SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1910.

COMPLETES HIS SIXTH YEAR.

Church Prospers Under Leadership of Rev. S. A. Douglas.

Albany Democrat: Today completes the sixth year of the pastorate of the Rev. S. A. Douglas at this place. He preached his first sermon as pastor of the Baptist church, June 12, 1904. The membership of the church then numbered 154. Since that date he has welcomed into the fellowship of the church 240 members. Of these 118 have been received and baptized on profession of faith, 90 on letters from other Baptist churches and 32 on relation of their christian experience. During the time letters of dismission have been granted to 88, to unite with other Baptist churches and 12 have died, leaving a net increase in membership of 140, thus almost doubling the membership. His pastorate has also marked the erection of the present fine church building which enables the members to handle the increased work of the church to such better advantage.

The Baptist church was organized with 10 members in 1867, and from its organization until 1904 there had been welcomed into the church 698, 554 of whom had removed to other fields or dropped out from one cause or another. The work has taken on immense strides during the past six years, with bright prospects ahead for the next six years.
