MYRTLE CREEK NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Denton returned Saturday from Medford whither they were called the middle of the week by the death of a nephew.

Mrs. Alf Allen, of Portland, was the guest of her friend, Mrs. S. S. Johns, from Tuesday to Sunday. Mrs. Allen formerly resided here.

Mrs. J. A. Dunnivan and daughter, Mrs. J. A. Rice and children, returned Tuesday from an outing in the mountains.

Mrs. J. B. Herrell, of Ashland, with her daughters, Helen and Louisa, are visiting at the home of Mrs. L. O. Starbuck.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter and family and Mr. Holiday have just returned from a hunting and fishing expedition. They report a splendid time.

Miss Florence Glass has been attending the teachers' examination in Roseburg this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers and two children left for their home in Springfield, Missouri, after a week's visit with Mrs. Chalmers' brother, Mr. Charles McLean, on North Myrtle Creek.

Nelly, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Chapman is ill with bronchitis.

The death of Joseph Lane has broken up the old home, his widow having decided to go to Portland with her daughter, Mrs. Ross. The little grandson, Harold Lane, who lived with them, will go also.

Mervin Daly has secured the contract to supply our public school with wood for the coming year and began to haul this week.

Plans are maturing for erecting a new Presbyterian church, on the site of the one recently burned, also a Baptist church where the old hotel stood that was burned five years ago.

The ladies aid society met at the home of Mrs. John Samuel Friday afternoon. Nearly twenty ladies were present. The flowers were very prettily used in decorating the room. Ice tea, cakes and a fruit salad were served. A pleasant feature was the making, by each lady who cared to, a booklet entitled "My Vacation, 1910," illustrating it by cutting pictures from magazines. It made a merry time. There were also a number of missionary readings.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Davis returned Wednesday from Santa Anna, Cal., where they went with the sorely stricken parents of the young man drowned in the Umpqua river, several weeks ago. Don Chilson by name.

A larger pump was installed Friday by the water and light company to supply our city with water.

Rev. W. B. Smith and family are back from their two weeks' outing to the coast.

Mrs. Jacob Brown has gone to Eugene for treatment for rheumatism from which she has suffered for some time.

TREBEIN.

Your Bath Room Plumbing

is a most important consideration. Upon its character the health and perhaps life of you and your family depend. If you are still without modern sanitary plumbing in your bathroom better have us change it at once. Because you have heretofore escaped serious illness doesn't prove that you will always be so fortunate.
