William H. Son, a well known local resident, has filed suit for divorce in the circuit court against his wife, Della Son. The plaintiff alleges that he and his wife were married in Texas many years ago, and that in the year 1892 she deserted without even as much as informing him as to where she was going. Mr. Son asks for a divorce and such other relief as the court may deem advisable.

Perrine & Walker, real estate dealers in this city, are in receipt of a letter from a party in Cuba who is anxious to know more of this favored section of Oregon, and the man way down in Cuba read Perrine & Walker's advertisement in The News. We mention this fact to show what a wide circulation The News has, and that advertising in these columns pays.

James A. Sterling, pioneer of Douglas county and former county assessor, died at his home, at Drain, yesterday morning after an illness of several months. He was 62 years of age. He leaves a widow and two sons, Paul Sterling, railroad agent at Myrtle Point, and Edwin, residing at home. A step son and three step daughters also survive the deceased. The funeral was held at Drain last evening, interment occurring at the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

George Wesley Morris has filed a suit for divorce in the circuit court against his wife, Marietta Morris. The plaintiff alleges that he and his wife were married in Lake county, California, on August 31, 1887, and that seven years ago she left his home without provocation. Before going, the plaintiff declares, she remarked that she intended to leave him and would never return. The plaintiff asks for a decree and the custody of the minor child. The plaintiff is represented by Attorneys Cardwell & Watson.

In all probability another warrant of arrest will be issued against Max Weiss, proprietor of the local "cold storage", this evening or tomorrow, charging him with violating the local option laws now in effect in Douglas county. Fortunately, Marshal Huffman chanced to be in the vicinity of the storage plant shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when he noticed a well known carpenter by the name of Sun emerge from the resort with his pockets well filled with the questionable fluid. Accosting Sun, Marshal Huffman ordered him to produce the goods, and he did hand the officer three well filled bottles, all labeled, "Salem's Best". Questioned relative to where he obtained the beer, Sun said that it had been given to him by a friend, but later weakened under the strain of continual interrogation, and admitted that he had secured the product from Max Weiss in person. Marshal Huffman took the beer to District Attorney Brown's office where it will remain until such time as it is introduced in evidence.

Mrs. Ada Wallace Urub, state president Oregon Women's Christian Temperance Union, will speak in Edenhower church Sunday evening, August 14. Mrs. Urub is an eloquent speaker and all who hear her will be well entertained and instructed. Everyone should make a special effort to hear her.

Edward Singleton announced this morning that he will be a candidate for the office of constable, subject to the will of the democrat voters of Deer Creek precinct at the primary election to be held in September. Mr. Singleton is quite well known in this locality and will no doubt poll a substantial vote. In the event of his success at the primary election he will probably oppose D. J. Jarvis, the republican candidate, at the November election.

Morris Lancaster has sold his fine 150 acre ranch in Looking Glass Valley to Edward Warren, of Forsyth, Montana. Mr. Warren has a good position in Forsyth, Montana, and can not arrange his business so as to move to his ranch at present so will lease it for the coming year. Mr. Warren expresses himself as being pleased with his new home and the surrounding country about Roseburg and looks anxiously forward to the time when he will move on to his newly acquired home. The deal was consummated through the Perrine & Walker real estate firm.

Dr. Wade, a well known Drain physician, has filed his declaration of becoming a candidate for representative from Douglas county, subject to the will of the republican voters at the primary election to be held in September. Mr. Wade declares among other things that he is not in sympathy with the assembly plan, but seeks the nomination as a direct primary candidate. That Mr. Wade will meet with considerable opposition in Roseburg and vicinity appears evident inasmuch as he is alleged to have informed local citizens yesterday that the voters of Douglas county were not inclined to elect "inexperienced boys" to the representative offices, referring as he did to George Wixson, of Myrtle Creek; George Jones and George Neuner, of Yoncalla. The four young men Roseburg, and Benjamin Huntington, above mentioned resent Mr. Wade's insinuation, and believe that they are as competent to look after the interests of Douglas county's voters as he.

C. L. Swift, of Boise, Idaho, is spending a few days in the city investigating the proposition of establishing a cannery somewhere in Douglas county. When interviewed by a News representative this morning Mr. Swift said that he preferred to locate in the vicinity of Myrtle Creek, inasmuch as the larger and more important orchards were in that locality. It is Mr. Swift's intention to call a special meeting of the Roseburg Commercial Club at some future date for the purpose of presenting his plans to the club. He says that he asks neither money or land, but wishes the co-operation of the fruit growers in making the venture a success.

It Certainly is a Fact that no other drug store in the city has shown the rapid rate of growth that this one has and the reason is simply this—I have always tried to make a friend of every one of my customers, have always watched and studied their wants constantly in order to make my drugstore service as nearly perfect as possible.

I have added every accommodation and convenience that could possibly be of any benefit to my customers and the fact that my business is rapidly increasing is proof conclusive that my efforts have been appreciated.

Can't I count on you to help make this store
