DIVISION CONFERENCE

S. D. Adventists Will Organize Six Southern Counties.

SESSIONS BEGINTUESDAY

Extension of Church Work in Southern Oregon Necessitates Establishment of Southern Oregon Conference.

Delegates from the Seventh Day Adventist churches in Lane, Douglas, Coos, Curry, Josephine and Jackson counties are arriving in the city today to attend the conference that convenes here at 9 o'clock tomorrow.

Believing that the extension of denominational work in this section of state can be accomplished with better results under direction of a conference that has officers in the district is why this new organization is being effected.

Aside from the business sessions that will take up a large part of the time during the week, there will be two preaching services each day—at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Following is the program for each day during the week following, including Sunday, April 5:

- Tuesday, March 29.
5 a. m.—Conference.
11 a. m.—Tithing, W. F. Martin.

Note.—Thirty minutes will be allowed for the presentation of each subject in the afternoon and five minutes to each speaker in the general discussion which follows.

PAVEMENT PRICES GO DOWN.

Mayor Simon is Hammering For a Closer Figure.

PORTLAND, March 26.—Asphalt paving dropped to $1.44 a square yard yesterday afternoon. This was disclosed when bids were opened by the city executive board. Bitulithic, however, did not meet the cut. The Pacific Bridge company bid $1.95 on bitulithic, a reduction of 5 cents, but it balanced this, it is said, by raising the cost of excavation. Mayor Simon declares he will demand a rate of $1.75 for this material.

SUICIDES ON TRAIN.

Enroute from Roseburg to Spokane —Cuts Throat.

SALEM, March 28.—Andrew Jackson Casey, aged 55, en route from Roseburg to Spokane, slashed his jugular vein with a pocket knife ten minutes before the northbound Southern Pacific train, due here at 5:15 this morning, reached this city.

Most of the passengers were asleep and it was not known that anything was wrong until some one noticed blood gushing from Casey's throat, which had been slashed on both sides. Casey died a few minutes after being removed from the train.

INVITE COMPETITION.

Lane County Farmers Want Another Telephone Company.

Eugene Guard: Fifty farmers, thoroughly angered by their treatment at the hands of the Pacific States Telephone company, expressed their opinions at a meeting of the Lane County Telephone Association at the Commercial club parlors this afternoon, and they expressed their ideas in some very pointed remarks. The immediate cause of their anger seems to be two-fold, first that their rates are being advanced, some of them seven fold, and second, as expressed by one, "the service is rotten." As a remedy for these, the farmers placed themselves upon record by a resolution stating that the charges were exorbitant, that the service was not justifiable for these rates, and that they were in favor of allowing the Home Telephone company to become a competitor to the Pacific States company.

LOCAL INSTITUTE.

Will Be Held at Wilbur Saturday, April 2.

The county superintendent of schools will hold a local teachers' institute at Wilbur, on Saturday, April 2, 1910.

A basket dinner will be served at the school house, to which all are welcome.

Teachers from other localities are invited, also patrons are urged to attend.

Following is the programme of the topics to be discussed:

- "What the Community and School Expect from Each Other," by H. J.
Austin, H. J. Robinson.
"The School, Grounds and the School House," by the county superintendent and Raymond Hewett.
"The High School in Small Districts," by J. W. Groves and L. B.
Fancher.
"Teaching the Child How to Study," by Emily DeVore.
"The Small Child in the Mixed School,"—discussion.

250 PERISH IN FIRE

Dancers in Austrian Town Caught in Fire Trap.

EXITS WERE JAMMED

Wooden Building was Crowded with Revelers and Burned Like Kind-ling Wood—Panic Strickken Inmates Caught.

(Special to the Evening News).

MATEZAKA, Austria, March 28.— Two hundred and fifty persons were killed in a fire which destroyed the village of Oakekerite while a dance was in progress, according to advices received here today. The building was of wood and the flames spread with great rapidity. On the alarm of fire being given the revelers became panic stricken and made a run for the exit, which was jammed in a few seconds. All avenues of escape from the building being cut off the dancers perished like rats in a trap.

NO ENTANGLING
ALLIANCES FOR HIM

(Special to the Evening News).

WASHINGTON, March 28.—A story to the effect that Col. Roosevelt is "putting his house in order," so as not to be hampered later if he should decide not to endorse the Taft administration, is creating considerable comment in political circles here today. The story is based on the statement that Congressman Longworth has refused to again serve on the congressional committee, and that this action was taken in response to letters from Roosevelt, in which the former president stated that he hoped the family would not be placed in any position which might make it embarrassing for him later.

AETNA TAKES ON RENEWED VIGOR

(Special to The Evening News)

CANTALIA, Italy, March 28.—After 24 hours of inactivity a violent eruption occurred at Mount Aetna late this afternoon. Lava is flowing through the streets of San Leo, and the villagers have abandoned their homes and gone to points of safety.

The estimated damage from the eruption of Mount Aetna reaches high up into the millions. The volcano is still in a disturbed condition, although the craters have ceased to expel lava.

SMOKE AND FIRE
FROM VESUVIUS

(Special to Evening News.)

NAPLES, Italy, March 28.—Five flisaura near the central crater of Mt.
Vesuvius opened today with a terrific roar. Great volumes of smoke poured from the rents, but the first eruption was not accompanied by a lava flow. Scientists believe that the activity of Vesuvius is caused by the subsidence of Mt. Etna. The inhabitants of the towns near Vesuvius are preparing to flee to places of safety in case the disturbance shows evidences of becoming serious.

