THE WOMEN'S COMMITTEE.

Clara C. Clark, waitress at the Roseburg hotel, went to Eugene this morning in response to a telegram announcing the death of her mother and sister. From the telegram it appears that the two women were burned to death, but how the accident occurred is not known.

The regular meeting of the Umpqua Valley Horticultural Society and Fruit Growers' Association, will be held at the court house in this city on Saturday, July 23, at 10 o'clock in the morning. A number of most important matters are scheduled for consideration and it is hoped that every member of the organization will attend. Among other things an executive committee will be elected to serve the association during the next twelve months.

Mark Alexander, secretary of the Umpqua Land & Water Company, has returned from the mountains where he spent the past ten days enjoying camp life. Mark has attained quite a reputation as a fisherman, and succeeded in catching a large number of the flannel trout during his late sojourn.

Joseph Murphy, who returned from Brewster Valley last evening reports several forest fires raging at the head of Coos river. He says that several thousand dollars worth of valuable timber has been destroyed notwithstanding the determined efforts of the firefighters to check its course.

Mrs. A. C. Kidd and daughter, Mrs. Lillian Purdy, left for Montreal, Canada, last night from which place they sail for Scotland at an early date. Mrs. Kidd has not seen her mother for twenty-nine years, and is said to say that she will be well pleased for the trouble and expense incurred on the journey.

T. J. Patterson, representing Beale & Company, of Portland, is a business visitor in the city today. Mr. Patterson says that considerable improvement work is in evidence in all sections of the state, and that it is almost impossible for his firm to supply the demand for road machinery.

Local automobile garages are doing a rushing business of late, and in some instances the employees are compelled to labor far into the night. Never before, say the proprietors of these garages, have so many tourists passed through Roseburg as this year, notwithstanding that the Seattle fair attracted many of their number during the season of 1909.

LOCAL NEWS.

C. H. Oden, living 9 miles east of Roseburg on Deer Creek, brought in several samples of rock from his farm, having seen in the News that a mining man from Montana was in town. He invites anyone interested in geology or mining to call on him, and will permit prospecting on the ranch. If there is anything there worth going after he is ready to make any kind of a fair proposition to the prospector. One sample of rock brought in has the appearance of oil shale, but we are not up on geology, so will leave the inspection to those better qualified.

Hardly a day passes that the commercial club does not receive letters from one or more persons asking for positions on ranches, and farms to rent. If any of our ranchers are in need of help at any time, they might obtain the same by notifying the publicity manager of the club. Business men who expect to have places for clerks within a reasonable time can also find a number of applications, generally from men who are well qualified and who have good references. Bricklayers, plumbers, carpenters, painters, and many other men with trades inquire about the prospects for work in Roseburg and vicinity. Any contractor who can use such men is invited to notify the publicity office. Most of these applications are from qualified men, who expect to go into the fruit growing business as soon as they can dispose of property, men with families who will contribute to the growth and prosperity of the city and county, and who are well worth encouraging to come here and locate.

The ladies of this city have organized a booster society whose object will be to beautify and boost the town and community. It goes without saying that the ladies will make a success of their new undertaking and that ere long our little city will rank with the best of them in cleanliness and beauty. Now that the ladies have started the good work, let us all lend a helping hand and thereby assist in this progressive work which makes for health and wealth and happiness. Our city, while not large is one of the best business points in the country and is backed up by a country second to none. Mrs. F. L. Beard is president of the new organization and Miss Helen Burt is secretary.

Much interest is being manifested in the protracted meeting at this place about 80 having declared their intentions of forsaking the world and following the Master. The meetings will probably close some time during the present week.

MRS. MCGINTY.

C. B. Cline, of St. Paul, Minnesota, arrived in the city yesterday, and will spend the next ten days in this vicinity looking over the country with a view of purchasing land. Mr. Cline informed a News representative this morning that he was merely acting as agent for a number of people of Swedish descent, who are desirous of locating in Western Oregon. "On account of the high prices that prevail in Douglas county," said Mr. Cline, "I doubt very much as to whether I can interest my clients. They are a class of people who develop the country, but are not financially able to purchase land at from $200 to $500 per acre." Mr. Cline will investigate Douglas county quite thorough before going elsewhere, however, believing that the advantages and climatic conditions in this locality are well adapted to general farming.
