

LOCAL NEWS.

Get in line and follow the crowd that leads to the Armory May 3 and 4. m3

Everyone who appreciates good music should hear the "Merry Milkmaids." m3

Mrs. James Hubbard, of Marshfield, is spending a few days in the city visiting with friends.

Remington typewriter ribbons for all machines at Marsters' drug store. We deliver to your office. d-tf

A. Bellows left for Glendale this morning to spend a few days inspecting his interests in that locality.

Do you want to laugh? Then see the "Merry Milkmaids" at the Armory May 3 and 4. Tickets on sale at Marsters' Drug store. 50 cents. m3

Rev. W. A. Smlek and wife returned to Myrtle Creek this morning after a brief visit with friends in the city.

"Uncle John" Weaver and daughter returned to their home at Myrtle Creek last evening after a brief visit with friends in this city.

Mrs. E. Comstock has let a contract for the construction of a cement sidewalk in front of her property at the corner of Lane and Pine streets.

Does your typewriter wear ribbons? Get the KEE-LOK, the kind that wears best, does the best work and costs less. Roseburg Book Store, local distributors.

Horace Marsters, of the Farmers' Real Estate Company, spent a couple of hours at Winchester this morning and succeeded in landing beautiful 45 pound Chinook salmon.

R. E. Whittaker and children returned from Portland last evening after spending a few days at that city visiting with friends and relatives. Mr. Whittaker is one of the popular employes at the local Southern Pacific machine shops.

Three Acres and "Liberty" in which the author tells the possibilities of an acre. Where to find idle land, how to select, clear and cultivate it. A practical book. $1.75 net. By mail $1.85 at Roseburg Book Store. tf

Misses Allie Black and Mabel Clements returned from Portland yesterday after spending several days at that city in attendance at the annual convention of the Sunday schools of the Christian church.

"A furnace of Gold" a book which has been acclaimed the Western novel of the year. It is practically an account of the settlement of Goldfield, Nevada, and is full of action. $1.20 net. on sale at Roseburg Book Store. tf

W. O. Bridges, the Oakland merchant, underwent an operation at Mercy hospital this morning. The patient was suffering from an abscess of the lung and was considered in a critical condition. The operation was performed by Dr. Houck and was very successful.

E. Rhoades, formerly engaged in the confectionery business in this city, has purchased the Fred Wicks farm, comprising 10 acres and situated in the vicinity of Medford. The purchaser expects to improve the same during the summer and place it on the market this fall.

LOCAL NEWS.

If you like something quick and catchy see the "Merry Milkmaids." m3

Edward Cockelrease, the Deer Creek farmer, is a visitor in the city today.

Nelson and Walgaast fight at the Star theatre May 3. Don't miss this. tf

Dr. A. C. Seely was called to Olalla this morning on professional business.

Of course the "Merry Milkmaids" are not all boys, but that's what we want you to come and see. m3

John Bates, the Happy Valley farmer, is spending the day in town looking after business matters.

Come and buy your May basket at the May Day social at the Christian church Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. W. Wonnacott went to Myrtle Creek this morning where she will spend a few days visiting friends.

Mrs. Ida Hartley, of Jefferson, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lee in North Roseburg. Mrs. Hartley is a sister of Mrs. Lee.

The Daughters of St. George will present the "Merry Milkmaid" operetta May 3 and 4 under the direction of Prof. Lotz, at Armory. m3

Fred Hansen returned from Spokane, Washington, this morning after a brief visit with friends and relatives at that city.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church, have on sale at Rhoades & Co.'s second-hand store some home-made rugs. Call and inspect them. tf

J. T. Patterson, representing Beale & Company, of Portland, left for points north this morning after spending a couple of days in this city.

Contractor G. W. Worthington has been awarded the contract for constructing a cement sidewalk abutting the residence property of J. W. Parkins, at the corner of Mosher and Stephens streets.

A committee of ladies, representing the auxiliary to the Roseburg Commercial Club, distributed several hundred roses among the passengers passing through the city on this morning's train.

There were four Roseburg men in attendance at the Portland horse sale this week and among them they bought quite a bunch of drivers. F. E. Alley purchased the magnificent chestnut pacing filly "Majesta," by "Zolock," dam "Webfoot Belle." Mr. Alley also bought a pair of yearling Percheron colts. Sam Smith purchased two fine pony teams and a pony surry, and a nice big single roadster. He expects to use this stock in his livery business. Alva Bellows could not resist the Shetlands, and purchased a magnificent little brood mare which is due to foal soon. R. R. Wood bought the dam of the "Majesta" filly, "Webfoot Belle," who is also the dam of that handsome driver and winner of the Lewis and Clark prize as a two year old, "Moonlight Belle," and owned by Mr. Alley. These horses are enroute and will reach Roseburg this evening or Sunday morning.

LOCAL NEWS.

Don't fail to see Dillard, the Commodore in the "Merry Milkmaids." m3

Nelson and Walgaast fight at the Star theatre May 3. Don't miss this. tf

Attorney O. P. Coshow returned from points in the northern part of the state this morning.

Do not fail to attend the May Day social at the Christian church Saturday evening.

Contractor Frank Clements has been awarded the contract for erecting a five room bungalow for Mr. Hemholt, of Edenbower, a recent arrival in this section from the East. The residence will cost in the neighborhood of $2200, and will be equipped with a modern heating plant.

If you want your old suits to look like new take the mto Slopser. He knows how to fix them. Panama and felt hats also cleaned and blocked. Gentlemen's work exclusively. Agent for Ed. V. Price & Co., Chicago tailors. tf

C. W. Clark, the local photographer, accompanied by his wife, returned from Portland this morning after spending a few days at that city in attendance at the annual convention of the Sunday Schools of the Christian church. They report a most enjoyable time.

