THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1910.

A rounder is not a good citizen—and this is on the square.

Once an office holder always an office-seeker is the slogan of some politicians.

The less a man has in his head the easier a little "hot air" properly applied will cause it to expand.

How about that road to Crater Lake? It's a good proposition to push—at any time of the year.

The city council should pass an ordinance prohibiting expectorating on the sidewalks—and then enforce it.

Big assembly meeting in Roseburg next Saturday. Open to all republicans of the county. Be sure you're there.

Very few people care to know what's at the top of Mt. McKinley. However, there are many who would like to know what's at the bottom of the high cost of living.

The next thing in order is a correspondence school to enlighten the voter how to cast his ballot on the different measures to be submitted to the people at the fall election.

While some candidates in the local field are apparently of the opinion that they will have a walk-over without any opposition of a material nature the present consensus of opinion is that there will be strong opposition for every office on the ticket.

A man in Illinois writing to Manager Schlosser, of the Roseburg Commercial Club, says: "I received a copy of the special number of the Impqua Valley News. It's a hummer and chuck full of interesting news matter of your section." Copies of this number are leaving The News office every day going to people who have their eyes turned toward the west and will be a main factor in encouraging many to locate in Douglas county.

It has been suggested to The News by a member of the local district fair board that the dates of the event be changed owing to the fact that on one of the days scheduled for the fair the direct primary election will be held and the Wild West Shows is also billed for the same day as the primary election. With three important events to be "pulled off" in one day some one of the three is going to suffer and it would be a wise get together at an early date and arrange for holding the local district fair either a week before or after the two other occurrences.

Thomas Cobb and wife returned from Newport Tuesday night where they spent the past ten days enjoying life on the seashore. They report a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moss, accompanied by their daughter, returned to their home at Grants Pass Tuesday after spending the day here as witnesses against S. M. Reynolds, the negro porter.

Monarch Perfect Cooker

This Range Won First Honors on Technical Superiority as well.

The Monarch Malleable range won first honors for its technical construction, the material and demonstrations and tests in the Portland and Seattle world's fairs, these tests proved that the range was best of all, providing that it fit the local conditions.

During the last three or four years the Monarch has shown in Roseburg homes that it is a perfect baker and cooker in every respect. Not only does it bake evenly and thoroughly, but the wood consumption is unusually small. From the first this range burns little fuel, but it is after a year of use that the Monarch works most perfectly. The reason of this is the remarkable construction, malleable iron, three thicknesses of walls around the fire-box, and asbestos lining which concentrates heat where it is needed and prevents waste.

Besides the Monarch has a duplex draft, one in front and one behind, that consumes the wood or coal more thoroughly than any other draft. This range is for sale only by B. W. Strong.

OAK CREEK ITEMS.

J. J. Thornton and son, Will, were Roseburg visitors Saturday.

Mrs. J. P. Thomason is reported much better after her recent illness.

Henry Keruan spent Sunday at Gilde.

John Alexander, one of the assembly delegates, passed by here enroute to Portland, where he goes to attend the stat assembly.

B. W. Strong and son, Earl, and Mr. Ott spent Thursday at Whistlers Bend.

Leslie (Whiskers) Hatfield arrived in our valley and is busy sawing wood with his steam saw.
