Great weather, this!

Quite a lull in sporting circles.

A man who is ashamed to show his face can't blame people for talking behind his back.

It was so sane the Fourth some people felt a little insane—but the result was good.

Some people act as if they were trying to furnish all the material for the road that is paved with good intentions.

Whenever you hear the other fellow squeal it is almost a certainty he has been "touched" on a tender spot.

It's about time for prospective candidates to begin to line up. There's no time to complain of spring fever—even if the weather is tropical.

If the atmosphere doesn't meet with your approval call up—or down—the weather man? He's responsible for these balmy summer days.

Most of us fellows would stand for having our face punched good and hard for the compensation Jeffries received. In fact it might enhance our beauty.

Johnson says he will retire from the prize ring, but will keep in training just the same—which means he will eventually be drawn into the arena—to meet the fate dished out to Jeffries by the negro.

The special number of The Umpqua Valley News is being mailed this week to many Eastern home seekers. Orders from all over the county are being received for this splendid number and it will go a great way in further advancing this fertile section of Oregon.

SOUTH MYRTLE CREEK NOTES.

South Myrtle Creek celebrated the Fourth in fine shape, at least 500 people being present to participate in the good time. The oration was delivered by Hon. Binger Hermann, and his address was well received by the audience. A splendid program of sports had been arranged, and everything pertaining to the day's pleasure was successfully concluded. The flag drill was especially attractive and interesting, and Mrs. E. W. Redder, who had charge of the drill, deserves much credit for her work in arranging for this feature of the program. There was no disorderly conduct on the part of any present.

This is a beautiful valley, and the people here invite the public to come out and see what a nice country we have.

Everybody in this section is busy mining, milling or harvesting crops.

A new soda fountain is being installed at the Hamilton Drug Company's store, on Jackson street, today. The fountain is of the latest design, is of the best material, and will no doubt answer the purpose for which it is purchased for many years. Mr. Hamilton expects to have the new addition in operation some time tomorrow or at the latest, Friday morning.

Burd W. Bickler, of the Clark & Honery Construction Company, arrived in this city yesterday to supervise the laying of 40 blocks of asphalt pavement in this city. Mr. Bickler says that excavation work will be commenced tomorrow, and that he expects to complete the contract in ninety days. Owing to the scarcity of teams in this city the company imported a carload of heavy horses, the same arriving here this morning. Mr. Bickler says that local labor will be employed as far as possible, but in case of a scarcity outside laborers will be shipped in. The company's office in the Creamery building was formally opened yesterday, with Harry Hildeburn, a local young man, in charge.

LOCAL NEWS.

J. H. Booth and little son went to Corvallis and other points in Benton county this afternoon, where the former will look after business matters connected with the Booth estate, and incidentally encourage the residents in that district to aid in making the state fair a grand success.

A warrant requesting the arrest of Manager Johnson, of the Star Theatre, was issued this morning upon complaint of William Abeene, who alleges that his son was ejected from the theatre, conducted by Johnson, with undue force on the part of the proprietor. The specific charge is that of simple assault and battery.

An order was authorized by the members of the county court today, reverting to Charles A. Smith, of the Smith Timber Company, certain tract of land, known as lot six, section 36, township 20, S. R. 10 W., which was bid in by Douglas county at a sheriff's sale in the year 1895, for non-payment of taxes. In the petition submitted to the court Mr. Smith set out the fact that at the time the land was assessed in 1894, it was exempt from taxation inasmuch as the present owner had not acquired his patent.

Mr. D. T. Noonan, of Portland, and Miss Lillie Mason, of Roseburg, were quietly married at high noon today at the home of H. Graham, Rev. W. H. Eaton pastor of the local Baptist church officiating. At the conclusion of the wedding ceremony, the wedding party, consisting of a few intimate friends of the contracting parties, enjoyed a delicious wedding dinner, prepared and served by Mrs. Graham. The happy couple leave for Portland where they will reside permanently, the groom having extensive interests in that section. The bride is well known here, and has a host of friends who wish her a long and prosperous life. Although little is known of the groom in this city, he is said to be a man of worth, being considered a steady and energetic business man.

A very pretty wedding, in which one of Roseburg's fairest daughters was the bride occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brown, on Deer Creek today when their daughter, Miss Violet, was married to Elmer R. Estelle, a highly esteemed resident of Falls City. The wedding ceremony was performed by Elder F. S. Bunch, of Rocky Ford, Coos county, in the presence of the immediate family and a few invited guests. Mrs. Estelle is highly esteemed in the vicinity where she resides, and is a member of one of the oldest and most respected families in this section of the state. Although little is known of the groom in this city, he is said to be a man of high attainments, and a favorite in his home city. The happy couple will make their future home at Falls City, where they will be at home to their many friends and acquaintances.