Joseph Lasina has sold his soft drink emporium, situated on Jackson street, near the corner of Douglas, to Joseph Heidenreich, for the past few years employed at the local brewery. Mr. Lasina is undecided as to what line of business he will engage in at present.

A very quiet wedding occurred at the office of County Judge Wonnacott shortly after 9 o'clock this morning, when Walter B. Haines and Janie Smith, both residents of Elkton, were united in marriage. The couple leave for their home at Elkton this evening where they will reside permanently. The couple are said to be well known in the vicinity of Elkton where they have a host of friends who wish them a long and prosperous future.

The committees in charge of raising funds with which to oppose the creation of Nesmith county are at work, and thus far have met with success. As soon as they complete the work a meeting of the county committeemen will be held, at which time further plans of active opposition will be outlined. Aside from sending thousands of circulars throughout the state, space will be acquired in the metropolitan papers that the voters at large may become acquainted with the nefarious scheme hatched and furthered by the office-seekers of Cottage Grove.

Attorney Frank G. Micelli has received word from Portland to the effect that Victor Tunzi, and two other Italians, arrested in Douglas county several months ago on a charge of having robbed the Sutherland postoffice, have been discharged by the Federal Grand Jury. It will be remembered that the Italians in question were at one time in custody of Sheriff Fenton, charged with robbing the Sutherland store, but were later turned over to the Federal authorities, and accused of having stolen a quantity of stamps from the postoffice, which was situated in the store alleged to have been burglarized.

LOCAL NEWS.

You will enjoy a pleasant evening by attending the May Day social.

Old newspapers, a big bundle for 10 cents. At Roseburg Book Store

Wm. Buxton was a visitor to Roseburg today from his home at Brockway.

H. B. Haines, Ruth Haines and Janie Butler, all residents of Elkton, are visitors in the city today.

Prof. J. H. Austin, of Wilbur, is spending the day in town looking after business matters.

Everybody's talking about it and everyone is going. Where? To the "Merry Milkmaids" May 3 and 4. m3

George Heath and wife, Frank Simmons and Clarence Grubbe were in the city today from Wilbur.

Quick service, three chairs, all firstclass men, can be found at the Maddix barber shop on Cass street. d-tf

H. Lowry, a recent arrival at Wilbur, where he purchased a farm, was in the city today and called at The News office.

Fountain pens, "Parker," "Conklin," "Waterman," these three, none better, on sale at Roseburg Book Store. tf

Mrs. S. T. Smith and children returned from Oakland this morning after a brief visit at the home of Mr. Smith's parents.

Private lessons given in vocal music. Voices tested free. Miss Nelle Bishop, Studio, Roseburg National Bank building. d-1

County Clerk Edward Lenox reports the issuance of many hunting and fishing licenses during the past week.

Colonel K. Shannon Taylor went to Winchester this afternoon to spend Sunday visiting at the home of his son, Grant.

Douglas County Creamery Butter—the best on the market—a home product, 80 cents a roll. Patronize home industry and get the best. tf

E. A. King, an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, left for Portland this morning where he will spend ten days visiting with relatives.

Where are you going, my pretty maid? Where do you suppose, kind sir, she said. "I'm a Merry Milkmaid at the Armory May 3 and 4. m3

Reports from various sections of the county are to the effect that the prospects for a bumper crop of prunes were never better than this year. About two weeks ago a report was sent broadcast over the county to the effect that the Italian prune crop would prove a failure, but this report is denied by the larger growers, who allege that the crop will excel all previous years.

At a special meeting of the Roseburg school board held at the offices of Judge Fullerton late yesterday afternoon, Architect W. F. Rodolf was authorized to draft plans and specifications for the proposed heating system to be installed in the Lane school. As soon as Mr. Rodolf completes his task bids will be received and the contract awarded. It is the intention of the board to have the plant installed and in readiness for operation by September 1.

See Ray Henderson as Dr. Riteher, M. D. S. V. P. D. Q. in the "Merry Milkmaids." m2

A. R. Manning, of Oakland, spent last evening in the city looking after matters of a purely business nature.

Red Ribbon Brand of Tomatoes

The only absolutely safe brand of tomatoes

Put up in guaranteed cans, that will not corrode by the fruit acid, not soldered but sealed by the new process.

The TOMATO in this can is the finest product of the soil, picked ripe, canned right, a delicious fruit that is nearest to fresh fruit, and that is the hardest part in canning fruit, to keep it plump and solid. This is the SOLID PACK TOMATO and as fine a sauce or desert fruit as you can buy.

Ask for Red Ribbon Brand and take no substitute. See our window.

Alton S. Frey

THE ICE MAN

Is Ready to Receive Your Order. Phone 1413 and Max Weiss will Give your Needs Prompt Attention.

WOOD FOR SALE ALSO

GOOD FOR ONE VOTE FOR

Queen of the Strawberry Festival

UMPQUA PARK ADDITION

The Alexander Bridge will soon be completed, the hand work of placing in position the massive concrete piers being almost done. From the Addition to the Railroad Depot is only 8 minutes walk making a very short distance to center of city.

The leading citizens of Roseburg all agree that for nice location, park accommodations, bathing, boating and fishing no addition to Roseburg offers the same advantages. Lots are all 40x140, fronting on two streets.

TERMS: Small payment down, balance small monthly payments, 3 per cent interest. For further particulars call at our office.

Umpqua Land & Water Company

116 Cass Street

Roseburg National Bank Building