PITTSBURG BANKS
BEFORE GRAND JURY

(Special to the Evening News)

PITTSBURG, March 28.—The grand jury today began the examination of the employees of six Pittsburg banks, which, it is alleged, have paid out many thousands of dollars to city congressmen to influence legislation so that the banks would be named as depositories of municipal funds. Indignation meetings are being planned for this week, and the ministry has combined in an effort to arouse public sentiment against the spread of corruption and vice.

BROUGHT TO LIFE.

Man's Heart Stops for Two Minutes, but He Still Lives.

SPOKANE, Wash., March 28.— Two minutes after his heart had ceased beating and after life had been pronounced extinct, Fred Gotzer, a lumberjack, was brought to life at the Spokane Emergency Hospital this morning by a heavy hypodermic injection of strychnine.
Gotzer reeled over in a fit directly in front of the police station. He was carried to the Emergency Hospital, where he gave a gasp and straightened. Nurse Dare felt of his pulse, but found none. Stephen P. C.

Milburn grasped the man's wrist. No sign of life could be perceived and he was pronounced dead.

Then the powerful hypodermic injection of strychnine was administered. The "dead man's" heart fluttered. Then it rose from a flutter to a steady beat. Respiration started and his life was saved.

BUY A NEWSPAPER.

J. M. Lawrence and G. P. Putnam Get Bend Bulletin.

BEND, Ore., March 28.—Negotiations have been closed whereby the ownership of the Bend Bulletin, a weekly newspaper, has become the property of George P. Putnam, with whom it is announced, is associated J. M. Lawrence, who, up to January, was Receiver of the Roseburg United States Land office, formerly proprietor of the Bulletin in Bend's pioneer days, and once on the staff of the Oregonian. Mr. Putnam has at various times done work for The Oregonian, especially in connection with the Deschutes railroad building, and has written exclusively upon Central Oregon subjects for both papers and magazines.

James O'Brien, the plumber who was arrested and incarcerated in the county jail on a charge of forgery, will be arraigned before Justice Long at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

MOB THREATENS
PRISONERS LIVES

(Special to the Evening News)

WATSEKA, Ill., March 28.— Threats of mob violence against Mrs.
J. B. Saylor, John Gruden and Dr.
William Miller, charged jointly with the murder of Banker Saylor, have been reported to the authorities today. Fearing that some attempt might be made to lynch the prisoners the sheriff placed an additional guard about the court room before the trial was resumed this morning.

HARMON NEXT DEM-OCRATIC CHOICE

(Special to the Evening News)

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 28.— Friends of Gov. Harmon, of Ohio, today declare that he will receive the democratic nomination for the presidency at the next national convention. This announcement is made following a conference of party leaders in this city, who practically agreed that Harmon is the man to make the run.

ROOSEVELT NOT AFRAID OF THEM

(Special to the Evening News).

CAIRO, Egypt, March 28.—Disregarding the warning of the nationalists, Col. Roosevelt, in an address before the University of Egypt, took a square stand for law enforcement, denouncing the assassination of Premier Pasha so vigorously that it surprised even those knowing his fearless reputation. The Colonel was routinely applauded.

OPERATION WAS NOT SUCCESSFUL

(Special to the Evening News)

NEW YORK, March 28.—Col. Dudley Evans, president of the Wells-Fargo Express company, and for years identified with company interests at Portland, Oregon, and other coast cities, died in this city this morning following an operation for gall stones.

QUARTER MILLION
FOR TARIFF BILL

(Special to the Evening News).

WASHINGTON, March 28.—President Taft sent a special message to congress this afternoon urging the appropriation of a quarter of a million for carrying on the work of the new tariff bill.

MENELIK DEAD
SURE THIS TIME

ROME, March 28.—The death of King Menelik is reported in a dispatch today from Abyssinia. Men-elik's death has been reported so many times within the past few weeks that the statement occasions no surprise and little interest.

BORN.

GREGORY.—To Mr. and Mrs. Moore C. Gregory, at Morey Hospital, Saturday night, March 26, 1910, a daughter.

KILLED AT THE GUN

Target Practice Brings Dreadful Accident to Sailors.

EIGHT MEN LOSE LIVES

Breach of 3-Inch Rifled Gun Blew Off and Most of the Gunners' Crew were Instantly Killed.

WASHINGTON, March 28.— Eight men were killed on the United States cruiser Charleston at Olong-apo, yesterday, according to dispatches received at the navy department today. The men on the ship were engaged in target practice when the accident occurred. A 3-inch gun was being used in the practice, and in firing the breach of the gun blew out. Whether the accident occurred from a defective shell or before the breach of the gun was closed, is not stated in the message. The greater part of the members of the gunners' crew were killed by the explosion. The dead are: Philip John Mc-Kee, master at arms; Walter Am-stead, Henry A. Heater, Leo Runnels, Harry Reevesgarder, Ralph Berkman, Maxie Bernard, Edward Albert Mollin, seamen.

OFFER MANAGER $6,000.

Commercial Club Sends Mr. Hartog a Two Year Contract.

Eugene Register: John H. Hartog, former manager of the Promotion Department of the Eugene Commercial Club, is in the city for a few days, having returned a few days ago from a business trip in Washington.
Just before coming up to Eugene he met, by appointment, a committee of two business men from Roseburg, representing the Commercial Club at that place, relative to securing his services as manager of the Roseburg club. The committee made Mr. Hartog the tempting offer of $12,000 for a two-year campaign as manager of their promotion department, and the two men signed a guarantee of the amount of the offer. Pending business matters now under negotiation by Mr. Hartog in Chicago and New York City and arrangements which he has already nearly completed to visit his native country.
