,
I wish it would occur
To them to let me help them
At no much cost,
I'd sit up with their worries
Until the hour was late
And gladly bear their burdens
If they would pay the freight.

Why should a man of money
Let little ills annoy
And drive him to distraction
When he could hire a boy
For very modest wages
To sit and stoke and fret
And all the nerve diseases
That go the rounds to get?

All round it would be better
To have it done for pay,
It then could all be crowded
Into an eight hour day.
The owner of the troubles
In seas of peace could swim,
Well knowing that an expert
Was worrying for him.

But here's a scheme that's better—
I know it couldn't fail—
To found an institution
For worrying by mail,
And then the man of money
Could thereby be a fox
And dump his load of trouble
All in the letter box.

Miss Ellen Gertrude Harris, teacher of vocal and piano. Studio at Oak and Kane sts., care of Mrs. A. C. Marsters.
