Swiming in the Umpqua near Oak Street.

After spending the onlire morning in an effort to ascertain the origin of the several cases of typhoid fever now attracting the attention of local physicians, Dr. Calvin S. White, secretary of the state board of health, discovered that every case, with one exception, was caused by drinking water from wells, owned by A. J. Hellows and Judge J. C. Fullerton, and situated in West Roseburg. In one case, that of a young man, the physician believes that he contract-ed the disease from swimming in the waters of the South Umpqua riv-er at a point near the foot of Oak retary of the state board of health. er at a point near the foot of Oak street, the very outlet of Roseburg's er at a point near the foot of Oak street, the very outlet of Roseburg's sewer system. Interviewed by a News represen-tative this afternoon Dr. White stat-ed that there were thirteen cases of the dreaded disease in the city at the present time. One death is also attributed to typhold fever by the health officer, the deceased being Mra. King, who passed jaway in West Roseburg about three weeks ago Dr. Whites' Investigation was ins-sched with the utmost sincerety, and everywhere he went he made a close examination of the conditions. He says that the city of Roseburg should take some setion relative to restricting persons from swimming in the Umpquariver at a point near the foot of Oak street for the rea-son that the water in that vicinity of the river is impure, the result of the city severage.
