LOCAL NEWS.

S. C. Coulter went to Myrtle Creek yesterday afternoon on a short business trip.

E. A. Williams, of Dillard, looked after business interests in the city yesterday.

T. R. Sheridan, of the First National Bank, is expected home from San Francisco tomorrow.

Miss Belle Scott, who has been visiting Mrs. G. N. Yokum in this city, left this morning for home in Creswell.

T. W. Masterson, of Independence, spent yesterday in town attending to business matters and renewing old time acquaintances.

Bon Hanzing, of South Dakota, was in the city today calling on the real estate men with the intention of purchasing a fruit ranch in this locality.

D. L. Martin, of Melrose, spent Thursday in Roseburg attending to business matters. Mr. Martin is much pleased with the crop outlook in the Melrose district, and believes that it will exceed all former records this year.

Sheriff Fenton says that an officer will arrive here this evening from Long Beach, Cal., to take charge of Laan T. Tucker, who is wanted at the southern city on a statutory charge. Tucker is now confined in the county jail and appears indifferent as to his future. In fact, he is said to have told the officers that he might as well be in the "jug" as out.

County Assessor Frank L. Calkins received a letter from the state board of tax commissioners this morning, the substance of which is to the effect that hereafter all church property, the church building and lot upon which it stands, shall be taxed the same as other property. Heretofore the commissioners have placed an exemption on all church property, regardless of whether it was utilized for church purposes. The new ruling becomes effective at once.
