OLALLA BUDGET.

The weather is nice and warm, almost too much so to be appreciated by the farmers during hay and grain harvest.

Miss Rhoda Holdredge is here from Thermopolls, Wyoming, to spend the summer with her father and sister.

Miss Zeylpha Croucher was calling on Brockway friends on Monday last.

Miss Edith Northcraft is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Northcraft.

Mrs. Henry Waters, of Palouse, Washington, spent several days last week with old friends and neighbors in Ten Mile.

Mrs. Junia Byron was called to Reston to assist in the care of her niece, Miss Lillian Matthews, who has been seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams took the stage last Tuesday where they spent several days with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Clarence Prock, who has been seriously ill at her home here, is convalescing, to the great joy of all her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Alderson are erecting a beautiful bungalow cottage on the ranch which they recently purchased from Henry Bushnell.

Dr. E. V. Hoover paid a professional visit to the home of C. A. Prock, whose wife was very sick.

Mrs. Harriet Eres and daughter, Miss Laura Collar leave here the latter part of the week for a vacation trip to "beautiful Bandon by the sea." They anticipate a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. Will Short, who is chairman of the reunion association states that no definite date has been set for the annual encampment, which is to be held this year. Watch for the date later.

Miss Rita Marsh, of Roseburg, who has spent part of her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams leaves for her home this afternoon. Later she leaves for Medford where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. Laura Cawfield.

The Misses Ida Friend and Nettie Shields, of Roseburg, accompanied by their gentleman friends spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Friend.

Miss Alta Friend is making an extended visit with Roseburg friends and relatives.

Miss Rhoda Holdredge is endeavoring to organize a girl's basket ball team. May she be successful.

Married—July 10th, 1910, at high noon, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Friend, their eldest daughter, Miss Winnie to Mr. Henry Croucher. Rev. M. W. Hampton, a close personal friend to all parties concerned, pronounced the magic words which made this popular young couple man and wife. At the conclusion of the ceremony congratulations and well wishes were extended to the happy couple after which they and only a few relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom repaired to the dining room where a most sumptuous dinner was served. Later in the evening, a charivari crowd composed of the friends of the young couple paid them a friendly visit to the tune of many cow bells, tin pans and such utensils as produced a big noise. When Henry thought they had made all the noise they could he called them in and served some good things to all present. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Croucher are deservedly popular young people of this community where they number their friends with big figures and their enemies with a zero. That they may live to enjoy years and years of wedded happiness is the sincere wish of all who have the pleasure of their acquaintance. They will reside upon the Vanderer estate, which the groom has rented for a number of years.

HERMOSA.

IMPOUNDED.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has impounded at S. T. Smith's livery stables in Roseburg, Oregon, 2 bay horses, each about 16 hands high. One is about 12 years of age and weighs about 1,300 pounds, has knots on knees and heart-shaped brand on right hip. The other is about 9 years of age, weight 1,400 pounds, and has white star on forehead.

If these horses are not redeemed by Wednesday, July 20, they will be sold at auction.

Dated this 16th day of July, 1910, at Roseburg, Oregon.

JOSEPH HUFFMAN,
City Marshal.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS.

Owing to extensive changes in the laying of new water mains under streets to be newly paved short interruptions in the service will occur from time to time during the next two months and we would request water consumers to keep a moderate supply of water drawn for domestic use.
